International Aid, Administrative Reform and the Politics of EU Accession Artan Karini, 2018-09-11 This book provides a detailed analysis of the dimensions and dynamics of the role of international aid in the reform and capacity development of public service in post communist Albania It challenges the technocratic results based management frameworks used by aid organizations and reports of official donors operating in the country context and offers a qualitative and critical assessment of the role of aid in administrative reform and capacity building Secondly the book highlights the specificity of the national politico administrative context and its ability to modify the process of policy transfer from aid organizations to the Albanian bureaucracy In doing so it illustrates the domestic challenges in the transfer process towards policy learning and makes a valuable contribution to the debate over the voluntary vs coercive administrative reform in Southeast Europe in relation to the politics of EU accession Index of Islamic Literature ,1993 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Muslim World Book Review ,1992 Adventist Review ,1999 The Albanians Edwin E. Jacques, 2012-03-21 Historically described as mysterious and xenophobic Albania and its people are little known to most westerners But they are near the center of age old explosive Balkan conflicts With the employment of Albanian French Italian and many other documentary sources the roots of Albanian civilization the struggle of the Albanians to maintain their cultural and linguistic integrity the impact of foreign influence on the country and its recent move toward democracy are all detailed here Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1999 Products, Users, and Popular Luxury in Early Modern Greece Artemis Yagou, 2024-08-05 This book analyses aspects of the material culture of early modern Greece from an object based perspective using surviving artefacts from that period as primary sources A printed book a wine jug an ecclesiastical embroidery and a pocket watch are used as entry points to examine the consumer practices of the emerging Greek bourgeoisie under Ottoman rule in the long eighteenth century The acquisition and usage of novel products especially imported ones by Greeks was connected to personal expression identity building and self determination in the context of the Enlightenment The enjoyment of innovative artefacts opened new horizons to them and facilitated their individual and collective empowerment The originality of the book lies in its eclectic and interdisciplinary approach towards early modern Greek material culture an under researched topic The study is embedded within contemporary discourses on transnational trade the materiality of everyday life pleasurable consumption and the negotiation of identities This volume will appeal to students and scholars of early modern and modern Greek history Ottoman history European history material culture history of technology museum studies and cultural heritage studies as well as museum professionals collectors and the wider educated public Poland Since 1956 Tadeusz N. Cieplak, Proceedings of The 7th MAC 2016 group of authors, 2016-05-24 Proceedings of The 7th MAC 2016 The 7th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2016 Czech Republic Social Inequalities and Discontent in Yugoslav Socialism Rory Archer, Igor Duda, Paul Stubbs, 2016-03-31

Socialist countries like Yugoslavia garnered legitimacy through appealing to social equality Yet social stratification was characteristic of Yugoslav society and increased over the course of the state's existence By the 1980s the country was divided on socio economic as well as national lines Through case studies from a range of social milieux contributors to this volume seek to bring class back in to Yugoslav historiography exploring how theorisations of social class informed the politics and policies of social mobility and conversely how societal or grassroots understandings of class have influenced politics and policy Rather than focusing on regional differentiation between Yugoslav republics and provinces the emphasis is placed on social differentiation and discontent within particular communities The contributing authors of these historical studies come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds linking scholarship from the socialist era to contemporary research based on accessing newly available primary sources Voices of a wide spectrum of informants are included in the volume from factory workers and subsistence farmers to fictional television characters and pop folk music superstars

Women, Migration and Gendered Experiences Ermira Danaj, 2022-03-09 This open access book focuses on Albanian internal and international female migration and places gender at the heart of postsocialist transformation It explores the vulnerabilities that arise for female citizens from the contradictory policies produced by the Albanian state By illuminating the intersection of gender and migration it shows how Albanian women are likely to embed themselves in complex social relations and migration trajectories By focusing on various cases internal international return economic and student female migrants the book underlines that migration does not follow any kind of evolutionary development according to which women go from traditional to modern gender relations By providing a compelling account on the complex negotiations and tactics women employ to deal with gender inequalities this book leads to a better understanding of gender and migration entanglements It is a useful read to students academics in migration and gender studies as well as social scientists and policy makers in European countries

Remitting, Restoring and Building Contemporary Albania Nataša Gregorič Bon, Smoki Musaraj, 2021-12-14 The edited collection is a fresh contribution to the anthropological sociological and geographical explorations of time space in Southeast Europe and Albania in particular By delving into various levels of people's daily lives such as literature relation to the environment the urbanization process art photography trauma and remembering processes of modernity the volume vividly portrays various realms that are lived and perceived It largely builds on the premise that structural resemblances of the past continuously reappear in particular social and cultural moments and seek to restore and build the individual and collective lives in contemporary Albania

Pediatric Palliative Care: Global Perspectives Caprice Knapp, Vanessa Madden, Susan Fowler-Kerry, 2012-01-02 The first of its kind this book describes pediatric palliative care in more than 23 countries Each region in the world is covered and countries included are both resource poor and rich Authors are multidisciplinary and regarded nationally and internationally in their field Clinicians advocates policymakers funders and researchers will learn how programs were developed and implemented in each country Authors describe children for whom pediatric palliative care is needed and provided for in their country When applicable a brief history of pediatric palliative care is included noting especially policy changes and legislative acts For example the chapter on Poland describes how pediatric palliative care grew from the Catholic church into a national movement spearheaded by several health care workers The Pole national spirit that brought them through a change in political regime has also been a driving force in the pediatric palliative care movement The chapter on South Africa for example illustrates how a resource poor country has been able to leverage philanthropic and government funding to make its dream of having an infrastructure of pediatric palliative care a reality These are just a few examples of the inspiring stories that are included in this book Readers from countries who wish to start a pediatric palliative care program or advance an existing program will learn valuable lessons from others who have faced similar barriers Introduction and concluding chapters highlight the strengths and weaknesses of the modern pediatric palliative care movement

Ethnobotany and Biocultural Diversities in the Balkans Andrea Pieroni, Cassandra L. Applied Afro-Communitarian Ethics and Foreign Armed Intervention Danny Singh,2024-10-10 Just war theory concerns the morality of engaging in warfare the conduct in war and justice including democratization and reconstruction in the aftermath to end war The morality of war can be measured from a variety of military and philosophical ethics that include theological consequentialist and realist schools of thought Various military interventions such as Bosnia Afghanistan and Iraq have been analyzed and evaluated and criticized from a Western and especially liberal point of view In this book Danny Singh addresses foreign interventions from a different normative paradigm Namely he addresses the morality of foreign military interventions in light of Afro communitarianism a dominant philosophical approach in sub Saharan Africa According to Afro communitarianism positive communal relationships social harmony are the greatest good that can be achieved to form friendship which can be understood as the combination of shared identity and goodwill Even though Afro communitarianism prioritizes peaceful communal relations enmity behavior and violence are morally permissible if it either leads to a less disharmonious state of affairs or to a harmonious state of affairs or there are no friendly alternatives to achieve any of both desired outcomes but the initiator of conflict desires to promote them Moreover Afro communitarianism prescribes dialogue as a guiding action to avoid military conflict The book provides an alternative and non Western approach to the morality of war and efforts to promote sustainable peace in the aftermath of conflict between warring belligerent parties      Albania--China's Beachhead in Europe Harry Hamm,1963

The Top Books of the Year Albania Who Cares The Exclusive Inside Story The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Albania Who Cares The Exclusive Inside Story : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Albania Who Cares The Exclusive Inside Story : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Albania Who Cares The Exclusive Inside Story : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
