sought the coos of doves the bird in Cherokee cosmology that is sent from the Spirit World to assure a listener that he is not alone in the world His book resulting from the life altering trek Walking the Trail One Man s Journey Along the Cherokee Trail of Tears was published by Random House nominating the book for a Pulitzer Prize and a National Book Award He walked the Trail to honor the Cherokee and to raise awareness about their plight His goal was achieved and even brought unexpected blessings Speaking at a publishing conference in Denver he met Debi Holmes Binney and it was love at first sight leading to the friendship of his life Debi becoming his wife now of twenty eight years Since that meeting in Denver they have traveled the globe and lived seasonally in Rome Italy for fifteen years Debi who illustrated DOVE STORY was a featured guest author on The Oprah Winfrey Show with her book Desert Sojourn A Woman s Forty Days and Nights Alone Following this TV appearance Debi s book soared to the top five books sold through Amazon that week Jerry and Debi dedicate DOVE STORY to all who have ever felt alone misunderstood and questioned if they would ever find someone who would unconditionally love them and all their oddities This is true not only for Artists of all types but for people in all walks of life who feel intensely about the infinite mysteries of being alive knowing that above all riches the one that matters the most is love Jerry and Debi are co founders of Tanager House their home and retreat center based on sixty wooded acres in the mountains of NE Alabama Tanager House is dedicated to all artistic endeavors and especially creative writing Tanager House for over a decade holds an annual all day writing publishing seminar and more information can be gathered by contacting Jerry via email jerrywalkingthetrail gmail com DOVE STORY is an ideal gift book because it inspires readers to celebrate their unique traits without denying the very real struggles of marching to one s own drumbeat Live FREE Be BOLD

Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this Strangers at Home Rita Keresztesi, 2005-01-01 Strangers at Home reframes the way we conceive of the modernist literature that appeared in the period between the two world wars This provocative work shows that a body of texts written by ethnic writers during this period poses a challenge to conventional notions of America and American modernism By engaging with modernist literary studies from the perspectives of minority discourse postcolonial studies and postmodern theory Rita Keresztesi questions the validity of modernism s claim to the neutrality of culture She argues that literary modernism grew out of a prejudiced racially biased and often xenophobic historical context that necessitated a politically conservative and narrow definition of modernism in America With the changing racial ethnic and cultural makeup of the nation during the interwar era literary modernism also changed its form and content Contesting traditional notions of literary modernism Keresztesi examines American modernism from an ethnic perspective in the works of Harlem Renaissance immigrant and Native American writers She discusses such authors as Countee Cullen Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Anzia Yezierska Henry Roth Josephina Niggli Mourning Dove D Arcy McNickle and John Joseph Mathews among others Strangers at Home makes a persuasive argument for expanding our understanding of the writers themselves as well as the concept of modernism as it is currently defined

Frightening Fiction Kimberly Reynolds, Geraldine Brennan, Kevin McCarron, 2004-12-30 Edited by Morag Styles and written by an international team of acknowledged experts this series provides jargon free critical discussion and a comprehensive guide to literary and popular texts for children Each book introduces the reader to a major genre of children's literature covering the key authors major works and contexts in which those texts are published read and studied The development of the horror genre in children's literature has been a startling phenomenon one that has provoked strong but mixed reactions Frightening Fiction provides a lucid and lively guide to that genre ranging from analyses of such popular series as Point Horror Goosebumps the X Files and the Buffy stories to the work of individual authors such as Robert Westall David Almond Philip Gross and Lesley Howarth

Rita Dove's Cosmopolitanism Malin Pereira, 2003 Pulitzer Prize winner and former poet laureate of the United States Rita Dove has written prolifically since the early 1970s In this the first full length critical study of her entire body of work by an American scholar Malin Pereira traces the development of Dove's literary voice looking at the ways she combines racial specificity with the perspective of the unraced universal Pereira examines Dove's poetry fiction drama and literary criticism closely and chronologically charting her path through the racially charged culture wars of the 1970s and 1980s She demonstrates how Dove eventually transcended racial protocols that threaten to define her work and moves into a nomadic poetic articulation of her cosmopolitan identity As Pereira addresses Rita Dove's cosmopolitanism she also examines the thematic concerns that reoccur in Dove's work themes such as incest miscegenation nomadism the blues and patriarchal oppression

In Darkest James Robin P. Hoople, 2000 In July of 1906 Archibald Henderson could pronounce with perfect confidence that Henry James was a master impressionist But as short a time as six years earlier James's critics lacked this term in their vocabulary and struggled with the sophisticated art of James's developing impressionistic literary technique In Darkest James discusses the reviewer's frustrated often irritated and even anguished attempts to render a satisfactory account of the sequence of artifacts in which James moved toward the perfection of his craft BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Professions of Taste Jonathan Freedman, 1990 The author traces Henry James's career long encounter with the tradition of British aestheticism and places both in the context of the late 19th century's professionalization and commodification of literary life Professions of Taste reopens the question of later James in a new fashion and with a new perspective A richer genealogy of modernism and indeed postmodernism begins to take shape in which both the problematics of British aestheticism and James's relations with it play an important role This book aims to enlighten the reader's understanding of the way Pre Raphaelite concerns fertilized the aestheticist breeding grounds of Anglo American modernism
