Williams, 1996-01-01 In this book Raymond Leslie Williams traces the themes of history culture and identity in Fuentes work particularly in his complex major novel Terra Nostra He opens with a biography of Fuentes that links his works to his intellectual life a life that has been centrally concerned with finding and defining the source and character of Latin American culture The heart of the study is Williams extensive reading of the novel Terra Nostra in which Fuentes explores the presence of Spanish culture and history in Latin America Williams concludes with a look at how Fuentes other fiction relates to Terra Nostra including Fuentes own division of his work into fourteen cycles that he calls La Edad del Tiempo and with an interview in which Fuentes discusses his concept of this cyclical division Alejo Carpentier Roberto González Echevarría, 2014-11-06 Alejo Carpentier was one of the greatest Latin American novelists of the twentieth century as well as a musicologist journalist cultural promoter and diplomat His fictional world issues from an encyclopedic knowledge of the history art music and literature of Latin America and Europe Carpentier's novels and stories are the enabling discourse of today's Latin American narrative and his interpretation of Latin American history has been among the most influential Carpentier was the first to provide a comprehensive view of Caribbean history that centered on the contribution of Africans above and beyond the differences created by European cultures and languages Alejo Carpentier The Pilgrim at Home first published in 1977 and updated for this edition covers the life and works of the great Cuban novelist offering a new perspective on the relationship between the two González Echevarría offers detailed readings of the works La música en Cuba The Kingdom of This World The Lost Steps and Explosion in a Cathedral In a new concluding chapter he takes up Carpentier's last years his relationship with the Cuban revolutionary regime and his last two novels El arpa y la sombra and La consagración de la primavera in which Carpentier reviewed his life and career Latin American Studies Ana María Cobos, Ana Lya Sater, 2002 The Latin American studies collections at many community junior and four year colleges and large public libraries often contain materials that are too specialized uneven outdated incomplete or written in Spanish or Portuguese thus rendering them essentially useless to English reading patrons Better materials are out there but librarians simply have not had until now a good resource guide to help in locating them This work designed as an acquisitions tool for colleges and libraries is an annotated bibliography of approximately 1 400 recommended books published from 1986 through 2000 in the field of Latin American studies It is divided into chapters that deal with reference works descriptive accounts and travel guides the humanities language and literature the social sciences and science and technology For the purposes of this book Latin America is defined as all geographic locations south of the Rio Grande While these are chiefly Spanish and Portuguese speaking regions works about French English and Dutch speaking areas are also included The literary works of authors living abroad are included if they are considered quintessentially Latin American Periodicals children s literature audio visual resources and works about the Hispanic and Latino experience in the United States are not included The majority of the works presented here were selected based on reviews from Booklist Choice Hispanic American Historical Review Library Journal Los Angeles Times Book Review New York Review of Books New York Times Book Review and Publisher s Weekly also consulted were the catalogs of major university presses that focus on Latin American studies The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel s history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel Garc a M rquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1990 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar,2019-09-01 In Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar traces the legacies of anti imperial solidarity in Cuban and Angolan novels and films after 1989 Cuba s intervention in Angola s post independence civil war from 1976 to 1991 was its longest and most engaged internationalist project and left a profound mark on the culture of both nations After the fall of the Berlin Wall Millar argues Cuban and Angolan writers and filmmakers responded to this collective history and adapted to new postsocialist realities in analogous ways developing what she characterizes as works of disappointment Revamping and riffing on earlier texts and forms of revolutionary enthusiasm works of disappointment lay bare the aesthetic and political fragmentation of the public sphere while continuing to register the promise of leftist political projects Pushing past the binaries that tend to dominate histories of the Cold War and its aftermath Millar gives priority to the perspectives of artists in the Global South illuminating networks of anticolonial and racial solidarity and showing how their works not only reflect shared feelings of disappointment but also call for ethical gestures of empathy and reconciliation

Music in Latin America and the Caribbean: An Encyclopedic History Malena Kuss,2010-07-05 The music of the peoples of South and Central America Mexico and the Caribbean has never received a comprehensive treatment in English until this multi volume work Taking a sociocultural and human centered approach Music in Latin America and the Caribbean gathers the best scholarship from writers all over the world to cover in depth the musical legacies of indigenous peoples creoles African descendants Iberian colonizers and other immigrant groups that met and mixed in the New World Within a history marked by cultural encounters and dislocations music emerges as the powerful tool that negotiates identities enacts resistance performs belief and challenges received aesthetics This work more than two decades in the making was conceived as part of The Universe of Music A History project initiated by and developed in cooperation with the International Music Council with the goals of empowering Latin Americans and Caribbeans to shape their own musical history and emphasizing the role that music plays in human life The four volumes that constitute this work are structured as parts of a single conception and gather 150 contributions by more than 100 distinguished scholars representing 36 countries Volume 1 Performing Beliefs Indigenous Peoples of South America Central America and Mexico focuses on the inextricable relationships between worldviews and musical experience in the current practices of indigenous groups Worldviews are built into among other things how music is organized and performed how musical instruments are constructed and when they are played choreographic formations the structure of songs the assignment of gender to instruments and ritual patterns Two CDs with 44 recorded examples illustrate the contributions to this rich volume Alejo Carpentier Roberto González Echevarría,1991 Alejo Carpentier was one of the greatest Latin American novelists of the twentieth century as well as a musicologist journalist cultural promoter and diplomat His fictional world issues from an encyclopedic knowledge of the
