Double Identity A Memoir:

Double Identity Zofia S. Kubar, 1991-07 Never Again Martin Gilbert, 2015-08-17 A work forty years in the making Sir Martin Gilbert's illustrated survey of the pre and post war history of the Jewish people in Europe Masterfully covering such topics as pre war Jewish life the Warsaw Ghetto revolt and the reflections of Holocaust survivors Gilbert interweaves firsthand accounts with unforgettable photographs and documents which come together to form a three dimensional portrait of the lives of the Jewish people during one of Europe's darkest times This volume introduces the crime to a new generation so that it knows of the atrocities and the seemingly futile acts of defiance taken in the words of Judah Tenenbaum for three lines in the history books Booklist The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance Adoption Memoirs Marianne Novy, 2024-06-28 In this volume leading scholar of Literary Adoption Studies Marianne Novy complicates the all too often essentialized popular perspectives of adoption through a critical comparative analysis of over forty adoption memoirs African Memoirs and Cultural Representations Toyin Falola, 2023-02-14 Traditions and cultures represent a set of persisting or prevailing beliefs social practices oral linguistic and values that define an individual's way of life In other words in memoir writing the emphasis is often to propagate a unilateral need or embrace of self identity However the dominant narrative and method of analysis in this study holds the notion and privileges that tradition and cultures imbibed by memoirists are sometimes subverted refashioned or reworked due to the strand of experiences or realities they encounter in different spaces as their narration develops Thus memoirists embrace indifference and open mindedness which is also greatly explored in the context of autobiography Essays on Hitler's Europe István Deák, 2001-01-01 István Deák is one of the world's most knowledgeable and clearheaded authorities on the Second World War and for decades his commentary has been among the most illuminating and influential contributions to the vast discourse on the politics history and scholarship of the period Writing chiefly for the New York Review of Books and the New Republic Deák has crafted review essays that cover the breadth and depth of the huge literature on this ominous moment in European history when the survival of democracy and human decency were at stake Collected here for the first time these articles chart changing reactions and analyses by the regimes and populations of Europe and reveal how postwar governments historians and ordinary citizens attempt to come to terms with or to evade the realities of the Holocaust war fascism and resistance movements They track the acts of scoundrels and the collusion of ordinary citizens in the so called Final Solution but also show how others in authority and on the street heroically opposed the evil of the day With its depth conciseness and interpretive power this collection allows readers to consider more clearly and completely than ever before what has been said how thought has shifted and what we have learned about these momentous world changing events Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context Days of Remembrance, April 22-29, 1990, 1990 *Summer on the Lakes. showing how Bia oszewski discloses his homosexuality but paradoxically renders it inconspicuous by hiding it in plain sight

The Culture and Politics of Contemporary Street Gang Memoirs Josephine Metcalf, 2012-06-22 The publication of Sanyika Shakur's Monster The Autobiography of an L A Gang Member in 1993 generated a huge amount of excitement in literary circles New York Times book critic Michiko Kakutani deemed it a shocking and galvanic book and set off a new publishing trend of gang memoirs in the 1990s The memoirs showcased tales of violent confrontation and territorial belonging but also offered many of the first journalistic and autobiographical accounts of the much mythologized gang subculture In The Culture and Politics of Contemporary Street Gang Memoirs Josephine Metcalf focuses on three of these memoirs Shakur's Monster Luis J Rodriguez's Always Running La Vida Loca Gang Days in L A and Stanley Tookie Williams's Blue Rage Black Redemption as key representatives of the gang autobiography Metcalf examines the conflict among violence thrilling sensationalism and the authorial desire to instruct and warn competing within these works The narrative arcs of the memoirs themselves rest on the process of conversion from brutal young gang bangers to nonviolent enlightened citizens Metcalf analyzes the emergence production marketing and reception of gang memoirs Through interviews with Rodriguez Shakur and Barbara Cottman Becnel Williams's editor Metcalf reveals both the writing and publishing processes This book analyzes key narrative conventions specifically how diction dialogue and narrative arcs shape the works The book also explores how the memoirs are consumed This interdisciplinary study fusing literary criticism sociology ethnography reader response study and editorial theory brings scholarly attention to a popular much discussed but understudied modern expression

The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod". Volume 2: 1895-1899 William F. Halloran, 2020-04-14 What an achievement It is a major work The letters taken together with the excellent introductory sections so balanced and judicious and informative what emerges is an amazing picture of William Sharp the man and the writer which explores just how fascinating a figure he is Clearly a major reassessment is due and this book could make it happen Andrew Hook Emeritus Bradley Professor of English and American Literature Glasgow University William Sharp 1855 1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time Sharp was a Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod This was far more than just a pseudonym he corresponded as Macleod enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E C Stedman Sharp wrote I feel another self within me now more than ever it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out This three volume collection brings together Sharp's own correspondence a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and George Meredith and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp's intriguing second self With an introduction and detailed notes by William F Halloran this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth century English literature It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity Archival Dissonance in the U.S. Cuban Post-Exile Novel Gregory Helmick, 2016-01-14 Archival Dissonance in the U S Cuban Post Exile Novel documents a body of emergent US Cuban literature published in Spanish and English beyond the scope and historicity of exile Focusing on the work of Roberto G Fernandez Ana Men ndez and Antonio Ben tez Rojo the book proposes that rather than reinforce US Cuban exile ethnic identity developed between 1960 and the 1980s or demonstrate a tendency toward cultural assimilation Americanization over three generations of writers the discussed historical novels incorporate Caribbean and Latin American archival sources and interpretive frameworks in order to develop a critical and investigative approach to the politics of Cuban exile historiography Published before the recent apertura between the US and Cuban governments these post exile novels anticipate themes of displacement migration and social marginalization as common rather than exceptional features of modern and historical life as well as such other current and historical topics as gender construction and performance figurations of race the commoditization of culture and urban poverty The post exile historical novel points to a future for US Cuban narrative and historiography in part by investigating and featuring dissonances hidden or unacknowledged in previous Cuban exile historical fiction The literature studied in this book further reinforces a view of two way migration between Cuba and the United States as a normal phenomenon predating 1959 and at the same time as a likely shape of things to come Central European Jewish Émigrés and the Shaping of Postwar Culture: Studies in Memory of Lilian Furst (1931-2009) Julie Mell, Malachi Hacohen, 2018-10-08 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Between Religion and Ethnicity Twentieth Century Jewish migr s and the Shaping of Postwar Culture that was published in Religions With Literacy and Justice for All Carole Edelsky, 2006 The third edition of With Literacy and Justice for All Rethinking the Social in Language and Education continues to document Carole Edelsky s long involvement with socially critical holistic approaches to the everyday problems and possibilities facing teachers of language and literacy This book helps education professionals understand the educational societal situations they are dealing with and literacy instruction and second language learning in particular contexts Edelsky does not offer simplistic pedagogical formulas but rather progressively works through differences and tensions in the discourses and practices of sociolinguistics bilingual education whole language and critical pedagogy fields whose practitioners and advocates too often work in isolation from each other and at times at cross purposes In this edition what Edelsky means by rethinking is improving and extending her own views while at the same time demonstrating that such rethinking always occurs in the light of history The volume includes a completely new Introduction and two entirely new chapters one on reconceptualizing literacy learning as second language learning and another on taking a historical view of responses to standardized testing Throughout in updating the volume Edelsky uses a variety of structural styles to note contrasts in her views across time and to make the distinction clear between the original material and the current additions This edition is a rare example of a scholarly owning up to changes in thinking and a much needed demonstration of the historically grounded nature of knowledge As a whole the third edition emphasizes recursiveness and questioning within a deliberately political framework First-Person Accounts of Genocidal Acts Committed in the Twentieth Century Samuel Totten,1991-08-26 Lists 1 275 items diaries letters memoirs autobiographies oral interviews histories almost all in English See pp 91 261 items 346 1046 Holocaust 1939 1945 Rows of Memory Saul Sanchez,2014 Tells the story fo Saul Sanchez and his family and other migrant farm laborers like them who endured dangerous dirty conditions and low pay surviving because they took care of each other p 4 of cover Edinburgh Introduction to Studying English Literature Dermot Cavanagh,2014-04-16 This introduction to the tools required for literary study provides all the skills background and critical knowledge which students require to approach their study of literature with confidence Transnational Matrilineage Silvia Schultermandl,2009 Transnational Matrilineage offers a novel approach to Asian American literature including texts by Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Mei Ng Nora Okja Keller and Vineeta Vijayaragahavan with particular attention to depictions of transnational solidarity that is the sense of community between women of different cultures or cultural affiliations between Asian born mothers and their American born daughters While focusing on the mother daughter conflicts these texts portray this book also contributes to ongoing debates in transnational feminism by scrutinizing the representation of Asia in Asian American literature
