the Golden Age of cinema He won the Academy Award for Best Actor for his performance as the alcoholic writer in The Lost Weekend 1945 a defining moment that enabled him to break free from romantic leads and explore darker shades of his debonair demeanor such as the veiled menace of his scheming husband in Hitchcock's Dial M For Murder 1954 A consummate professional with wide range Milland took the directorial reins in several of his starring vehicles in the 1950s most notably in the intelligent Western A Man Alone 1955 He comfortably slipped into most genres from romantic comedy to adventure to film noir Later he turned to science fiction and horror movies including two with cult filmmaker Roger Corman This first complete filmography covers the actor's screen career with a concise introductory biography and an appendix listing his extensive radio and television credits The Minute Man ,1942 Dashing to the End Eric Monder,2025-05-15 Born Alfred Reginald John Truscott Jones Welsh American actor Ray Milland 1907 1986 appeared in more than 135 theatrical releases between 1929 and 1985 and on radio television and the stage while also becoming a film director Milland's extensive canon across such a period is remarkable especially considering his lack of formal training his belated start in show business in his late twenties and the fact he only lived to age seventy nine Perhaps best remembered for his Oscar winning performance as the tortured alcoholic in Billy Wilder's The Lost Weekend 1945 or his outstanding collaboration with Alfred Hitchcock in Dial M for Murder 1954 there is much more to Milland's life and career than the few films that elevated him from star to icon Despite his prolific and successful career Dashing to the End The Ray Milland Story is the first comprehensive biography of the star Milland's personal and professional trajectory epitomize quintessential Hollywood lore the British army soldier turned actor who went from unknown struggling bit player to Oscar winning star to aging scandal haunted has been to comeback character actor to present day cult figure Using interviews with Milland's costars and colleagues as well as research from several major archives author Eric Monder brings into sharp relief both the positive and negative aspects of the Hollywood film and television industries and paints a well rounded portrait of this complex man and artist Field Organization News Letter ,1942 White Lens on Brown Skin Matthew B. Locey,2023-02-21 From the earliest accounts of contact with Europeans Polynesians have been perceived as sensual and sexual beings By the late 1800s publications lectures and stage plays about the Pacific became popular across Europe and often contained exotic and erotic components This book details the fusion of truth and fiction in the representation of Pacific Islanders focusing on the sexualization of Polynesians in American cinema and other forms of mass communications and commercial entertainment With messaging almost subliminal to American audiences the Hollywood media machine produced hundreds of tropical film titles with images of revealing grass skirts scanty sarongs female toplessness and glistening exposed male pectorals This critical filmography demonstrates how the concept of sex sells especially when applied on a large scale shaped American social views on Polynesian people and their culture Chapters document this phenomenon and an annotated filmography of sexualized tropes and several appendices conclude the book including a glossary of Polynesian terms and a film index
