McDonald,Michael Levine-Clark,2017-03-15 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entire and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance      Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language      Celebrating 25 Years of Libraries and USPTO Cooperation Patent and Trademark Depository Library Program (U.S.). Training Seminar,2002 Documents presented during the 25th Annual PTDL Seminar March 17 22 2002      Doing Theological Research Robert W. Pazmiño,2009-09-01 This concise introductory work explores the essentials of doing theological research and writing It is a handy companion to assist persons as they begin and pursue theological education It provides an overview of expectations that both various professors have shared and students have reported over many years as basic wisdom to foster quality theological work It is a time tested resource to guide those called to seminary study      Resources in Education ,2000-10      Progressive Library Organizations Alfred Kagan,2015-03-27 This work presents the history and impact of the seven most important progressive library organizations worldwide in Austria Germany South Africa Sweden United Kingdom and two in the United States Each organization is considered within its national context and in fact the English word organization does not quite fit the nature of all of the groups The South African organization LIWO was transitional in that it helped bring South African librarianship from apartheid to majority rule and then disbanded The other organizations or their successors are still working in one form or another Some of the organizations have had or continue to have vibrant local chapters though many of the original activists have recently retired or died The author has interviewed many of them at a time when they were assessing their life work and handing off to new generations      Managing Business Collections in Libraries Carolyn A. Sheehy,1996-12-09 Business information is in strong demand by a wide range of library patrons Academic librarians must meet the needs of undergraduates graduates and faculty who require information about businesses for their coursework and research school librarians must deal with sophisticated financial questions from students in a variety of classes public librarians must provide investors and job seekers with information about financial trends prospective employers and particular industries and special librarians must provide their users with immediate and current data about clients competitors and markets Business information is available in various forms such as print sources CD ROMs and on line databases and is particularly volatile with the news of the morning often being more in demand than the news of the week before The wide range of patron needs product types and constantly changing data makes managing business collections a particularly complex and demanding responsibility This management guide provides a wealth of information to assist librarians who are new to managing business collections Chapters written by expert contributors survey such topics as planning financial and personnel concerns and facilities management the selection acquisition cataloging classification processing and preservation of print and electronic material and the provision of access reference and information services to both internal and external user communities A selected annotated bibliography concludes the volume

Doing the Work of Reference Linda S Katz, 2013-10-18 Become more versatile competent and resourceful with these practical suggestions Becoming a first class reference librarian demands proficiency in a wide range of skills Doing the Work of Reference offers sound advice for the full spectrum of your responsibilities Though many aspects of a reference librarian's work are changing with astonishing speed the classic principles in this volume will never go out of date This comprehensive volume begins with hints for orienting yourself to a new job and concludes with ideas for serving the profession On the way Doing the Work of Reference covers such diverse topics as working with student assistants offering reference services to remote users and keeping up your professional development In addition you will find strategies for dealing with technological change not high tech information that will become obsolete before the ink is dry but ways of approaching the process of change that will work today next week and ten years from now Doing the Work of Reference will help you increase your competence in getting along with other staff members marketing the library to users and faculty handling ephemeral materials keeping students attention in library instruction courses maintaining good relations with faculty increasing your subject knowledge and much more This comprehensive guide is an essential handbook for librarians in the trenches Whether you are a new librarian or a veteran at the reference desk Doing the Work of Reference will help you burnish your skills

Fundamentals of Collection Development and Management Peggy Johnson, 2009 Addresses the art of controlling and updating your library's collection Discussions of the importance and logistics of electronic resources are integrated throughout the book

Poor People and Library Services Karen M. Venturella, 2015-11-16 In 1996 nearly 40 million United States citizens were reported to be living in poverty This enormous number set in conjunction with the rapid growth in demand for more information technology presents librarians with a wrenching dilemma how to maintain a modern facility while increasing services to the economically disadvantaged Karen Venturella has gathered a diverse group of librarians and facilitators including Khafre Abif head of Children's Services for the Mount Vernon Public Library in New York Wizard Marks who directs the Chicago Lake Security Center in its mission to improve the area Lillian Marrero who has concentrated on providing services to the Spanish speaking population Kathleen de la Pena McCook director of the School of Library and Information Science at the University of South Florida and 15 others to find strategies for dealing with the current crisis of disparity These writers address both the theoretical issues of ensuring access to information regardless of ability to pay and the practical means for meeting the needs of low income populations Appendices include the ALA's Policy on Library Services to Poor People The Library Bill of Rights and a listing of poverty related organizations     Lyle's
