Airman Without Wings Arthur Samuel Horsman, 1993 Citizen Airman, 1999 Airman, 1989 Navy Airman's Manual United States. Navy Department. Bureau of Aeronautics, 1956 Navy Airman's Manual United States. Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, 1953 How the Soviet Man Was Unmade Lilya Kaganovsky, 2010-06-15 In Stalinist Russia the idealized Soviet man projected an image of strength virility and unyielding drive in his desire to build a powerful socialist state In monuments posters and other tools of cultural production he became the demigod of Communist ideology But beneath the surface of this fantasy between the lines of texts and in film lurked another figure the wounded body of the heroic invalid the second version of Stalin's New Man In How the Soviet Man Was Unmade Lilya Kaganovsky exposes the paradox behind the myth of the indestructible Stalinist era male In her analysis of social realist literature and cinema she examines the recurring theme of the mutilated male body which appears with startling frequency Kaganovsky views this representation as a thinly veiled statement about the emasculated male condition during the Stalinist era Because the communist state was full of heroes a man could only truly distinguish himself and attain hero status through bodily sacrifice yet in his wounding he was forever reminded that he would be limited in what he could achieve and was expected to remain in a state of continued subservience to Stalin and the party Kaganovsky provides an insightful reevaluation of classic works of the period including the novels of Nikolai Ostrovskii How Steel Was Tempered and Boris Polevoi A Story About a Real Man and films such as Ivan Pyr'ev's The Party Card Eduard Pentslin's The Fighter Pilots and Mikhail Chiaureli's The Fall of Berlin among others The symbolism of wounding and dismemberment in these works acts as a fissure in the facade of Stalinist cultural production through which we can view the consequences of historic and political trauma Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1999 Air Corps News Letter, 1954 Airfields & Airmen: Arras Mike O'Connor, 2004-07-15 A historical traveler's guide to the World War I aerial events around Arras France featuring ace pilots airfields and other local points of interest The latest volume in the Airfields and Airmen series covers the Arras area It includes a visit to the grave of Albert Ball VC and the graves of Waterfall and Bayly the first British fliers killed in action There is a visit to the aerodrome from which Alan McLeod took off from to earn his VC and to the grave of Viscount Glentworth killed while flying with 32 Squadron The German side is well covered with visits to their cemeteries and aerodromes This well researched book relives the deadly thrills of war in the air over the battlefields of the Western Front Air Service News Letter, 1954 Flying Magazine, 1963-11 Gateway Wing, 2004 Today the Struggle Katharine Bail Hoskins, 2014-11-07 Many writers from Aristophanes to Joseph Heller have written about politics But at certain periods in history often at times of conflict and turmoil writers have consciously used their literary talents to support or oppose a specific cause The 1930s a decade of widespread social and political breakdown was such a period Today the Struggle examines the political involvement of those leading British writers who dedicated their talents to the defense of Nationalists or Loyalists during the Spanish Civil War and who saw that war as symbolic of their own Right Left dialogue Conservatives like William Butler Yeats and T S Eliot and Roman Catholics like Evelyn Waugh were passionately anti Communist They viewed fascism as a bulwark against communism but were unwilling to support the Franco cause actively Other pro Nationalists were not so hesitant Roy Campbell and Wyndham Lewis were ardent participants in the fight against the British left wing Pro Loyalists united only in their antifascism ranged from conservative to anarchist in political commitment Their literary contributions included fine poems by W H Auden and Stephen Spender experimental drama by Auden and Christopher Isherwood and impassioned prose by Rex Warner George Orwell and Aldous Huxley Katharine Hoskins s principal interest in Today the Struggle is to discover how and why certain writers supported specific political actions to ascertain the effectiveness of their efforts and to evaluate the influence of these efforts on their work Airman's Guide ,1946 Air Force Manual United States. Department of the Air Force,1956 Airman's Information Manual ,1978 The MAC Flyer ,1968 Department of the Air Force Appropriations for 1954 United States. Congress. House. Appropriations,1953 Department of the Air Force Appropriations ... United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations,1953 Wings of Honor, American Airmen in World War I James J. Sloan,1994 Beretning om amerikanske flyvev benenheders deltagelse i 1 verdenskrig Selv om USA iv rksatte en storstilet tr ning af piloter og jordpersonel vardet kun et begr nset antal af disse som faktisk kom til at deltage i kamphandlingerne Ca 4000 man deltog i kamphandlingerne og ca 700 fly Amerikanerne m tte l ne materiel af sine allierede og indgik videre som en integreret del af de allierede styrker under den p g ldende nations flag
