Suzanne Leonard, Yvonne Tasker

Douglas Sirk:

Douglas Sirk Michael Stern,1979 Discusses films such as Magnificent Obsession All That Heaven Allows There's Always Tomorrow Written on the Wind The Tarnished Angels A Time to Love and a Time to Die Imitation of Life and others Douglas Sirk Robert B. Pippin,2021-04-08 It would be easy to dismiss the films of Douglas Sirk 1897-1987 as brilliant examples of mid-century melodrama with little to say to the contemporary world Yet Robert Pippin argues that far from being marginal pieces of sentimentality Sirk's films are rich with irony insight and depth Indeed Sirk's films often celebrated as classics of the genre are attempts to subvert rather than conform to rules of conventional melodrama The visual style story and characters of films like All That Heaven Allows Written on the Wind and Imitation of Life are explored to argue for Sirk as an incredibly nuanced moral thinker Instead of imposing moralising judgements on his characters Sirk presents them as people who do wrong things often without understanding why or how creating a complex and unsettling ethics Pippin argues that it is this moral ambiguity and ironic richness enables Sirk to produce films that grapple with important themes such as race class and gender with real force and political urgency Douglas Sirk: Filmmaker and Philosopher argues for a filmmaker who was a disruptive not restorative auteur and one who broke the rules in the most interesting and subtle of ways Imitations of Life Marcia Landy,1991 On melodrama The Marriage of Maria Braun Rainer Werner Fassbinder,1986 Commentary and criticism on Fassbinder's film The Marriage of Maria Braun Sirk on Sirk Jon Halliday,2011-03-03 Douglas Sirk is one of the most neglected directors in American cinema This book aims to rectify that and through a survey of his career to re-establish Sirk as one of the great stylists of Hollywood cinema In 1937 Sirk left Germany after a successful career in theatre and film and came to Hollywood From 1942 to 1958 he directed some 30 films the most famous of which were a series of lush melodramas in the 50s which were seen at the time as vehicles for stars such as Rock Hudson and Lana Turner These films are now seen as perceptive dissections of the repressive conventions underlying American life revealing a disintegrating society a society of pretence and illusion befogged by alcohol Sirk's films are many-layered the style transcending the melodrama and transforming the material into works of art Melodrama and Meaning Barbara Klinger,1994-08-22 Melodrama and Meaning is a major addition to the new historical approach to film studies Barbara Klinger shows how institutions most associated with Hollywood cinema academia the film industry review journalism star publicity and the mass media create meaning and ideological identity for films Chapters focus on Sirk's place in the development of film studies from the 1950s through the 1980s as well as the history of the critical reception both academic and popular of Sirk's films a history that outlines journalism's role in public tastemaking Other chapters are devoted to Universal's selling of Written on the Wind the machinery of star publicity and the changing image of Rock Hudson and the contemporary institutionalized camp response to Sirk that has resulted from developments in mass culture The Films of Douglas Sirk Tom Ryan,2019-05-23 Best known for powerful 1950s melodramas like All That Heaven Allows Written on the Wind The Tarnished

Angels and Imitation of Life Douglas Sirk 1897 1987 brought to all his work a distinctive style that led to his reputation as one of twentieth century film s great directors Sirk worked in Europe during the 1930s mainly for Germany s UFA studios and then in America in the 1940s and 50s The Films of Douglas Sirk Exquisite Ironies and Magnificent Obsessions provides an overview of his entire career including Sirk s work on musicals comedies thrillers war movies and westerns One of the great ironists of the cinema Sirk believed rules were there to be broken Whether defying the decrees of Nazi authorities trying to turn film into propaganda or arguing with studios that insisted characters problems should always be solved and that endings should always restore order what Sirk called emergency exits for audiences Sirk always fought for his vision Offering fresh insights into all of the director s films and situating them in the culture of their times critic Tom Ryan also incorporates extensive interview material drawn from a variety of sources including his own conversations with the director Furthermore his enlightening study undertakes a detailed reconsideration of the generally overlooked novels and plays that served as sources for Sirk s films as well as providing a critical survey of previous Sirk commentary from the time of the director s rediscovery in the late 1960s up to the present day Mise-en-scène John Gibbs, 2012-08-14 Mise en sc ne Film Style and Interpretation explores and elucidates constructions of this fundamental concept in thinking about film In uncovering the history of mise en sc ne within film criticism and through the detailed exploration of scenes from films as Imitation of Life and Lone Star John Gibbs makes the case for the importance of a sensitive understanding of film style and provides an introduction to the skills of close reading This book thus celebrates film making as well as film criticism that is alive to the creative possibilities of visual style Hitler's Heroines Antje Ascheid, 2003 The brightest stars in fascist films Sirk on Sirk Douglas Sirk, Jon Halliday, 1972 Fetishism and Curiosity Laura Mulvey, 1996 No Marketing Blurb Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Imitation of Life Douglas Sirk, 1991 Douglas Sirk Claus Detler Sierck was born in Hamburg Germany in 1900 He made nine films before fleeing Nazi Germany eventually coming to America His best known films made during the 1950s all of them melodramas were Magnificent Obsession All That Heaven Allows The Tarnished Angels Written on the Wind and Imitation of Life made in 1958 released in 1959 This volume includes the complete continuity script of the film critical commentary and published reviews interviews with the director and a filmography and bibliography It also includes an excellent introduction by Lucy Fischer Ministry of Illusion Eric Rentschler, 1996-10 Overview of Nazi cinema German Cinema Marc Silberman, 1995 German Cinema is the first English language volume to provide a comprehensive historical overview of German film from the silent era to the present as well as close readings of individual films In the history of German cinema film directors have developed unique visual and narrative responses to the anxieties and excesses of their own times and those of Germany's past German Cinema is the first English language volume to provide a comprehensive historical overview of German film from the silent era to the present as well as close readings of individual films

Fifty Hollywood Directors Suzanne Leonard, Yvonne Tasker, 2014-11-20 Fifty Hollywood Directors introduces the most important iconic and influential filmmakers who worked in Hollywood between the end of the silent period and the birth of the blockbuster By exploring the historical cultural and technological contexts in which each director was working this book traces the formative period in commercial cinema when directors went from pioneers to industry heavyweights Each entry discusses a director's practices and body of work and features a brief biography and suggestions for further reading Entries include Frank Capra Cecil B DeMille John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang Orson Welles DW Griffith King Vidor This is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in film history Hollywood and the development of the role of the director

Popular Cinema of the Third Reich Sabine Hake, 2010-01-01 Too often dismissed as escapist entertainment or vilified as mass manipulation popular cinema in the Third Reich was in fact sustained by well established generic conventions cultural traditions aesthetic sensibilities social practices and a highly developed star system not unlike its Hollywood counterpart in the 1930s This pathfinding study contributes to the ongoing reassessment of Third Reich cinema by examining it as a social cultural economic and political practice that often conflicted with contradicted and compromised the intentions of the Propaganda Ministry Nevertheless by providing the illusion of a public sphere presumably free of politics popular cinema helped to sustain the Nazi regime especially during the war years Rather than examining Third Reich cinema through overdetermined categories such as propaganda ideology or fascist aesthetics Sabine Hake concentrates on the constituent elements shared by most popular cinemas famous stars directors and studios movie audiences and exhibition practices popular genres and new trends in set design the reception of foreign films the role of film criticism and the representation of women She pays special attention to the forced coordination of the industry in 1933 the changing demands on cinema during the war years and the various ways of coming to terms with these filmic legacies after the war Throughout Hake's findings underscore the continuities among Weimar Third Reich and post 1945 West German cinema They also emphasize the codevelopment of German and other national cinemas especially the dominant Hollywood model

Film, Form, and Culture Robert Kolker, 2015-08-14 Film Form and Culture 4th edition offers a lively introduction to both the formal and cultural aspects of film With extensive analysis of films past and present this textbook explores film from part to whole from the smallest unit of the shot to the way shots are edited together to create narrative It then examines those narratives both fiction and non fiction as stories and genres that speak to the culture of their time and our perceptions of them today Composition editing genres such as the gangster film the Western science fiction and melodrama are analyzed alongside numerous images to illustrate the discussion Chapters on the individuals who make films the production designer cinematographer editor composer producer director and actor illustrate the collaborative nature of filmmaking This new edition includes An expanded discussion of the digital revolution in filmmaking exploring the movement from celluloid to digital recording and editing of images as well as the use of CGI A new chapter on international cinema that covers filmmaking from Italy to Mumbai offering students a broader understanding of cinema on a worldwide scale A new chapter on film acting that uses images to create a small catalogue of gestures and expressions that are recognizable in film after film Expanded content coverage and in depth analysis throughout including a visual analysis of a scene from Christopher Nolan s The Dark Knight An expanded chapter on the cultural contexts of film summarizes the theories of cultural and media studies concluding with a comparative analysis of Alfred Hitchcock s Vertigo and Judd Apatow s This is 40 Over 260 images many in color that create a visual index to and illustration of the discussion of films and filmmaking Each chapter ends with updated suggestions for further reading and viewing and there is an expanded glossary of terms Additional resources for students and teachers can also be found on the companion website www.routledge.com/cw/kolker which includes additional case studies discussion questions and links to useful websites This textbook is an invaluable and exciting resource for students beginning film studies at undergraduate level

Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered

Ripping England! Roger Rawlings, 2017-12-04 Examines an all too often neglected period of postwar British cinema and popular culture Ripping England investigates a fertile moment for British satire the period between 1947 and 1953 which produced the films Passport to Pimlico Kind Hearts and Coronets and The Lavender Hill Mob as well as the seminal radio program The Goon Show Against the postwar background of fading empire universal rationing and the implementation of a welfare state these satires laid the foundation for a new British cultural identity later fleshed out by the Angry Young Men the Movement poets the Social Realists and those involved in the satire boom of the 1960s which lives on even to this day The peculiarity of these satires and the British identity they shaped is better understood when seen in relief against postwar cinematic cultures of Italy France and the United States Roger Rawlings places postwar British film in the context of contemporaneous European national film movements and contrasts it with Hollywood s comedies and satires of the same period British satires of the late forties and early fifties held up a mirror to a nation that was in the throes of change moving from a colonial empire to an inward turning island culture Ripping England looks at the all too often neglected miracle of postwar British cinema and popular culture
