Louisiana Libraries ,2000 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Down South Poets Charles L. Peters,Kenneth C. Dillon,Quenton D. Gillispie,2000 Hicks, Tribes, and Dirty Realists Robert Rebein,2014-07-11 Robert Rebein argues that much literary fiction of the 1980s and 90s represents a triumphant if tortured return to questions about place and the individual that inspired the works of Hawthorne Melville Twain Faulkner and other giants of American literature Concentrating on the realist bent and regional orientation in contemporary fiction he discusses in detail the various names by which this fiction has been described including literary postmodernism minimalism Hick Chic Dirty Realism ecofeminism and more Rebein s clearly written nuanced interpretations of works by Raymond Carver Cormac McCarthy Don DeLillo Louise Erdrich Dorothy Allison Barbara Kingsolver E Annie Proulx Chris Offut and others will appeal to a wide range of readers The Complete Plays of Frances Burney Vol 1 Peter Sabor,Geoffrey M Sill,2024-10-28 The complete plays of Fanny Burney taken from the original manuscripts of her work The work includes a general introduction headnotes to each play explanatory notes and variant readings Trajectories ,2019-02-11 Trajectories The Educational and Social Mobility of Educators from the Poor and Working Class is a collection of mobility narratives of critical scholars in education from poor and working class backgrounds While Americans have long held deep seated cultural beliefs in the capacity of schooling to level unequal playing fields there has been little research on the psycho social processes of social and educational mobility in the United States Rising Up employs narrative research methodologies to interrogate the experiences of class border crossing via success in school This volume addresses two discourses within education First the experiences of those who have crossed class boundaries contribute to a deeper understanding of how social class functions in the United States The narratives compiled in this volume explore class within the lives of young people on the margins as identities ambition and achievement are constructed and negotiated in school More specifically the volume suggests new directions for policy and practice to counteract classism in schools and in the broader culture As they write of the constraints that they circumvented to succeed against the odds these authors complicate notions of opportunity as the inevitable reward for high achievement As they write of agency and tenacity they will illuminate cultural strengths that likely were invisible to teachers and peers As critical scholars of education the contributors to this volume speak specifically to ways in which teacher education can and should address issues of class A Collection of Voyages and Travels, Consisting of Authentic Writers in Our Own Tongue Osborne,1745 The Cambridge Companion to Australian Poetry Ann Vickery,2024-06-13 This volume investigates Australian poetry s centrality to debates around colonialism nationalism diversity embodiment local global relations and the environment A History of the Literature of the U.S. South: Volume 1 Harilaos Stecopoulos,2021-05-05 A History of the Literature of the U S South provides scholars with a dynamic and heterogeneous examination of southern writing from John Smith to Natasha Trethewey Eschewing a master narrative limited to predictable authors and titles the anthology adopts a variegated approach that emphasizes the cultural and political tensions crucial to the making of this regional literature. Certain chapters focus on major white writers e.g. Thomas Jefferson, William Faulkner, the Agrarians, Cormac McCarthy, but a substantial portion of the work foregrounds the achievements of African American writers like Frederick Douglass, Zora Neale Hurston, and Sarah Wright to address the multiracial and transnational dimensions of this literary formation. Theoretically informed and historically aware, the volume's contributors collectively demonstrate how southern literature constitutes an aesthetic, cultural, and political field that richly repays examination from a variety of critical perspectives.

Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia, Volume 1: Poetry of ad-Dindan Marcel Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27

This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry by ad-Dindan, a bedouin poet of the Duw sir tribe in southern Najd, transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings. The text is representative of a poetic tradition which has remained remarkably close to the desert poetry of the early classical age. An extensive glossary including detailed cross references to the classical Arabic vocabulary completes this edition. The introduction describes Dindan's somewhat anomalous position in local society as a result of his stubborn attachment to nomadism, his fierce artistic temper, and his unreconstructed bedouin ethos. It also discusses the composition of oral poetry, the dominant themes, and its place in the Najdi tradition, the impact of literacy on the poet's oral work, and the prosodic and linguistic features of the text.
