The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević, 2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region's path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography

Negotiating Culture Reginald Byron, Ullrich Kockel, 2006 How are cultural boundaries created conceived and experienced On the public level the political practices of sub nationalism have been revitalized by contemporary ideologies of multiculturalism providing new rhetorical forms which ultimately deny the legitimacy of indeterminacy Yet on the private level the creation of new intersubjectivities is a normal consequence of movement mixing and living together resulting in novel repertoires of individual and collective experiences This book seeks to connect both the public and the private within the same frame of analysis Reginald Byron is professor of sociology and anthropology University of Wales Swansea UK Ullrich Kockel holds a chair in European Studies at Bristol University of the West of England UK where he leads the European Ethnological Research Unit

Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Bavjola Gami Shatro, 2024-05-29 Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Voices that Come from the Abyss is the first scholarly monograph on the concept of loss in Albanian poetry and life writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries It represents the first academic contribution to an international audience dedicated to three women writers that personified loss in communist Albania and two eminent poets who wrote representative and outstanding poetry on the meaning of loss in Albanian literature Through the work of these three politically persecuted women writers and two modern poets this book analyzes loss in relation to pain grief memory death freedom and love inquiring on the meeting point between life writing and poetry and the point where they part ways The book explores the work of Musine Kokalari the first Albanian woman writer and political dissident Bedi Pipa the first woman known to have authored a diary in Albanian literature Drita Lleshi author of a diary and poetry written in secret in political exile under communism Fatos Arapi the Albanian poet who has been awarded the most important international literary prize to date and who has elaborated on the ethical implications of freedom grief and death in relation to personal loss Ali Podrimja a cornerstone of contemporary Albanian poetry author of a volume that marked a definite turn to modernity in Albanian poetry in the Republic of Kosova and to date one of the best volumes of poetry written in the history of Albanian literature Lum Lumi where he explores the depth of grief pain loss and love The works of these five authors bring forth the necessity to re visit the history of Albanian literature and promote interdisciplinary and comparative studies beyond Albanian literature Shatro studies the unique traits of their life writing the specific link between different literary genres and the exceptional capacity of poetry to carry loss to the point of articulating the unsaid thus giving a voice to silence She argues that through diary memoir epistolary and poetry all five authors provide different views of loss and its challenging ethical implications in relation to death memory and freedom Albania Demir S. Hysolli,1993 Albanian Flag Journal: Blank Lined Diary Wanderlust Writer,2019-03-17 Great Albania gift and journaling idea for your Albanian American family reunions or birthday to celebrate your culture and Albanian ancestry with this Albanian journal or diary A Quiet Company of Dangerous Men Shannon Monaghan,2024-09-10 Well researched and riveting The struggle of these four men against totalitarian injustice was noble and this book memorializes it superbly The Wall Street Journal The untold story of four special operations officers who fought together behind enemy lines across multiple theaters of World War II and then continued to serve officially and unofficially for decades after in the hottest parts of the Cold War There have always been special warriors Achilles and his Myrmidons are the obvious classical examples What we now think of as special operations however were born in World War II and one of the earliest and most exciting units formed was Britain s SOE In the early years of the war when Britain stood alone against the Nazis Winston Churchill put them on a mission to set Europe ablaze to foment local revolt to gather intelligence to blow up bridges and to do anything that could help to disrupt the Axis cause A Quiet Company of Dangerous Men follows four SOE officers who distinguished themselves in this fight the Spanish Civil War veteran Peter Kemp the demolitions expert David Smiley the born guerrilla leader Billy McLean and the political natural Julian Amery With new and extensive research including unprecedented access to private family papers that reveal the men s unbreakable bonds and vibrant personalities Shannon Monaghan has uncovered a story of war in the twentieth century that due to the secretive nature of the SOE s work has remained largely unknown A Quiet Company of Dangerous Men is a thrilling and inspiring story of four remarkable men who through sheer determination and daring as well as unwavering friendship and loyalty fought for a better world ALBANIA ON MY MIND Adam YAMEY,2013-09-03 The people of Albania achieved independence in 1912 having endured several centuries of Ottoman domination After the First World War they lived under a series of dictatorships beginning with that of King Zog He was followed by Mussolini and then by Hitler They were liberated by the Communist partisans at the end of the Second World War only to be subjected to yet another dictatorship This was led by Enver Hoxha During his 30 year reign Albania became even more impenetrable to outside observers than North Korea is today In this book about Albania published to celebrate 100 years of Albania's independence Adam Yamey describes how his almost obsessive interest in the country developed and what he discovered about life inside the country's closely guarded tightly sealed borders when he managed to visit it in 1984 the last year of Enver Hoxha's life

Butrint 7 David Hernandez, Richard Hodges, 2020-12-14 This volume brings together unpublished Italian and Albanian archaeological reports and new archaeological studies from recent fieldwork that throw new light on the archaeology and history of the Pavllas River Valley the Mediterranean alluvial plain in the territory of Butrint ancient Buthrotum in southwestern Albania It gives prominence for the first time to two important sites Kalivo and uka e Aitoit which are here reinterpreted and shown to have played major roles in the early history of Butrint as it evolved in the later first millennium BC to emerge as the key city of Chaonia in Epirus Butrint 7 also presents the full excavation report of the Late Bronze Age and Hellenistic fortified site of Mursi in addition to other Butrint Foundation surveys and excavations in the hinterland of Butrint including the Roman villa maritima at Diaporit the villa suburbana on the Vrina Plain and Roman sites on Alinura Bay and at the Customs House as well as new surveys of the early modern Triangular Fortress and a survey to locate the lost Venetian village of Zar pulo The volume also features a new study of the Hellenistic bronze statuette of Pan found on Mount Mile and of his sanctuary at Butrint The volume concludes with a comprehensive reassessment of the Pavllas River Valley in relation to Butrint from the Palaeolithic to the modern eras examining how dominion territory environment and the corrupting sea reshaped Butrint and its fluvial corridor diachronically and particularly brought profound territorial economic and social alterations under the Roman Empire

Clandestine Lives of Colonel David Smiley Jones Clive Jones, 2019-05-21 Drawing on extensive interviews and archival research this biography uncovers the motivations and ideals that informed Smiley's commitment to covert action and intelligence during the Second World War and early part of the Cold War often among tribally based societies With particular reference to operations in Albania Oman and Yemen it addresses the wider issues of accountability and control of clandestine operations

Albania on the Move Julie Vullnetari, 2012 This academic and personal journey into Albania's post communist society examines the links between internal and international migration in one of Europe's poorest countries The author follows rural migrants to urban destination both within Albania and in neighboring Greece Their lives and experiences are captured in 150 interviews alongside group discussions and the ethnographic observations This rich empirical material is analysed with reference to an extensive body of literature The author s own experience as migrant and reflections as a researcher studying her own communities of origin add valuable insights The result is a demonstration of the complexity of the links between internal and international migration especially from a development perspective back cover Albanian Journal Edmund Keeley,1997 While traveling the road to Elbasan Keeley and his companions seek to learn about the terrible fifty years of physical and spiritual drought brought on by the Stalinist regime of Enver Hoxha and to see the first steps Albania has taken toward a more democratic government Along the way Keeley records in sometimes lyrical and humorous detail their meetings with people rejoicing in their new found freedoms

Smallholders and family farms in Albania - Country study report 2019 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2020-06-01 The background for conducting country studies on the challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in seven countries has been a wish to further strengthen the Regional Initiative and develop the initiative towards a stronger programmatic approach at both the regional and country levels To provide support to smallholders and family farms there has been a need to develop a better understanding and knowledge platform of the main challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in the specific country context Even though many of the challenges are the same throughout the region there are still significant variations among the countries it is important to recognize and understand these variations when designing support to smallholders and family farms in each specific country It has been the objectives of the country studies first to analyze the development trend and current state of smallholders and family farms in the specific country second to study the current political priorities and policies affecting smallholders and family farms and finally based on the conclusions made to provide recommendations mainly at the policy level on how to further support the development of commercial family farms and at the same time ensure in general inclusive growth improved rural livelihood for women and men and the reduction of rural poverty for all It is hoped that each country study will not only be relevant for FAO but also for governments donors and other international organizations when formulating policy and preparing programmes Albania and Europe in a Political Regard Klodiana Beshku,Orinda Malltezi,2013-09-11 Albania and Europe in a Political Regard is a multidisciplinary work which aims to develop different points of view in the field of social sciences In this sense it is not by chance that the chapters cover a variety of different disciplines like history sociology political science and philosophy These chapters stand alone and at the same time create a whole network of relationships between Albania and Europe An important element of this work is its multidimensional considerations of Europe it is conceptualised on a number of different levels throughout the chapters sometimes as a continent sometimes as an organization and other times as a leader In some chapters Europe is understood in terms of European integration or European civilization In others Europe is simply the idea of the continent and its reflections in the Albanian society The main axis that drives the chapters is the idea of Albania in relation to Europe how this relationship is understood how it has worked in the past and how it works today The idea of Europe in this book is conceptualised and explored in a number of different ways from the idea of European modernity to a soft power from a construction of identity to a model of behaviour according to each author s varied point of view and discipline of studies All the nine chapters in this volume utilise different ways of thinking and approaches but are all connected by a common axis that is Albania and Europe in a Political Regard
