Roanoke Wanda Smith, Ann French Clark, 2010 The first pioneers who came to the Roanoke area in 1844 were led by Lewis and Charles Medlin of Missouri This group consisted of about 20 families including the 10 sons of the Medlin brothers They came for an opportunity where each married man could obtain 640 acres and single men could receive 320 acres Settlers were primarily looking for water timber and abundant game which they found near Denton Creek They built log houses and a school where church was held and they soon began businesses to sustain their new town Today Roanoke is a fast growing small city that is distinguished by a charming and eclectic downtown and steady lines of hungry diners Roanoke was appointed the Unique Dining Capital of Texas for its concentration of delicious and entertaining family owned restaurants and welcomes thousands of visitors each year to enjoy many special events including the annual Celebrate Roanoke in October

The Roanoke Valley in the 1940s Nelson Harris, 2021-01-18 The history of the Roanoke Valley during the 1940s has largely been unexplored until now This significant decade bore witness to the birth of the local civil rights movement the impact of World War II and the postwar boom in public projects and private development The J Class locomotives Carver School Woodrum Field Victory Stadium Carvins Cove the Roanoke Star the end of streetcars and the advent of drive in theaters all marked the decade Crowds thronged to see the biggest names in radio film and music at the American Legion Auditorium the Academy of Music and the Roanoke Theatre while Major League baseball and professional football brought exhibition games to Maher Field and Victory Stadium Local historian Nelson Harris provides a detailed account of this
