Al Jazzar:

Lebanon William W. Harris, 2012 The book explores the affairs of Mount Lebanon and its surrounds through fourteen centuries beginning with the emergence of its Christian Muslim and Islamic derived communities between the sixth and eleventh centuries Against this backdrop it interprets the modern republic of Lebanon from Ottoman antecedents to present day crises A History of Medicine: Byzantine and Islamic medicine Plinio Prioreschi, 1996 Beirut on the Bayou Raif Shwayri, 2016-02-16 Raif Shwayri begins his family's story with his grandfather Habib Shwayri's arrival at Ellis Island in 1902 Having left Beirut then a harbor city on the Syrian coast of the Ottoman Empire only weeks before he took the name Alfred Nicola and made his way to relatives in New Orleans There he began peddling down the Bayou Lafourche befriendng the communities living alongside the water and earning the nickname Sweet Papa for his kindness and generosity When he returned home to Lebanon in 1920 he invested the money he had made from years of peddling in real estate and died a wealthy man in 1956 After his death his youngest son Nadim Raif's father turned his part of the inheritance into an endowment that started Al Kafa t an iconic and unique institution in Lebanon that serves the handicapped and underprivileged Alfred Nicola's story like the story of Lebanon itself begins farther back in history In its account of centuries of Ottoman rule decades of colonial occupation and years of internal political strife and civil war Beirut on the Bayou intertwines a family narrative with the story of a people of Lebanon in the making From the Fertile Crescent that was Syria to the Crescent City that is New Orleans the saga of the Shwayri family reflects the experiences of those Lebanese who walked the path of immigration to the United States as well as those who stayed behind or returned to help forge a nation

Protestant Missionaries in the Levant Samir Khalaf, 2012 Through focusing on the unintended by products of New England Puritanism as a cultural transplant in the Levant this book explores the socio historical forces which account for the failure of early envoys attempts to convert the native population Early failure in conversion led to later success in reinventing themselves as agents of secular and liberal education welfare and popular culture Through making special efforts not to debase local culture the missionaries work resulted in large sections of society becoming protestantized without being evangelized An invaluable resource for postgraduates and those undertaking postdoctoral research this book explores a seminal but overlooked interlude in the encounters between American Protestantism and the Levant Using data from previously unexplored personal narrative accounts Khalaf dates the emergence of the puritanical imagination sparked by sentiments of American exceptionalism voluntarism and soft power to at least a century before commonly assumed The Power of a Tale Haya Bar-Itzhak, Idit Pintel-Ginsberg, 2019-11-11 Scholars and students interested in Jewish folklore and literature will appreciate this diverse collection as well as readers interested in Jewish and Israeli culture Art and Material Culture in the Byzantine and Islamic Worlds Evanthia Baboula, Lesley Jessop, 2021-04-19 Dedicated to Erica Cruikshank Dodd Art and Material Culture in the Byzantine and Islamic Worlds offers new perspectives on the Christian and

Muslim communities of the east Mediterranean from medieval to contemporary times The contributors examine how people from diverse religious backgrounds adapted to their changing political landscapes and show that artistic patronage consumption and practices are interwoven with constructed narratives The essays consider material and textual evidence for painted media architecture and the creative process in Byzantium Crusader era politics the Ottoman empire and the modern Middle East thus demonstrating the importance of the past in understanding the present Contributors Evanthia Baboula Lesley Jessop Anthony Cutler Jaroslav Folda John Osborne Glenn Peers Annemarie Weyl Carr Mat Immerzeel Bas Snelders Angela Andersen May Farhat Marcus Milwright Rico Franses Jews in Muslim Lands, 1750-1830 Yaron Tsur, 2023-09-16

Petry,2022-05-26 An engaging and accessible survey of the Mamluk Sultanate which positions the realm within the development of comparative political systems from a global perspective "And in Length of Days Understanding" (Job 12:12) Erez Ben-Yosef,Ian W. N. Jones,2023-08-01 This two volume book presents cutting edge archaeological research primarily as practiced in the Eastern Mediterranean region These volumes key foci are inspired by the work of Thomas E Levy Volume 1 provides an in depth look at new archaeological research in the southern Levant primarily in modern Israel and Jordan inspired by Levy's commitment to understanding social political and economic processes in a long term or deep time perspective Volume 2 focuses on new research in several key areas of 21st century anthropological archaeology and archaeological science Volume 1 is organized around two major themes 1 the later prehistory of the southern Levant or the Neolithic Chalcolithic and Bronze Age and 2 new research in biblical archaeology or the historical archaeology of the Iron Age Each section contains a combination of new perspectives on key debates and studies introducing new research questions and directions Volume 2 is organized around five major themes 1 the archaeology of the Faynan copper ore district of southern Jordan a key region for archaeometallurgical research in West Asia where Levy conducted field research for over a decade 2 new research in archaeometallurgy beyond the Faynan region 3 marine and maritime archaeology focusing on issues of trade and environmental change 4 cyber archaeology an important 21st century field Levy conceived as the marriage of archaeology engineering computer science and the natural sciences and 5 key issues in anthropological archaeological theory In addition to presenting the reader with an up to date view of research in each of these areas the volume also has chapters exploring the connections between these themes e.g. the maritime trade of metals and cyber digital archaeological approaches to metallurgy. The work contains contributions from both up and coming early career researchers and key established figures in their fields. This book is an essential reference for archaeologists and scholars in related disciplines working in the southern Levant and the Eastern Mediterranean.

Rediscovering Palestine Beshara Doumani, 1995-10-12 Drawing on previously unused primary sources, this book paints an intimate and vivid portrait of Palestinian society on the eve of modernity. Through the voices of merchants, peasants, and Ottoman officials, Beshara Doumani offers a major revision of standard interpretations of Ottoman history by investigating the ways in which urban/rural dynamics in a provincial setting appropriated and gave meaning to the larger forces of Ottoman rule and European economic expansion. He traces the relationship between culture, politics, and economic change by looking at how merchant families constructed trade networks and cultivated political power, and by showing how peasants defined their identity and formulated their notions of justice and political authority. Original and accessible, this study challenges nationalist constructions of history and provides a context for understanding the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. It is also the first comprehensive work on the Nablus region, Palestine's trade, manufacturing, and agricultural heartland, and a bastion of local autonomy. Doumani rediscovers Palestine by writing the inhabitants of this ancient land into history.

Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2009-12-16 This book addresses the major generators of conflict and toleration at shared holy places in Palestine and Israel. Examining the religious, political, and legal issues, the authors show how the holy sites have been a focus of both conflict and cooperation between different communities. Bringing together the views of a diverse group of experts on the region, Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict provides a new and multifaceted approach to holy places, giving an in-depth analysis of relevant issues. Themes covered include legal regulation of holy places, nationalization, and reproduction of holy space; sharing and contesting holy places; identity, politics, and popular legends of holy sites. Chapters cover in detail how recognition and authorization of a new site come about; the influence of religious belief versus political ideology on the designation of holy places; the centrality of such areas to the surrounding political developments; and how historical background and culture affect the perception of a holy site and relations between conflicting groups. This new approach to the study of holy places and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict has great significance for a variety of disciplines and will be of great interest in the fields of law, politics, religious studies, anthropology, and sociology.

Palestine Sarah Irving, 2012-03 The only practical guide to traveling in Palestine and Palestinian communities in Israel.

In My Mother's Footsteps Mona Hajjar Halaby, 2021-08-05 Beautiful, Poignant, Phenomenal. I cried and I smiled. Truly a gem. Goodreads reviewer. A moving and heartbreaking journey of a daughter discovering her Palestinian roots and recovering her mother's beloved past. Perfect for fans of The Bookseller of Kabul and The Beekeeper of Aleppo. 1948 Jerusalem. Zakia is forced to flee the only home she's ever known as war rips through the leafy streets and the bustling spice-filled souqs. Taking just one suitcase, Zakia thinks she'll be able to return soon But within weeks she realises she won't be allowed back to her beloved homeland

2007 California Mona grew up with her mother Zakia's memories of Palestine imagining the muezzin's call for prayer and the medley of church bells her mother so vividly described to her So when Mona gets the opportunity to teach conflict resolution in Ramallah she also embarks on a personal pilgrimage to find her mother's home in militarized and occupied Jerusalem With cherished letters from her mother who writes to Mona regularly sharing her story of Jerusalem Mona dreams of one day being guided by her through the winding cobblestone alleys of the Old City Yet it is Mona who instead holds her mother's hand as they finally visit Jerusalem together After fifty nine years of exile her mother is returning to the place she once called home but can a lifetime of loss ever be healed Read what everyone is saying about In My Mother's Footsteps Will jerk those tears right out of your head Surely one of the best books of 2021 Goodreads reviewer Utterly heart breaking absorbing and tender Mona took me by the hand through the streets of Jerusalem and brought it to life in a way I've never seen before a timely and important story that will stay with you long after you finish the last page Christy Lefteri bestselling author of The Beekeeper of Aleppo What a powerful experience both heart breaking and joyous Thank you for inviting us to live your story Mona What a thrill to walk the streets of Jerusalem with you and your mother Pam Nicholls Powerful moving exceptionally evocative Goodreads reviewer Emotional and enlightening A must read Karen King Moving evocative and poignant a really insightful and touching book Resnas_readagram

A History of Palestine Gudrun Krämer, 2011-02-22 Krämer focuses on patterns of interaction amongst Jews and Arabs Muslim as well as Christian in Palestine an interaction that deeply affected the economic political social and cultural evolution of both communities under Ottoman and British rule Israel and the Palestinian Territories Daniel Jacobs, Shirley Eber, Francesca Silvani, 1998 This is the most complete and topical guide to the region with detailed accounts of all the historic monuments and the Jewish Islamic and Christian holy sites Medieval Islamic Medicine Adil S. The Great Globe Itself Peter Hardy, 2024-10-08 This is a story of the European political dynamics that proceeded from the mid seventeenth century affecting the destinies of Great Britain France Austria Prussia and Russia their allies and their colonies This volume provides an introduction to the period followed by a more detailed study of the years from 1754 to 1799 the years of George Washington Future volumes will relate the years of Napoleon Bonaparte Andrew Jackson and Karl Marx The Oxford History of the Holy Land Robert G. Hoyland, H. G. M. Williamson, 2023-03-28 Histories you can trust The Oxford History of the Holy Land covers the 3 000 years which saw the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam and relates the familiar stories of the sacred texts with the fruits of modern scholarship Beginning with the origins of the people who became the Israel of the Bible it follows the course of the ensuing millennia down to the time when the Ottoman Empire succumbed to British and French rule at the end of the First World War Parts of the story especially as known from the Bible will be widely familiar Less familiar are the ways in which modern research both from archaeology and from other ancient sources sometimes modify this story historically Better understanding however enables us to appreciate crucial chapters in the story of the Holy Land such as how and why Judaism developed in the way that it did from the earlier sovereign states of Israel and Judah and the historical circumstances in which Christianity emerged from its Jewish cradle Later parts of the story are vital not only for the history of Islam and its relationships with the two older religions but also for the development of pilgrimage and religious tourism as well as the notions of sacred space and of holy books with which we are still familiar today From the time of Napoleon on European powers came increasingly to develop both cultural and political interest in the region culminating in the British and French conquests which carved out the modern states of the Middle East Sensitive to the concerns of those for whom the sacred books of Judaism Christianity and Islam are of paramount religious authority the authors all try sympathetically to show how historical information from other sources as well as scholarly study of the texts themselves enriches our understanding of the history of the region and its prominent position in the world s cultural and intellectual history
