Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Senate, 1874 Additions to the Library Boston Athenaeum, 1887 Lost Enlightenment S. Frederick Starr, 2015-06-02 The forgotten story of Central Asia's enlightenment its rise fall and enduring legacy In this sweeping and richly illustrated history S Frederick Starr tells the fascinating but largely unknown story of Central Asia's medieval enlightenment through the eventful lives and astonishing accomplishments of its greatest minds remarkable figures who built a bridge to the modern world Because nearly all of these figures wrote in Arabic they were long assumed to have been Arabs In fact they were from Central Asia drawn from the Persianate and Turkic peoples of a region that today extends from Kazakhstan southward through Afghanistan and from the easternmost province of Iran through Xinjiang China Lost Enlightenment recounts how between the years 800 and 1200 Central Asia led the world in trade and economic development the size and sophistication of its cities the refinement of its arts and above all in the advancement of knowledge in many fields Central Asians achieved signal breakthroughs in astronomy mathematics geology medicine chemistry music social science philosophy and theology among other subjects They gave algebra its name calculated the earth's diameter with unprecedented precision wrote the books that later defined European medicine and penned some of the world's greatest poetry One scholar working in Afghanistan even predicted the existence of North and South America five centuries before Columbus Rarely in history has a more impressive group of polymaths appeared at one place and time No wonder that their writings influenced European culture from the time of St Thomas Aquinas down to the scientific revolution and had a similarly deep impact in India and much of Asia Lost Enlightenment chronicles this forgotten age of achievement seeks to explain its rise and explores the competing theories about the cause of its eventual demise Informed by the latest scholarship yet written in a lively and accessible style this is a book that will surprise general readers and specialists alike

Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus
Wolfgang Behn, 2006-03-01 This second of the three volume Who's Who in Islamic Studies presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus the author Wolfgang Behn Berlin has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980 This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies It enables the user to quickly gain knowledge on the life work and professional background of almost every major and minor author and thus to place each author in his/her proper perspective A tremendous achievement and a true must for every library

A Critique of the Origins of Islamic Economic Thought Mohammed Yassine Essid, 2021-11-22 The possible indebtedness of political economy to fourth century Greek thinkers has been widely debated the contribution of Islam on the other hand is consistently forgotten This volume addresses this neglect by examining in three parts the following questions Is there a school of economic thought that can be considered specifically Arab or have the Arabs succeeded in combining the Greek heritage with other more oriental currents Muslim economic thought has enriched the Hellenic contribution to economic thought in the areas of government of the kingdom by the caliph of the city and the household organisation the Arab concept of tadbir should be examined in relation to each of these three levels In rejecting profit usury egoism and monopoly and in preaching moderation altruism the practice of fair prices and unselfishness Islam inaugurated an economic system which has derived from that of the Greeks and which laid the basis for pre capitalist thought
