Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008

In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery Alberta Art and Artists Patricia Ainslie, Mary-Beth Laviolette, 2007 Alberta Trade Non Fiction Book Award nominee 2008 Just as Canada is often overlooked or undervalued within the international art world the province of Alberta has struggled against being overlooked within the national context despite its rich art history and vigorous and ever changing art scene Alberta Art and Artists by former vice president of collections at the Glenbow Museum Patricia Ainslie and art critic and journalist Mary Beth Laviolette provides a comprehensive visual record of the historical modern and contemporary art scene in Alberta Throughout three sections Ainslie and Laviolette provide introductions to the art they describe explaining beginnings and development of movements art schools sketch clubs galleries and artist run centres the significance of artists and teachers to those institutions and movements and the importance of social and political context to all artistic events Also included in this fantastic volume are the biographies of each of the artists showcased
