Dos Torres:

, Visitors from beyond the Grave Dámaris Romero-González, Israel Muñoz-Gallarte, Gabriel Laguna-Mariscal, 2019 The monograph deals with the topic of ghosts in universal literature from a polyhedral perspective making use of different perspectives all of which highlight the resilience of these figures from the very beginning of literature up to the present day Therefore the aim of this volume is to focus on how ghosts have been translated and transformed over the years within literature written in the following languages Classical Greek and Latin Spanish Italian and English Diamela Eltit Mary Green, 2007 Thirty five years after her death this book reassesses the Argentinian poet Alejandra Pizarnik 1936 72 in the light of recent publications of her complete poetry and prose diaries and previously unavailable archive material The essays in this volume explore Pizarnik s work from new angles they examine her production as a literary critic revealing her intense identificatory strategies as a reader and the impact of such activities upon her own creative process They also weigh up the influence of her ambiguous attitudes towards sexuality on her poetic personae as well as the ways in which her concern with sex inspires her experimentation with humorous prose New approaches are taken to key texts and themes in the case of the much studied work La condesa sangrienta through a detailed philosophical reading involving comparisons with Kafka and in the case of the theme of the split subject through the lens of translation By broadening the scope of Pizarnik studies this book will act as a catalyst for further research into the work of this compelling poet EL ARTE MUDÉJAR. Túnez BINOUS JAMILA;BAKLOUTI NACEUR;BEN TANFOUS AZIZA;BO.,Jamila Binous,2000 The Best of Newspaper Design 28 ,2009 Sites Unseen William A. Gleason,2011-08-22 Sites Unseen examines the complex intertwining of race and architecture in nineteenth and early twentieth century American culture the period not only in which American architecture came of age professionally in the U S but also in which ideas about architecture became a prominent part of broader conversations about American culture history politics and although we have not yet understood this clearly race relations This rich and copiously illustrated interdisciplinary study explores the ways that American writing between roughly 1850 and 1930 concerned itself often intensely with the racial implications of architectural space primarily but not exclusively through domestic architecture In addition to identifying an archive of provocative primary materials Sites Unseen draws significantly on important recent scholarship in multiple fields ranging from literature history and material culture to architecture cultural geography and urban planning Together the chapters interrogate a variety of expressive American vernacular forms including the dialect tale the novel of empire letters and pulp stories along with the plantation cabin the West Indian cottage the Latin American plaza and the Oriental parlor These are some of the overlooked plots and structures that can and should inform a more comprehensive consideration of the literary and cultural meanings of American architecture Making sense of the relations between architecture race and American writing of the long nineteenth century in their regional national and hemispheric contexts Sites Unseen provides a clearer view not only of this catalytic era but also more broadly of what architectural historian Dell Upton has aptly termed the social experience of the built environment
