Doubly Dead:

Come Weep With Me Joyce C. Harte, 2021-02-19 This groundbreaking anthology represents the critical inquiry of literary scholars into the trope of loss and mourning in the work of women writers from the Caribbean archipelago. There is a great deal of recent scholarly interest in the relationship of loss and mourning yet there are no books specifically devoted to an examination of this trope in the works of Caribbean women writers. To fill this gap, this collection of original essays examines subjects that encompass the brutality of slavery, oppressive dictatorships, AIDS, and the catastrophe of the Mount Pele volcano that appear in the writings of women from the English, Spanish, and French speaking Caribbean. It is an important addition to the contemporary discourse on loss and mourning. The project is an exciting and vital one because it brings together a multiplicity of perspectives and critical approaches to examine the works of writers such as Jean Rhys, Jamaica Kincaid, Julia Alvarez, and Maryse Condé. What emerges is a complex portrait of loss, mourning, and remembrance that both enriches and challenges customary discourses of loss, mourning, and melancholia.

Power From On High Jack Cottrell, 2007 The person and work of the Holy Spirit is a neglected study in many churches. Some Christians think that the subject is so deep and mysterious that it is futile to study it. Others hesitate to emphasize the study of the Holy Spirit since some religious groups hold such extreme views regarding Him. Still, it is encouraging to see many Christians making a serious study of the Bible's teaching on the Holy Spirit. Dr. Jack Cottrell, with his leave-no-stone-unturned approach to studying Scripture, has completed the research for us as he examines the many concepts and characteristics of the Holy Spirit. Power From On High: What the Bible Says About the Holy Spirit has 11 chapters and 503 pages. Jack Cottrell was long-time Professor of Theology at Cincinnati Christian University. He received his BA, ThB, Cincinnati Bible College and Seminary, BA, University of Cincinnati, MDiv, Westminster Theological Seminary, PhD, Princeton Theological Seminary. Wherever the Stars Call, S.

Jean, 2024-10-29 Living within the Galactic Federation of the Solar System isn't all it's cracked up to be. Laurel got sold into strict federation schooling where if she doesn't shape up, they'll scramble her mind until she's no longer herself so they can build the perfect citizen out of her. Juniper got fitted with invasive cybernetics to augment the human experience at the tender age of eight, and if they act up, the feds can turn them off effectively killing them. So the pair decide to run away together. All they need is to get past Jupiter where the feds hold it as tight. There, Laurel can figure out what she wants in life, free from fed control, and Juniper can figure out how to stop their cybernetics from ruining their life. Easy, right? Not when they find a busted federation ship on the way with a vampire on board who might need their help with a severed head. The federation is after it, or perhaps he just wants their blood. One of the two.
