Down These Mean Streets A Man Must Go:

Down These Mean Streets a Man Must Go Philip Durham,1963 Tells how Raymond Chandler developed the figure of the hard boiled detective Philip Marlowe from the material and concerns of his own life Down These Mean Streets Keith R. A. DeCandido,2005-08-30 The amazing adventures of Marvel Comics Spider Man continue in this all new novel A new designer drug with physically altering side effects sweeps through New York leaving behind utter chaos As Spider Man stumbles onto the drug s origin he almost must face one of his most fearsome enemies Original Hard-boiled Heretic Mary Stanley Weinkauff,1994-01-01 A study of the character of Lew Archer and the novels that he appears in Manhood in America Michael S. Kimmel,2018 For more than three decades the women s movement and its scholars have exhaustively studied women s complex history roles and struggles In Manhood in America A Cultural History Fourth Edition author Michael Kimmel argues that it is time for men to rediscover their own evolution Drawing on a myriad of sources he demonstrates that American men have been eternally frustrated by their efforts to keep up with constantly changing standards Kimmel contends that men must follow the lead of the women s movement it is only by mining their past for its best qualities and worst excesses that men will free themselves from the constraints of the masculine ideal The Walker Matthew Beaumont,2020-11-10 From Charles Dickens London to today s megacities a fascinating exploration of what urban walking tells us about modern life for fans of Rebecca Solnit Olivia Laing s The Lonely City and literary history A labyrinthine journey into the literature of walking and thinking as seen in the lives and works of Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Ray Bradbury and other literary greats Guardian There is no such thing as a false step Every time we walk we are going somewhere Especially if we are going nowhere Moving around the modern city is not a way of getting from A to B but of understanding who and where we are In a series of riveting intellectual rambles Matthew Beaumont retraces episodes in the history of the walker since the mid 19th century From Dickens s insomniac night rambles to restless excursions through the faceless monuments of today s neoliberal city the act of walking is one of self discovery and self escape of disappearances and secret subversions Pacing stride for stride alongside literary ambler and thinkers such as Edgar Allan Poe Andr Breton H G Wells Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and Ray Bradbury Beaumont explores the relationship between the metropolis and its pedestrian life Through these writings Beaumont asks Can you get lost in a crowd What are the consequences of using your smartphone in the street What differentiates the nocturnal metropolis from the city of daylight What connects walking philosophy and the big toe And can we save the city or ourselves by taking to the pavement Men Alone Jopi Nyman,2022-02-28 This study examines masculinity and individualism in four American novels of the 1920s and 1930s usually regarded as belonging to the genre of hard boiled fiction The novels under study are Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain They Shoot Horses Don t They by Horace McCoy and To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway In this first full length study of gender in hard boiled fiction the genre is discussed as a representation of the ideologies of masculinity and individualism Hard boiled fiction is located in its historical and cultural context and it is argued that the genre with its explicit emphasis on masculinity and masculine virtues attempts to reaffirm a masculine order The study argues that this emphasis is a counter reaction to more general changes in the gender relations of the period Indeed hard boiled fiction is argued to be an attempt to reconstruct a masculine identity based on anti modern values generally accepted in the cultural context of the genre

and 48 poems Four of the stories are works of fiction Some of the stories for example Life on a sugar plantation in colonial Guyana contain a lot of information of historical significance that has previously been unrecorded and could well be lost in the passage of time I was born in 1945 on Springlands Sugar Estate where we lived in a small cottage in the estate compound behind and west of the District Commissioners Office building The story about life on a British colonial sugar plantation is drawn from personal experience and it is told in the voice of someone who actually lived that life The story entitled Going to America represents todays reality of Guyanese who have left leaving or trying to leave Guyana The expatriate Guyanese community particularly in North America should certainly be able to relate to that experience Many of my compatriots were forced to undergo a second traumatic deracination for economic and political reasons lack of opportunity in the homeland no jobs no viable future and other reasons when they emigrated to Britain United States of America Canada the West Indies and other places The ancestors of Afro Guyanese were dragged out of Africa and brought to the New World as slaves The forefathers of Indo Guyanese were lured to British Guiana by deception and false promises and became bound coolies trapped in a form of indentured servitude that some regard as another form of slavery The second Guyanese uprooting and displacement though done largely voluntarily was no less disruptive frightening emotionally turbulent and difficult than the first one either from Africa or India Life for these people in a new land very often in hostile climatic conditions quite unlike the tropical conditions in the homeland was difficult harrowing stressful tumultuous psychologically traumatic and distressing for new emigrants The history of the Guyanese people is written in blood sweat tears suffering and misery The children of the new Guyanese diaspora will subsequently have their own story to tell about life in an alien land It has been said that it is easy for the poor to escape from a poor nation but it is not so easy for them to escape poverty in a rich nation Emigrants particularly those of an older generation who are set in their ways often experience extreme difficulties acculturating and assimilating into a different society and adjusting to an alien way of life They are often relegated to a shadowy existence in the marginalized immigrant community standing on the periphery of an alien culture looking in and experiencing loneliness hopelessness helplessness and lacking a sense of belonging Refer to the poem in this book entitled Living in a place where you were not born for some insights on this issue Stories such as Hunting birds with slingshots in Guyana Making and flying kites in Guyana Catching mullet at No 73 waterside Notorious fowl thieves of the village and When you really know it was Christmas time can elicit strong nostalgia and sentimental memories of youthful experiences so pleasurable and engrossing that it could cause you to yearn for a past life that was simple care free full of wonderful remembrances and recollections When I think of the wonderful life I once lived at Clonbrook I am a young lad all over again and I am happy Those who lived that life and had fond memories of it should certainly share these stories with their children and grandchildren Make these stories more real and fascinating by adding your own memories and experiences as you read them to your descendants After all everybody has a story to tell There are forty eight poems in this compilation that are sure to evoke emotions and nostalgia Many deal with subject matters pertaining to the Corentyne The reason for that is simple I was born and raised in the Upper Corentyne and I hold lots of treasured an

Purity and Contamination in Late Victorian Detective Fiction Christopher Pittard, 2011 Concentrating on works by authors such as Fergus Hume Arthur Conan Doyle Grant Allen L T Meads and Marie Belloc Lowndes Christopher Pittard explores the complex relation between the emergence of detective fictions in the 1880s and 1890s and the concept of purity The centrality of material and moral purity as a theme of the genre Pittard argues both reflected and satirised a contemporary discourse of degeneration in which criminality was equated with dirt and disease and where national boundaries were guarded against the threat of the criminal foreigner Situating his discussion within the ideologies underpinning George Newnes Strand Magazine as well as a wide range of nonfiction texts Pittard demonstrates that the genre was a response to the seductive and impure delights associated with sensation and gothic novels Further Pittard suggests that criticism of detective fiction has in turn become obsessed with the idea of purity thus illustrating how a genre concerned with policing the impure itself became subject to the same fear of contamination Contributing to the richness of Pittard s project are his discussions of the convergence of medical discourse and detective fiction in the 1890s including the way social protest movements like the antivivisectionist campaigns and medical explorations of criminality raised questions related to moral purity Projecting Paranoia Ray Pratt,2001 A wide ranging and idiosyncratic look at sixty years of politics and film that uncovers how American movies have mirrored and even challenged anxieties and paranoid perceptions embedded in American society since the start of the Cold War The first book to take a sweeping look at 60 years of film and analyze them thematically Reading California Stephanie Barron,Sheri Bernstein,Ilene Susan Fort,2000 This collection of essays written by a stellar cast of art historians and scholars looks closely at the forces that shaped fine art and material culture in California Illustrations

Chesterton, London and Modernity Matthew Beaumont,Matthew Ingleby,Lawrence Phillips,2016-02-25 G K Chesterton London and Modernity is the first book to explore the persistent theme of the city in Chesterton s writing Situating him in relation to both Victorian and Modernist literary paradigms the book explores a range of theoretical and methodological approaches to address the way his imaginative investments and political interventions conceive urban modernity and the central figure of London While Chesterton's work has often been valued for its wit and whimsy this book argues that he is also a distinctive urban commentator whose sophistication has been underappreciated in comparison to more canonical contemporaries With chapters written by leading scholars in the field of 20th century literature the book also provides fresh readings and suggests new contexts for central texts such as The Man Who Was Thursday The Napoleon of Notting Hill and the Father Brown stories It also discusses lesser known works such as Manalive and The Club of Queer Trades drawing out their significance for scholars interested in urban representation and practice in the first three decades of the 20th century

Two Guns from Harlem Robert E. Skinner, 1989 Among the many writers who lent their talents to the creation of hard boiled detective fiction few have approached it from a more original perspective than Chester Himes A former criminal himself Himes brought to the writing of detective fiction the perspective of the black man Himes made his debut with the brilliant For Love of Imabelle for which he was awarded the coveted Grand Prix de la Littérature Policière Two Guns from Harlem probes Himes's early life and career for the roots of this series and for its heroes Coffin Ed Johnson and Grave Digger Jones Skinner discusses how Himes's experience as a black man combined with his unique outlook on sociology politics violence sex and race relations resulted not only in an unusual portrait of black America but also opened the way for the creation of the ethnic and female hard boiled detectives who followed

Glimpses of Phoenix David William Foster, 2013-05-01 Part of the self image of Phoenix is that the city has no history and that anything of importance happened yesterday Also that Phoenix the Arizona state capital is a clean city despite a past of police corruption and social oppression The real Phoenix easygoing sun drenched a place of ever expanding development and economic growth guarantees it is said an enviable lifestyle low taxes and unfettered personal freedom and opportunity Little of this is true

Phoenix has been described as one of the least sustainable cities in the country. This sixth largest urban area of the United States has an alarmingly superficial and tourism oriented discourse among its leaders. This book examines a series of narrative works: novels, theater, chronicles, investigative reporting, personal accounts, editorial cartooning, even a children's television program that question this discourse in a frequently stinging fashion. The works examined are anchored in a critical understanding of the dominant urban myths of Greater Phoenix and an awareness of how all the newness, modernity and fun in the sun mentality mask a uniquely dystopian human experience.
