Wave Lori A. Paige,2018-10-09 The late 1960s and early 1970s saw the birth of modern feminism the sexual revolution and strong growth in the mass market publishing industry Women made up a large part of the book market and Gothic fiction became a higher popular staple Victoria Holt Mary Stewart and Phyllis Whitney emerged as prominent authors while the standardized paperback Gothic sold in the millions Pitched at middle class women of all ages Gothics paved the way for contemporary fiction categories such as urban fantasy paranormal romance and vampire erotica Though not as popular today as they once were Gothic paperbacks retain a cult following and the books themselves have become collectors items They were also the first popular novels to present strong heroines as agents of liberation and transformation This work offers the missing chapters of the Gothic story from the imaginative creations of Ann Radcliffe and the Bronte sisters to the bestseller 50 Shades of Grey The Path to Rome Hilaire Belloc,2011-04-15 Considered by Belloc himself and by most critics his greatest work this classic book is the delightful story of the pilgrimage Belloc made on foot to Rome in order to fulfill a vow he had made and see all Europe which the Christian Faith has saved In The Life of Hilaire Belloc Robert Speaight states More than any other book he ever wrote The Path to Rome made Belloc's name more than any other it has been lovingly thumbed and pondered The book is a classic born of something far deeper than the physical experience it records The Path to Rome is the product of the actual and genuine buoyancy and thoughtfulness of a rich intellect He will be a lucky man who can escape from that world of freezing folly into the flaming and reverberating folly of The Path to Rome G K Chesterton The Path to Rome takes the reader on a journey into himself and out of himself a voyage of discovery in which Home and Exile are interwoven in a mystical dance of contemplation In its pages we discover the Europe of the Faith which was and is the heart of Christendom and the Faith of Europe which was and is the heart of all Joseph Pearce Author Old Thunder A Life of Hilaire Belloc Hilaire Belloc is one of the most important and versatile authors of the 20th century A social commentator and a master of finely crafted prose he wrote numerous books on social historical and theological topics Comparing Scars John Walker,1999 Australian Westerns in the Fifties Derham Groves,2022-10-28 Australian Western in the Fifties Kangaroo Hopalong Cassidy on Tour and Whiplash looks at Australian Westerns from three points of view film personal appearance and television at the beginning middle and end of the 1950s the American Western's golden age It looks at three significant but forgotten cases 1 Kangaroo The Australian Story the first Technicolor film made in Australia produced by the Hollywood movie studio 20th Century Fox directed by the Academy Award winning filmmaker Lewis Milestone starring

Maureen O Hara Peter Lawford and Richard Boone 2 The successful goodwill tour of Australia by the Hollywood actor William Boyd who played the film radio and television cowboy Hopalong Cassidy 3 The British American produced black and white TV series Whiplash made in Australia and starring the Hollywood actor Peter Graves The American filmmakers ignorance of Australia meant they learned the hard way there was more to Australian Westerns than simply replacing the prairie with the bush bison with kangaroos and Native Americans with Aborigines Indeed the depiction of place and the presentation of Aboriginal culture are two of the most intriguing aspects of Australian Westerns In retelling the filmmakers stories a unique picture of the Australian film and television industry and everyday life during the 1950s is revealed New York Magazine ,1983-05-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea To-day ,1894 Losing Faith Scotty Cade,2016-06-10 Father Cullen Kiley a gay Episcopal priest on hiatus from the church decides to take his boat T Time from Provincetown Massachusetts to Southport North Carolina a place that holds an abundance of bittersweet memories for him While on a run his first day in Southport Cullen comes upon a man sitting on a park bench staring out over the Cape Fear River with his Bible in hand The man s body language reeks of defeat and desperation and unable to ignore his compassion for his fellow man Cullen stops to offer a helping hand Southport Baptist Church s Associate Pastor Abel Weston has a hard time managing his demons When they get too overwhelming he retreats to Southport s Historic Riverwalk with his Bible in hand and stares out over the water praying for help and guidance that never seem to come But Abel soon discovers that help and guidance come in many forms An unexpected friendship develops between the two men and as Cullen helps Abel begin to confront his doubts and fears he comes face to face with his own reality threatening both their futures The Nation ,1888 Spaces of Insurgency Elias Edise Courson,2025-05-15 The dominant scholarly and policy discourse on the insurgencies and conflicts in Nigeria s oil rich Niger Delta has been significantly shaped by the resource curse narrative This influential framework deeply integrated into wider debates concerning neoliberal globalization security and development as evidenced by the World Bank s 2011 World Development Report on security conflict and development positions the Niger Delta as a key case study The region s unique context a global oil and gas industry operating within a pluri ethnic federal system and a complex social field characterized by a range of contentious struggles from chieftainship disputes to electoral and territorial conflicts seemingly reinforces this narrative However this book argues for a necessary shift in focus towards a historical and spatial analysis of crisis from the 19th century to the present Such an approach it contends is crucial for understanding the deep seated and unresolved animosities that underpin contemporary tensions in the region By critically interrogating resource curse narratives in the Niger Delta conflicts insurgencies that have emerged since the 1990s this book demonstrates the layered and historically contingent nature of these conflicts Employing an interdisciplinary and comparative methodology it reflects on the specific ways in which political violence and the security development nexus in Africa a subject of considerable academic attention since the 1980s are situated within broader global patterns of knowledge production The central contribution of this book lies in its analysis of how spatial dynamics particularly the interplay between west and east and inter regional politics are fundamental to a more nuanced understanding of crisis in the Niger Delta and beyond 99 Things to Do between Here and Heaven Kathleen Long Bostrom, Peter Graystone, 2009-06-02 Kathleen Long Bostrom and Peter Graystone provide the ultimate to do list ninety nine things that everyone should experience during their time on earth From the sublime watch the sun rise to the wonderfully silly ride a roller coaster the activities presented will breathe new life into readers lives while opening them up to new spiritual experiences Each entry provides a description of the activity what the reader can expect to gain from it and how much of a time commitment it will require Blank space is included to record memories of and thoughts about the experience
