The Two Koreas and their Global Engagements Andrew David Jackson, 2022-02-22 This book departs from existing studies by focusing on the impact of international influences on the society culture and language of both North and South Korea Since President Kim Young Sam's seggyehwa drive of the mid 1990s South Korea has become a model for successful globalization In contrast North Korea is commonly considered one of the least internationally integrated countries This characterization fails to account for the reality of the two Koreas and their global engagements The opening essay situates the chapters by highlighting some significant contrasts and commonalities between the experiences of North and South Korea's history of engagement with the world beyond the Peninsula The chapters explore both the longer term historical influence of Korea's international contacts as well as specific Korean cultural linguistic and social developments that have occurred since the 1990s demise of the global Cold War and greater international integration

Femininity, Self-harm and Eating Disorders in Japan Gitte Marianne Hansen, 2015-12-22 From the 1980s onwards the incidence of eating disorders and self harm has increased among Japanese women who report receiving mixed messages about how to be women Mirroring this women's self directed violence has increasingly been thematised in diverse Japanese narrative and visual culture This book examines the relationship between normative femininity and women's self directed violence in contemporary Japanese culture To theoretically define the complexities that constitute normativity the book develops the concept of contradictory femininity and shows how in Japanese culture women's paradoxical roles are thematised through three character construction techniques broadly derived from the doppelgänger motif It then demonstrates how eating disorders and self harm are included in normative femininity and suggests that such self directed violence can be interpreted as coping strategies to overcome feelings of fragmentation related to contradictory femininity Looking at novels artwork manga anime TV dramas and news stories the book analyses both globally well known Japanese culture such as Murakami Haruki's literary works and Miyazaki Hayao's animation as well as culture unavailable to non Japanese readers The aim of juxtaposing such diverse narrative and visual culture is to map common storylines and thematisation techniques about normative femininity self harm and eating disorders Furthermore it shows how women's
