The Wind of Change Chris Bray,2013-08 Chris Bray is the backgammon columnist for The Independent and has been playing and studying the game for over thirty years In this anthology of his most recent Independent articles he traces the further development of many aspects of the game The game continues to evolve and the last twenty years have seen a period of rapid development in the game This is largely because of the advent of backgammon computer programs JellyFish Snowie and most recently eXtreme Gammon Consequently the modern expert player is light years ahead of his 1990s counterpart The material in this book covers not only the development of backgammon theory but also looks at the history of the game including some of its more famous and colourful players The timeless characters that make up Chris s menagerie continue to paint a vibrant picture of life in the high stakes chouette Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson are also on hand to lend instruction and for this book Jeeves and Wooster have joined the party as well

The dowager's secret, leaves from Frank Capel's diary, by Mignon Baseley,1897 Higher Education ,1949 Bulletin ,1960 Empress Dowager Cixi X. L. Woo,2002 In all the history of China only two women ever conquered and held the heights of power Both enjoyed long reigns characterized by ruthless intrigue they maintained an iron grip at the center while the vast country was torn by rebellions and caught up in foreign wars Through their policy decisions as well as their personal foibles both left a deep imprint in history and in the minds of the Chinese people fueling literature and legend Fighting to maintain her power base Empress Cixi struggled with the need to modernize the painfully backward empire she had inherited while honoring age old traditions She studied previous rulers failures and achievements and especially followed the example of another Chinese woman leader Wu Hou who had elevated herself from concubine to empress some 1200 years earlier

The Haunted Season G.M. Malliet,2015-10-29 Something sinister is stirring at Totleigh Hall the imposing manor house dominating the village of Nether Monkslip Usually the lord and lady of the manor are absent for most of the year but this year they have been in residence for some weeks now and the villagers are hoping for a return to the good old days when the lord of the manor sprinkled benefits across the village like fairy dust building roads and repairing bridges and donating money to the upkeep of St Edwold s while hosting splendid dinners at the Hall to which the vicar and the village doctor were invited by right and tradition Max Tudor s own invitation comes as a welcome novelty it will be his first time meeting the famous family that once held sway in the area The fact that they were famous for their eccentricities only adds to their appeal for the Anglican priest But before he has time to starch his clerical collar and organize a babysitter a sudden and suspicious death intervenes and the handsome vicar s talent for sorting through clues to solve a murder is once again called into play Praise for G M Malliet Rarely have I read descriptions that have left me gasping in both their hilarity and their painful truth Louise

Penny G M Malliet has brought the village cosy into the twenty first century Wicked Autumn is a refreshing read for everyone who loves a really good murder Charles Todd There are certain things you want in a village mystery a pretty setting a tasteful murder an appealing sleuth Malliet delivers all that New York Times Book Review Administration of Higher Education Walter Crosby Eells,1960 The Dowager; Or The New School for Scandal Catherine Grace F.
