chronicles the first two decades of Ed Ruscha's 1937 work on paper which comprises the largest component of his production of original works. Over 1 000 works on paper are documented, all created between 1956 and 1976 and they encompass a wide range of formats, materials, themes, and styles. Included are collages, ephemeral sketches, preparatory studies for paintings, oil on paper works, and drawings executed in a variety of inventive materials including gunpowder and organic substances. Ruscha came to prominence in the early 1960s as part of the Pop art movement, although his work equally engages the legacies of Dada, Surrealism, and Abstract Expressionism, as well as the Conceptual art that emerged later in the decade. He has long enjoyed international standing and admiration, and his work is widely known. Despite this recognition, this volume contains hundreds of works that have infrequently or never been exhibited or published. Each work is catalogued with a color reproduction, collection details, full chronological provenance, exhibition history, and bibliographic references. Essays by Lisa Turvey and Harry Cooper complete this extraordinary survey, which expands and enriches our understanding of Ruscha's pioneering exploration of the written word as a subject for visual art and his witty assessment of the iconography of Los Angeles, both real and imagined.

Vernon Fisher Vernon Fisher, Michael Auping, 2010-10-01. With over 150 superb illustrations, this is the most current and comprehensive retrospective of the work of internationally acclaimed postmodern artist Vernon Fisher, whose bold and innovative multimedia work suggests stories with multiple meanings and indecipherable conclusions.

Hidden Truths Trisha Ziff, 1998. In 1972 the Parachute Regiment of the British Army opened fire on a peaceful civil rights march in Derry in the north of Ireland, killing thirteen people and wounding many others. A watershed event in contemporary Irish history, Bloody Sunday challenged the premise that constitutional politics could bring about change, resulting in the decision by many Irish nationalists to take up arms. This anthology uses analysis, interviews, personal accounts, and images to examine from several different perspectives the personal and political implications generated by Bloody Sunday and its impact on the present. Writers include Gerry Adams, Elaine Brotherton, Joelle Gartner, Luke Gibbons, Tom Hayden, Don Mullan, Gilles Peress, Peter Pringle, and Trisha Ziff. Edited by Trisha Ziff.

Artists' Multiples, 1935-2000 Stephen Bury, 2001. The artist's multiple is perhaps the art of the twentieth century. If in the nineteenth century art could be seen as distinct from products of industry, in the early twentieth century industry could confidently project itself as art. The artist's multiple in its delight in reproducibility industrial fabrication and new processes and materials exemplifies this trend Stephen Bury explores the historical background of the multiple examining its relationship to the jeu d esprit of the artist s studio the readymade constructivism the store and the everyday It looks at the work of Marcel Duchamp George Maciunas Joseph Beuys and Felix Gonzalez Torres as well as contemporary practice such as The Multiple Store An illustrated and chronologically arranged catalogue of over 800 multiples produced between 1935 and 2000 provides a wide selection of different approaches by artists to the medium A chronology glossary and detailed bibliography are also included
