Edna Ferber's Hollywood J. E. Smyth, 2010 Edna Ferber's Hollywood reveals one of the most influential artistic relationships of the twentieth century: the four-decade partnership between historical novelist Edna Ferber and the Hollywood studios. Ferber was one of America's most controversial popular historians, a writer whose uniquely feminist, multiracial view of the national past deliberately clashed with traditional narratives of white masculine power. Hollywood paid premium sums to adapt her novels, creating some of the most memorable films of the studio era among them Show Boat, Cimarron, and Giant. Her historical fiction resonated with Hollywood's interest in prestigious historical filmmaking aimed principally, but not exclusively, at female audiences. In Edna Ferber's Hollywood, J. E. Smyth explores the research, writing, marketing, reception, and production histories of Hollywood's Ferber franchise. Smyth tracks Ferber's working relationships with Samuel Goldwyn, Leland Hayward, George Stevens, and James Dean; her landmark contract negotiations with Warner Bros. and the controversies surrounding Giant's critique of Jim Crow Texas. But Edna Ferber's Hollywood is also the study of the historical vision of an American outsider: a woman, a Jew, a novelist with few literary pretensions, an unashamed middlebrow who challenged the prescribed boundaries

among gender race history and fiction In a masterful film and literary history Smyth explores how Ferber s work helped shape Hollywood s attitude toward the American past      Wilderness in the Circumpolar North ,2002 There are growing pressures on undeveloped wild places in the Circumpolar North Among them are pressures for economic development oil and gas exploration and extraction development of geothermal energy resources development of heavy industry close to energy sources and lack of appreciation for other orientations toward wilderness resources by interested parties from broad geographical origins An international seminar in Anchorage Alaska in May of 2001 was the first step in providing basic input to an analysis of the primary set of values associated with Circumpolar North wilderness and the constraints and contributors factors of influence that either limit or facilitate receipt of those values to various segments of society
