

A black and white photograph of Dora Maar, a French surrealist painter and poet. She is shown from the chest up, resting her chin on her right hand. She has dark, wavy hair and is looking slightly to the left with a contemplative expression. She is wearing a short-sleeved top with a bold, abstract pattern of dark circles and lines on a light background. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting with foliage.

Dora Maar With Without Picasso:

Dora Maar Mary Ann Caws,2000 Dora Maar with & Without Picasso Mary Ann Caws,2000 She was to be Picasso's lover and muse for seven years In that time she photographed him at work and play in the studio and on the beach alone or with friends such as Man Ray Andre Breton Jacqueline Lamba and Paul Eluard In early 1957 she created a unique photographic record of the painting of Guernica Picasso's searing protest against the carnage of the Spanish Civil War Dora's own features were immortalized in the lamp bearing woman in Guernica and in the harrowing distortions of the Weeping Woman the image in which Picasso achieved his most acute expression of the public and private anguish of those years

Pablo Picasso and Dora Maar Dr Enrique Mallen,2021-03-12 Although Pablo Picasso spotted Dora Maar at a cafe in January 1936 it is highly likely that she had come to his attention prior As Brassa a Hungarian French photographer recalled It was at Les Deux Magots that one day in autumn 1935 he met Dora On an earlier day he had already noticed the grave drawn face of the young woman at a nearby table the attentive look in her light colored eyes sometimes disturbing in its fixity When Picasso saw her in the same cafe in the company of the surrealist poet Paul Eluard who knew her the poet introduced her to Picasso Brassa aka Gyula Halasz Conversations with Picasso University of Chicago Press 1999 Tinged with a seductive mix of violence and dark eroticism this first meeting has attained mythical status in the story of the artist's life It reads like an unreal fantasy A mysterious and feline beauty which Man Ray had captured in the pictures he took of her a companion of Georges Bataille Dora was an accomplished photographer close to the Surrealists revolutionary aesthetics Picasso addressed her in French which he assumed to be her language she replied in Spanish which she knew to be his For the next decade the painter would translate not just his fascination with the woman who had seduced him on the spot but also his desire to escape the grip of someone who for the first time could intellectually aspire to be his equal Dora would appear in his works as a female Minotaur a Sphinx a lunar goddess and a muse Because of her intense artistic sensibility her poetic gifts and her ability to participate in suffering she was especially qualified to resonate Picasso's own inner torments during these troubled years time Academy Award nominee for best director responsible for such film classics as A Room with a View and The Remains of the Day Ivory speaks with remarkable candor and wit about his more than forty years as an independent filmmaker In this deeply engaging book he comments on the many aspects of his world traveling career his growing up in Oregon he is not an Englishman as most Europeans and many Americans think his early involvement with documentary films that first brought attention to him his discovery of India his friendships with celebrated figures here and abroad his skirmishes with the Picasso family and Thomas Jefferson scholars his usually candid yet at times explosive relations with actors Supported by seventy illuminating photographs selected by Ivory himself the book offers a wealth of previously unavailable information about the director s life and the art of making movies

James Ivory on On the Merchant Ivory Jhabvala partnership I ve always said that Merchant Ivory is a bit like the U S Govenment I m the President Ismail is the Congress and Ruth is the Supreme Court Though Ismail and I disagree sometimes Ruth acts as a referee or she and I may gang up on him or vice versa The main thing is no one ever truly interferes in the area of work of the other

On Shooting Mr and Mrs Bridge Who told you we had long 18 hour days We had a regular schedule not at all rushed worked regular hours and had regular two day weekends during which the crew shopped in the excellent malls of Kansas City Paul Newman raced cars somewhere unknown to us and the insurance company and I lay on a couch reading The Remains of the Day

On Jessica Tandy as Miss Birdseye in The Bostonians Jessica Tandy was seventy two or something and she felt she had to play being an old woman to act an old woman Unfortunately I couldn t say to her You don t have to act this just be that will be sufficient You can t tell the former Blanche Du Bois that she s an old woman now

On Adapting E M Forster s novels His was a very pleasing voice and it was easy to follow Why turn his books into films unless you want to do that But I suppose my voice was there too it was a kind of duet you could say and he provided the melody

On India If you see my Indian movies then you get some idea of what it was that attracted me about India and Indians any explanation would sound lamer than the thing warrants The mood was so great and overwhelming that any explanation of it would seem physically thin I put all my feeling about India into several Indian films and if you know those films and like them you see from these films what it was that attracted me to India

On whether he was influenced by Renoir in filming A Room with a View I was certainly not influenced by Renoir in that film But if you put some good looking women in long white dresses in a field dotted with red poppies and they re holding parasols then people will say Renoir

On the Critics I came to believe that to have a powerful enemy like Pauline Kael only made me stronger You know like a kind of voodoo I wonder if it worked that way in those days for any of her other victims Woody Allen for instance or Stanley Kubrick

On Andy Warhol as a dinner guest I met him many times over the last twenty years of his life but I can t say I knew him which is what most people say even those who were his intimates Once he came to dinner with a group of his Factory friends at my apartment I remember that he or someone else left a dirty plate with chicken bones and knife and fork in my bathroom wash basin It seemed to be a symbolic gesture to be a matter of style and not just bad manners
