Tawhid: its implications for thought and life Ismā'īl Rāḡī al- Fārūqī,1992 Al Tawḥīd Isma'īl R. Al-Faruqi,1992

Al Tawḥīd Isma'īl R. Al-Faruqi,1995 Critical Issues in American Religious History Robert R. Mathisen,2006 Americans as a religious people experience both tension and indecision as they wrestle with a variety of critical issues every day American society continually struggles with its religious past The primary and secondary materials included in this volume track religious America s efforts to articulate its identity and destiny and implement its religious creeds and ideals in an ever changing society The Muslims of America Amherst Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad Professor of Islamic History University of Massachusetts,1991-06-13 This collection brings together sixteen previously unpublished essays about the history organization challenges responses outstanding thinkers and future prospects of the Muslim community in the United States and Canada Both Muslims and non Muslims are represented among the contributors who include such leading Islamic scholars as John Esposito Frederick Denny Jane Smith and John Voll Focusing on the manner in which American Muslims adapt their institutions as they become increasingly an indigenous part of America the essays discuss American Muslim self images perceptions of Muslims by non Muslim Americans leading American Muslim intellectuals political activity of Muslims in America Muslims in American prisons Islamic education the status of Muslim women in America and the impact of American foreign policy on Muslims in the United States Debates on Islam and Knowledge in Malaysia and Egypt Mona Abaza,2013-01-11 This book is a comparative study of the sociological field in two different Muslim societies Malaysia and Egypt It analyses the process of the production of knowledge through the example of the modern Islamization of knowledge debate and local empirical variations Vicegerency in Islamic Thought and Scripture Chauki Lazhar,2023-04-28 This book explores the reasons for the creation of humanity on Earth from the perspective of ancient and contemporary Muslim thinkers aiming to lay the outlines of a Qur anic theory of human existential function The author proceeds from the assumption that until now contemporary Islamic scholarship has suffered from the absence of theorisation about a Qur anic conception of human existential function vicegerency lacking a unified philosophical and epistemological frame of reference Challenging common perceptions among contemporary Muslim reformists regarding the human existential function the author examines both classical and contemporary thought as well as conducting a thorough and comprehensive analysis of Qur anic passages that ground the theory of vicegerency within a cosmic scheme Ultimately a new approach for understanding the human existential function from within the Qur anic worldview is proposed For the first time then this book offers an integral induction and categorisation of Qur anic teleological concepts combining them within a coherent framework that reveals the outlines of a vicegerency theory and a Qur anic worldview Suitable for both scholars and laypersons the book serves as a landmark textbook in the fields of Islamic Philosophy Theological Anthropology and Qur anic Studies Makers of Contemporary Islam John L. Esposito,John Obert Voll,2001 This book examines the biographies of nine major activist intellectuals whose work provides the core of what the Islamic resurgence became in the 1990s and is an important foundation for what it can become in the 21st century Nine figures are covered Ismail al Faruqi Khurshid Ahmad Maryam Jameelah Hasan Hanafi Anwar Ibrahim and Abdurrahman Wahid Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Theology William T. work in an abridged English translation is designed to familiarize educated and concerned Muslims with the nature of the crisis confronting them and to suggest the steps necessary to overcome it Complex, Intelligent and Software Intensive Systems Leonard Barolli,2022-06-16 Software intensive systems are systems which heavily interact with other systems sensors actuators devices other software systems and users More and more domains are involved with software intensive systems e g automotive telecommunication systems embedded systems in general industrial automation systems and business applications Moreover the outcome of web services delivers a new platform for enabling software intensive systems Complex systems research is focused on the overall understanding of systems rather than its components Complex systems are very much characterized by the changing environments in which they act by their multiple internal and external interactions They evolve and adapt through internal and external dynamic interactions The development of intelligent systems and agents which is each time more characterized by the use of ontologies and their logical foundations builds a fruitful impulse for both software intensive systems and complex systems Recent research in the field of intelligent systems robotics neuroscience artificial intelligence and cognitive sciences is a very important factor for the future development and innovation of software intensive and complex systems The aim of the book Complex Intelligent and Software Intensive Systems is to deliver a platform of scientific interaction between the three interwoven challenging areas of research and development of future ICT enabled applications software intensive systems complex systems and intelligent systems

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 15:1 Sohail Inuyatullah,Masudul Alam Choudhury,Abdul Rahim Abdul Rahman,Omar W. Naseem, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Bastions of the Believers Yoginder Sikand,2005 The emergence of radical Islamist movements in various parts of the world the rise and fall of the Taliban in Afghanistan the 9 11 attacks widespread vilification spearheaded by Hindutva groups all these and more have made madrasas a much talked about institution Focussing on the madrasas of India Bastions of the Believers seeks to critically interrogate sensationalist and stereotypical images of the madrasas by highlighting their diversity and the complex social roles that they play in the lives of many Muslims Madrasas as a rule represent a conservative form of theology and jurisprudence that is in many ways ill suited to a modern pluralistic society Much of what is taught in madrasas is outdated and unscientific the Deoband madrasa for instance still insists that the sun revolves around the earth and it has special seating arrangements for invisible jinns Yet obscurantism need not necessarily lead to militancy and hostility against others For instance in the decades leading to India s independence the Deobandis representing an extreme form of religious conservatism insisted on Hindu Muslim amity and a joint struggle for a free and united India It is this integrated view of madrasas and a more liberal and open understanding of Islam and indeed of all faiths which Yoginder Sikand seeks to promote for he believes this is one of the principal duties confronting committed believers if we have to learn to live together despite our differences Bastions of the Believers covers a wide range of thought provoking issues from the origins and development of the institution to critiques of madrasa curricula and the alleged links between madrasas and Islamist militancy making this a must read for all those interested in creating and preserving a just social order

Communication and Environment: Sustainability and Risks (Penerbit USM) Hamidah Abd. Hamid, Azman Azwan Azmawati, Jamilah Hj. Ahmad, Nik Norma Nik Hasan, 2014-11-25 There is a dearth of literature on environmental communication within the non western world The few existing ones are scattered and not easily available Thus there is a dire need to document research and literature in the field The opportunity arose at the 2009 International Conference on Communication and Environment held in Penang Malaysia The international conference with the theme Transformation for a Sustainable Tomorrow organised by the School of Communication Universiti Sains Malaysia USM attracted scholars practitioners and activists from around the world to listen and deliberate on various aspects of communication and environment The post conference review resulted in the selection of 24 papers to be compiled into this edited volume The escalating degradation of environment locally and globally was the main concern that prompted discussions on how sustainability can be advocated The development process in many countries economic activities and political decisions on issues such as deforestation for timber logging rapid urbanisation pertinently points out that environmental degradation and any communication on environmental change has to be grounded and located within the wider context of social politics and economics of the society Communication and environmental communication for that matter have also to be understood within these wider contexts Many would agree that a constant and consistent flow of information communicated through different channels to different stakeholders at the right time and destinations can help raise awareness and consciousness of environmental problems protection and preservation This vital information can enable the public and stakeholders to make informed choices and take actions whenever possible A lack of communication and information will inordinately exacerbate the situation of environmental degradation This book thus highlights how the environment is being treated in the media communicated to the society and impacted nations The chapters are grouped into the following sections Theoretical and conceptual issues Media content and the environment Politics communication and the environment Corporate social and environmental responsibility and Citizen participation human rights and the environment The editors acknowledge the excellent contributions of all the authors and are indebted to the members of the review panel the external reviewer USM Publications Committee and staff of Universiti Sains Malaysia Press for their help in ensuring the quality of this volume Most importantly we express our gratitude to USM for providing the financial support for the international conference and making it possible to publish this book The Editors January 2012 Universiti Sains Malaysia Penerbit Universiti Sains Malaysia
