Divine Martha Jacobs, 2021-05-21 The captivating debut novel by M J Woodman What if Rome never fell In an alternative reality the Roman Empire never fell and the world was never the same Present day Appia real world North America fractured by a mythical war in recent history has been divided into five Imperial fortress states These states shielded by an invisible forcefield and known as Havens are designed to protect inhabitants from the world beyond What lies beyond Electa Steel wants to know Electa on the cusp of womanhood faces an uncertain future in Latia the capital state in Appia While sun drenched Latia may be a paradise for some it is a prison for others Feeling suppressed by her society's rules, expectations and religion, she rebels quietly in the only ways she knows how: drinking, smoking, fighting and partying. Her youthful but futile resistance cannot last for long. Her seventeenth birthday looms, and with it the Choosing. This rite of passage promises wealth and happiness for a chosen few, but Electa, as a plebeian, faces an almost certain fate: expulsion from her Haven and homeland. Electa's fate takes an unexpected turn when, against all the odds, she is Chosen to remain in her society for the rest of her life and to compete in Imperial Panore, a once-in-a-generation event to find a wife for the future Emperor. Whisked into the majestic world of the Imperial family on Palatine Hill, Electa is not only an outsider but an insect to the glamorous patricians who live in marbled villas and worship the omnipotent deity Dominus. She refuses to mask her disillusion with the world of which she is now a part, and this attracts the attention of the drunken, arrogant Prince Asher Ovicula, who she competes to wed. A mysterious terror organisation, Spartaca, recruits Electa to overthrow the tyrannical Latian regime. Electa is tasked with winning Imperial Panore and assassinating the future Emperor. Radicalised by witnessing the world beyond the Havens ravaged by the war waged by her own people, Electa devotes herself to the Spartan cause. She must first learn to sing politics and yield power in a world dominated by men. Ultimately, if she is to be crowned victor, she must become a Gladiator, defeating her competitors in a brutal tournament where there are but two options: death or glory. The stakes are high, with her life and her family's hanging in the balance. Electa must win the tortured Prince's heart whilst navigating her own. Enamoured by the captivating and powerful Lysander Drusus, a man who embodies all she hates about her society, she will call into question her allegiances, threatening the lives of her loved ones and newfound allies. Her talent for deception is the only thing keeping her alive for now, but if Electa is anything, it's defiant, and she will defy the path fate has laid before her and the will of men who try to control her until her last breath. Electa's fight started as one for survival and freedom, but revelations about her own nature will change her and Appia forever.

One hundred mental patients are brutally massacred in the frigid cold of a Russian forest as they wait for a mysterious light coming down from the night sky. Their deaths are never spoken of again. More than three decades later, directors at mental hospitals in California are stunned when 100 patients comatose for years suddenly wake up and speak of a person called The Commander who will lead them to a place where they will be taken from Earth. One person may hold the answers: a severely mentally ill, homeless man whose knowledge of astronomy, physics, and mathematics is not only more advanced than Einstein and Tesla but can summon superhuman abilities in the blink of an eye. Taken in and protected by a small team of mental health physicians, a brilliant astrophysicist, a derelict naval officer, and a renowned Ancient Aliens theorist, this freakishly gifted person called Doogie warns that time is running out: that the creators are already on their way to Earth. They will arrive within weeks. The chosen hundred must be ready, but like 30 years ago, a new threat makes its presence menacingly clear. A xenophobic Senator with a horrific secret and the authority to launch military strikes is plotting
