Down Home Notes Of A Maritime Son:

Setting in the East David Craig Creelman, 2003 The Maritime region is thus torn between its memory of an earlier more prosperous and traditional social order and its present experience as a less fortunate modern industrial society These tensions are embedded in the Maritime character and have affected not only the lives of its people but the imaginations and texts of its writers BOOK JACKET Nowhere with You Josh O'Kane, 2016-04-01 Joel Plaskett has earned an awful lot of honourifics in his career so far counting folk hero indie darling and national treasure among them And that's just since the Halifax musician started making records of his own in 1999 For a decade before that he was one quarter of Thrush Hermit a band of scrappy Superchunk mimics who became hard rock revivalists and one of the last survivors of the 90s pop explosion of major label interest in Halifax Canada's east coast has never been much of a pop culture mecca Most musicians from the region who've ever made it big moved away But armed with a stubborn streak and a knack for great songwriting Plaskett has kept Halifax as his home building both a career and a music community there Along the way he's earned great respect when he plays shows in Alberta east coast expats literally thank him for staying home Nowhere With You is the study of how he pulled this off from the origins of Canada's east coast exodus to Plaskett's anointment as Halifax's Rick Rubin It's a story about what happens when you call a city the new Seattle about the lessons you learn playing to empty rooms in Oklahoma and about defying radio single expectations with rock operas and triple records It's about doing what you want where you want no matter how much work it takes Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe, 2025-10-07 Halifax today lives with the results of bad decisions made decades ago A container port accessible only through narrow downtown streets A park bridge and port on the spot where Africville was demolished A mega interchange going nowhere finally torn down The thoughtless power brokers who made these decisions are long gone but Haligonians still live now with the choices they made Yet for seven days in 1970 Nova Scotians saw a brilliant spotlight shone on the city's power structure exposing incompetence ignorance racism and lies In Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe presents this forgotten event in the city's life Twelve highly qualified outsiders including a passionate Black pastor a feisty Canadian labour leader and a no holds barred journalist spent a week in a public investigation of the city and how it worked Each evening Nova Scotians were glued to live television broadcasts where the 12 experts grilled local authorities The event called Encounter was a one off But it showed how a local power structure can fail a city's citizens and face no consequences Robert Ashe's story of Encounter explains much about Halifax's recent history and offers timely lessons on the importance of accountability on the part of those in the city's power structure today Second Promised Land Harry H. Hiller, 2009 Explosive economic growth in resource rich Alberta has led to a stunning increase in its population In contrast to Ontario and British Columbia which have grown primarily through international migration Alberta has become a magnet for internal migrants contributing to population redistribution within Canada with significant national social and economic consequences Combining statistical analysis and ethnographic study

Harry Hiller uncovers two waves of in migration to Alberta His innovative approach begins with the individual migrant and analyzes the relocation experience from origin to destination Through interviews with hundreds of migrants Hiller shows that migration is complex and dynamic shaped not just by what Alberta offers but also prompted by a process that begins in the region of origin that makes migration possible and helps determine whether migrants stay or return home By combining a social psychological approach with structural factors such as Alberta s transition from a regional hinterland province to its emerging role the global system discussions of gender The internet and folk culture Second Promised Land provides a multi dimensional and deeply human account of a contemporary Canadian phenomenon Far Out! Christopher

Murphy,2024-08-02 The 1960s was a period of radical social change Many young people rejected the politics and values of the day and decided to drop out and migrate to the country The desire for an independent rural life on the land took many of them to the province of Nova Scotia To the back to the landers its far out location unspoiled countryside cheap land and helpful neighbours provided the opportunity to build a self sufficient life Inexperienced and unprepared many eventually left but some were able to adjust and build satisfying lives while contributing to their communities Like most immigrants they brought with them new ideas and practices such as alternative energy organic gardening health foods environmentalism creative arts and crafts and new enterprises In return their neighbors shared their traditional culture history and knowledge Author and sociologist Chris Murphy uses personal experience oral history and the photography and art of his brother Peter Murphy and partner Anna Syperek to write this missing chapter of Nova Scotian history This unusual migration story is a timely one for today s new generation of rural migrants and homesteaders and serves as a nostalgic re ection for those who lived through the transformative Sixties Quill & Quire ,1998 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1988 The

Dictionary of Canadian Quotations John Robert Colombo,1991 This dictionary offers more then 6 000 quotations on some 900 subjects Arranged alphabetically according to the subject the book s extensive index identifies the 2 500 authors of the extracts Best Canadian Essays 1989 Douglas Fetherling,1989 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1989 Issues for 1965 include section Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature 1964 Down Home Harry Bruce,1988 Harry Bruce s family has lived in Nova Scotia since the late eighteenth century The family history is one of incessant wanderings abroad and constant return Seventeen years ago Harry went back to discover his heritage and now lives in the house where his father was born He finds himself among a tough quirky and resilient people in a beautiful but unforgiving land

Maritime Notes and Queries William Mitchell,1881 Something about the Author Diane Telgen,1994 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst,2008 The design and manufacture of books can tell as much about a people or a culture as the ambience of its streets and the architecture of its buildings In our everyday lives books surround us even if we are among the many who never read another one after high school Their very jacket design asks us to make meaning of their presence and when we open them the layout of words and stories within their covers makes us readers even before we begin to read To Robert Bringhurst typographer poet and writer the presence of books and the story of books in Canada are preludes to understanding our culture From the tattered book of Canadian poetry your moody cousin carried everywhere to the pristine hardcover book of Atwood s latest work in your brainy co worker s hands book design says much about who and where we are as Canadians In The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst takes us on another of his walking tours this time through the bramble of English and French Canadian books and book design from the mid 18th Century to the present day Along the way he discovers a true image trove of identity culture and history And he does what no other work on books and publications does He creates a truly national survey of Canadian books by bringing Canada s long history of Aboriginal story telling into a context of book It is a context that goes into the depths of our prehistory far beyond the printed page The Surface of Meaning is a tribute to Canadian books and publishing It is irresistible to readers who love books as well as to designers and others who may simply prefer to look at them Canadian Books in Print ,2001 Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth

Lumley,2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who s Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge The complete text of Canadian Who s Who is also available on CD ROM in a comprehensively indexed and fully searchable format Search astronaut or entrepreneur of the year aboriginal achievement award and Order of Canada and discover a wealth of information Fast easy and more accessible than ever the Canadian Who s Who on CD ROM is an essential addition to your electronic library Lasting Visions of Floy Bugg Fenwick: Mother of Five Marine Sons Frederick

Fenwick,2019-04-30 Merriam Press Biography Series The true story of a woman who made a difference here on earth She touched the lives of many people during her 90 years of significant and memorable events Growing up in the heartland of Kentucky she married a farmer and lived her entire life working and providing for her family of nine She did not receive financial compensation for all her hard work but for her doing good deeds for others was of prime importance to her happiness and personal gratification This is a story about my mother Floy Bugg Fenwick Her immediate family always had a special bond with her She raised five sons and four daughters As fate would have it all five sons would serve their country in the United States Marine Corps Her children grandchildren and future generations will always remember how she made a difference as a decent and upstanding pillar of the community This tribute to my mother comes from the heart I will always love her more than I can adequately express in words 90 photos An Illustrated History of Nova Scotia Harry Bruce,1997 National award winning author Harry Bruce has been a journalist for more than forty years He has written for major national newspapers and magazines and his books include Down Home Notes of a Maritime Son Maud The Life of L M Montgomery and The Man and the Empire Frank Sobey Harry lives in Guysborough County Nova Scotia Canadian Periodical Index,1965 Learning to Leave Michael John Corbett,2007 It has been argued that if education is to be democratic and serve the purpose of social and cultural elevation then it must be generic and transcend the specificity of the locale This work shows that continuing rates of high school drop out among youth in rural and coastal communities among young men illustrates the failure of this approach
