Alchemy in a Modern Woman Robert Grinnell,1973 Alchemy in a modern woman Robert Grinnel,1973

Psychotherapy, the Alchemical Imagination and Metaphors of Substance Alan Bleakley,2023-07-04 Alchemy is popularly viewed as a secret way of turning worthless base metal into gold and then a precursor to modern chemistry This is often taken as a metaphor for psychological development This book describes an innovative third way for both the education and exercise of an alchemical imagination that embraces both material matters and psychological insight alchemy as lyrical poetics or the intensive production of embodied metaphor Alchemy here is viewed as an immanent set of metaphor driven best practices for indwelling complex and contradictory earthly matters in a sensual artistic and humane manner Or again it describes best psychotherapeutic practice Alchemy is read not as a medium for personal growth but optimal co existence with the natural world It is an eco logical rather than ego logical project with deep aesthetic concerns education of the senses in close noticing and political intentions a democracy of worldly things The book echoes post Freudian developments in psychoanalysis that avoid the mysticism of symbol systems to work rather with everyday signs and linguistic registers such as embodied metaphors keeping the focus on known and sensed phenomena rather than abstractions Jungian Psychology in Perspective

Mary Ann Mattoon,1985 The Alchemical Mercurius Mathew Mather,2014-03-05 The figure of the alchemical Mercurius features ubiquitously and radically in Jung s later works but despite this there has been little research concerning Mercurius in Jungian studies to date In this book Mathew Mather explores the figure of the alchemical Mercurius and contextualises and clarifies its significance in Jung s life and works Placing the alchemical Mercurius as a central concern reveals a Jungian interpretation in which the grail legend alchemy and precessional astrology as three thematic threads converge In such a treatment Jung s belief in the dawning of a new platonic month emerges as a central consideration and an esoteric perspective on Jung s life and works is brought more fully to light constructing a life myth interpretation The book is comprised of three parts Aurea Catena locating the figure of the alchemical Mercurius within the Western esoteric tradition Daimonic Encounter the relevance of this figure in Jung s personal life Magnum Opus Jung s portrayal of this figure in key texts such as Synchronicity Aion Mysterium Coniunctionis and Emma Jung and von Franz s The Grail Legend The Alchemical Mercurius is a unique contribution to analytical psychology substantially revealing esoteric Jung and providing valuable perspectives on the theme of his myth for our times The book will appeal to researchers and academics in the field of analytical psychology as well as postgraduate students A Midsummer Night's Dream:

Shakespeare's Syzygy of Meaning , Jungian Archetypes in 20th Century Women's Fiction Lorelei Cederstrom,2002

With this the beginning of the new millennium and in the aftermath of the many hundred best lists of the outstanding contributions to culture in the past century Dr Cederstrom was struck with the difference between such lists as they would have been written at the turn of the century and those written of late It is evident that best books like the literary canon itself

Jungian Thought in the Modern World Elphie Christopher, Hester Solomon, 2000

C G Jung 1875 1961 was a man of the millennium His personal history parallels the history of the last century and is especially relevant to the current movement where themes not only from the last century but also the last millennium are being gathered in anticipation of the new era Jung's life and work touch on the past century's two major themes on the one hand the discovery and mapping of the unconscious an internal source of creativity and destruction for each individual and on the other hand those outbreaks of dreadful violence and expressions of awesome creativity that can erupt from within the unconscious of humankind as a whole

The Bonding of Will and Desire Joanne Stroud, 1994 Over many centuries philosophers theologians and poets have been fascinated by the interplay of will and desire in the human psyche Does will follow or precede desire How can we bond them and thus unite body soul and spirit in harmonic concord For fresh insights to these age old questions Dr Joanne Stroud enlists the tools of modern psychology Her eclectic probe of basic human drives moves from the awesome power of Eros the great liberator of antiquity through the impact of the monotheistic faiths on will and desire and finally to the discordant views of the great philosophers and psychologists of the modern era among them Nietzsche Freud Jung and the little known but magnetic Frenchman Gaston Bachelard Love and will human aspirations and desires are caught the author concludes in a whirlwind of change with impersonal scientific data supplanting the myths the ancient lore the stories rich in imagery that previously contoured human behavior As a result we live in W B Yeats's famous phrase in the age of disordered will In the twentieth century will became recognized only in its more conscious applications as almost synonymous with ego With this increasing reverence for the strong ego will was elevated by psychologists among many others to new egotistical summits as a potent tool of power The more subtle aspects of will such as the way it delineates identity have been neglected the author contends and can only be recaptured by an understanding of how will becomes bonded to desire

The Animalizing Imagination A.

Bleakley,1999-11-26 Animals appear not just as biological creatures but as vehicles of meaning for human imagination mind and culture Animal life may form the basis for an animalizing imagination that can enhance our cultural religious and aesthetic sensibilities This imagination is rooted in the pre modern affective relationship between shamans and their familiars but can be tracked to our post modern ecological crisis where we can reclaim a totemic identification with animals as signifiers of a new ecological understanding The Woman in the Mirror Claire Douglas,1990 This is an extensive study of the history and literature of Jungian psychology especially in relation to women s psychology Dr Douglas shows how 20th century psychology viewed the feminine most often as other the shadow realm for man s projections for the uncanny the ambiguous and the immature She recovers heretofore forgotten theory and writers who hold a fairer and more healing view
