Airline The Making Of A National Flag Carrier:

Airline Ian H. Driscoll,1979      Progressive Commercialization of Airline Governance Culture Jan

Walulik,2016-08-05 Progressive Commercialization of Airline Governance Culture analyzes the transition of the airline sector from the not for profit nation bound public utility model towards a profit oriented globalized industry It illustrates how legal political historical and cultural factors have shaped the corporate governance in the airline sector and describes how these factors influence economic decisions and performance The unique feature of the book is that the subject is consequentially discussed from the perspective of airline governance culture This approach links the examination of legal and policy factors which influence airline activities together with a discussion of economic issues all within one clear coherent and comprehensive framework

International Bibliography of Business History Francis Goodall,Terry Gourvish,Steven Tolliday,2013-12-16 The field of business history has changed and grown dramatically over the last few years There is less interest in the traditional company centred approach and more concern about the wider business context With the growth of multi national corporations in the 1980s international and inter firm comparisons have gained in importance In addition there has been a move towards improving links with mainstream economic financial and social history through techniques and outlook The International Bibliography of Business History brings all of the strands together and provides the user with a comprehensive guide to the literature in the field The Bibliography is a unique volume which covers the depth and breadth of research in business history This exhaustive volume has been compiled by a team of subject specialists from around the world under the editorship of three prestigious business historians

Ratemaking in International Air Transport Peter Haanappel,2013-06-29 Ratemaking in international air transport is a matter of vital importance for airlines consumers and Governments For airlines because the level of international air fares and rates forms one of the bases of their profit making ability For consumers because that level determines whether they can afford the use of international air transport For Governments because they as the guardians of the interests of both the airlines and the consumers have the task to strike a just balance between those interests International air fares and rates are of two kinds scheduled and non scheduled The International Air Transport Association IATA the trade association of the world s scheduled international airlines determines under Governmental supervision and control uniform fares and rates for scheduled international air services These services account for approximately seventy five percent of total international air traffic The remaining twenty five percent consists of non scheduled or charter international air services International charter air fares and rates are by and large set by the free forces of the marketplace and compete with scheduled international IATA air fares and rates This book studies both scheduled and charter international air fares and rates It examines the role of airlines airline associations and Governments in the international ratemaking process Furthermore it analyses the competitive relationship between charter and scheduled international air fares and rates

International Aviation DIANE Publishing Company,2004 Examines problems U S airlines experience when operating abroad efforts of the departments of State Transportation to eliminate these problems Recommendations aimed at improving the effectiveness of the U S government s efforts to work with foreign governments to eliminate the obstacles U S airlines face that reduce their ability to compete with foreign airlines Charts tables

Indonesia, News & Views ,1988-04 The Airport Business Professor Rigas Doganis,Rigas Doganis,2005-08-18 Placing the airport business within a conceptual framework the author examines the major global issues that confront it and offers solutions to the economic and financial difficulties likely to arise in the future

Postcolonial Aeromobilities Bart Paul Vanspauwen,Iñigo Sánchez-Fuarros,2025-06-23 This edited collection explores how national airlines in postcolonial states operate at the complex intersection of corporate branding cultural governance tourism development and national identity formation It conceptualizes airplanes and airports as both tangible infrastructural spaces and symbolic domains that connect geographically distant regions while embodying aspirations of political sovereignty and cultural unity Through diverse case studies spanning multiple continents the book examines how commercial aviation s physical and cultural spaces either reinforce or challenge colonial histories and imperial legacies The volume reveals how modern Western imperial narratives were shaped through specific cultural and social negotiations that played out in airline branding route networks service standards and cultural policies It analyzes how airlines serve as vehicles for projecting soft power and cultural diplomacy while mediating between local traditions and global modernity Drawing on rich empirical examples from Angola Argentina Australia Belgium Brazil Jamaica Kenya France Hong Kong Indonesia Lebanon Mexico Peru South Africa Turkey and the United States this collection demonstrates how airlines employ sophisticated cultural management and corporate branding strategies to shape national and regional identities By examining airlines as sites where business strategy cultural policy and identity politics intersect this collection advances our understanding of how transportation infrastructure shapes social imaginaries and power relations in our increasingly connected yet culturally diverse world The research has important implications for scholars of business history cultural studies postcolonial theory and transportation geography while offering practical insights for policymakers and airline industry leaders      Regulation of Rates and Practices of Air Carriers and Foreign Air Carriers United States.
