Patronage in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century France Sharon Kettering,2024-10-28 The dual themes of this volume are the characteristics of patronage relationships and their political uses in early modern France The first essays provide an overview of the scholarly literature and suggest that the obligatory reciprocity of the patron client exchange was a defining characteristic The third and fourth essays compare patronage relationships with kinship and friendship while the following two focus on the patronage role of noblewomen Professor Kettering then looks at the role of brokerage in state formation in early modern France comparing this with other early modern societies In the final section she explores the role of patronage in the religious wars of the late 16th century and in the civil war of the Fronde a half century later and the ways in which it was affected by the changing lifestyles of the great nobles during the late 17th century Aix-en-Provence ,1980

Public Space in the Late Antique City (2 vols.) Luke Lavan,2021-01-11 This book investigates the nature of public space in Mediterranean cities A D 284 650 meaning places where it was impossible to avoid meeting people from all parts of society whether different religious confessions or social groups The first volume considers the architectural form and everyday functions of streets fora agorai market buildings and shops including a study of processions and everyday street life The second volume analyses archaeological evidence for the construction repair use and abandonment of these urban spaces based on standardised principles of phasing and dating The conclusions provide insights into the urban environment of Constantinople an assessment of urban institutions and citizenship and a consideration of the impact of Christianity on civic life at this time

Urban Transformations in the Late Antique West: Materials, Agents, and Models André Carneiro,Neil Christie,Pilar Diarte Blasco,2020 This volume is the fruit of a highly productive international research gathering academic and professional field and museum colleagues to discuss new results and approaches recent finds and alternative theoretical assessments of the period of transition and transformation of classical towns in Late Antiquity Experts from an array of modern countries attended and presented to help compare and contrast critically archaeologies of diverse regions and to debate the qualities of the archaeology and the current modes of study While a number of papers inevitably focused on evidence available for both Spain and Portugal we were delighted to have a spread of contributions that extended the picture to other territories in the Late Roman West and Mediterranean The emphasis was very much on the images presented by archaeology rescue and research works recent and past but textual data were also brought into play by various contributors
