Alan Jones,2021-11-30 Alan Jones shares his reminiscences of growing up in South Liverpool during the forties and fifties in the aftermath of the Second World War the most destructive war the world has ever known It was a time of austerity of rationing but also a time when the extended family was still largely in existence As part of an extended family he recalls how he spent as much time with his grandmother as he did with his parents and given she had brought up nine children it was a family of sizeable proportions It was a time when children had much more freedom to roam the streets and when corporal punishment was woven into the fabric of school life Don't Wake Up the Bear! Penelope Dyan,2013-04 No one likes to be awakened from a sound sleep especially not your teddy bear Practice your reading skills as you learn to read through repetition word recognition and rhyme and enjoy the kid friendly illustrations in this fun book written and illustrated by Penelope Dyan an award winning author an attorney and a former teacher who really knows loves and understands children Dyan books are kid tested and they encourage children to be creative and even to try their own hand at creating their very own books without even being told to do so Children are encouraged to shout out the word that comes next in the rhyme and can see words repeated meaning if they don t get a word or phrase the first time they have another chance to get it right This method creates a built in success Kids will want to learn and read if they think that learning and reading are fun And this is the whole point of the Penelope Dyan kids readers For a kid everything in life should be fun and Dyan believes we should all remain kids as long as possible Look for the music video that goes along with this book on the Bellissimavideo YouTube Channel for even more learning fun
