Aled The Autobiography:

Aled: the Autobiography Aled Jones, Doctoral Candidate in Celtic Languages and Literatures Aled Jones, Darren Henley, 2013-02-01 Honest revealing heartwarming and quietly humorous Aled Jones has an amazing story to tell A household name from a young age Aled has been successfully involved in many aspects of the media and entertainment industry over the last 20 years not to mention selling several million albums Aled Aled JONES, 2002 How High Should Boys Sing? Martin Ashley, 2016-04-29 A boy sings a beautiful thing www.boychoirs.org but is it What kinds of boy singing what kinds of music and to whom Martin Ashley presents a unique consideration of boys singing that shows the high voice to be historically culturally and physiologically more problematic even than is commonly assumed Through Ashley's extensive conversations with young performers and analysis of their reception by peer audiences the research reveals that the common supposition that boys don't want to sound like girls is far from adequate in explaining the missing males syndrome that can perplex choir directors The book intertwines the study of singing with the study of identity to create a rich resource for musicians scholars teachers and all those concerned with young male involvement in music through singing The conclusions of the book will challenge many attitudes and unconsidered positions through its argument that many boys actually want to sing but are discouraged by a failure of the adult world to understand the boy mind Ashley intends the book to stand as an indictment of much complacency and myopia with regard to the young male voice A substantial grant from the Arts and Humanities Research Council has enabled the production of a multi media resource for schools choirs and youth organizations called Boys Keep Singing Based on the contents of this book the resource shows how once the interest of boys is captured in primary schools their singing can be sustained and developed through the difficult but vital early secondary years of ages 11-14 about which this book says so much The resource is lavishly illustrated by short films of boys singing supported by interviews with boys and their teachers and a wealth of animated diagrams and cartoons It is available to schools and organizations involved in musical education through registration at www.boyskeepsinging.com Aled Jones - My Story Aled Jones, 2013-10-17 Aled Jones was a choirboy with a remarkable voice whose prodigious talent propelled him to international stardom Before he was sixteen he had already sold more than six million records and had become a fixture on television and radio He has worked alongside such greats as Leonard Bernstein Andrew Lloyd Webber Sir Neville Marriner Howard Blake and Mike Oldfield Some of the high points of his early career include performances at the Hollywood Bowl and the wedding of Bob Geldof and Paula Yates as well as singing privately for the Prince and Princess of Wales Best known as a boy soprano for his hit Walking in the Air Aled tells the full story of this phenomenal record and the effect it had on his life Always refreshingly honest and self-effacing Aled reveals how he faced up to life after his voice had broken and how he carved out a new career for himself on stage record television and radio His story begins with his idyllic childhood on the Welsh island of Anglesey and his years as a chorister at Bangor Cathedral during which his family provided wonderful support and encouragement as he rose to fame He tells of his studies at the Royal Academy of Music and the Bristol Old Vic Theatre School and delves behind the scene of some of Britain's best known institutions such as Songs of Praise BBC Wales and Classic FM Aled reveals the truth about the man behind the music in this frank heartwarming and funny account of his life El Bandito - The Autobiography of Orig Williams Orig Williams Williams, Martyn, 2013-09-03 Orig Williams better known as international wrestler El Bandito was a fierce nationalist a friend of poets gangsters and psychopathic wrestlers He was once stoned by a crowd in the packed Lahore Cricket ground in Pakistan and in Turkey the crowd burnt down the stadium where he'd just finished performing Aled Jones - Signed Jones Aled, 2013-11-21 Autobiographical Sketches Annie Besant, 2009-07-13 Annie Wood Besant 1847-1933 was a problematic and notorious figure in Victorian England questioning and then breaking from the Anglican Church to become an atheist women's rights advocate and Freethinker As editor of her own journal Our Corner she responded to inquiries about her life experiences by serializing her life story which was published in 1885 After providing a vivid account of her trial along with Charles Bradlaugh for the right to publish birth control literature Besant recounts her heartbreaking trial for custody of her daughter With a critical and historical introduction by Carol Hanbery MacKay this Broadview Edition includes comparative passages from An Autobiography written in 1893 after Besant's conversion to Theosophy Contemporary reviews excerpts from publications about issues such as Socialism and trade unionism and additional examples of Besant's writing about secularism and labour reform are also included Memoir and Identity in Welsh Patagonia Geraldine Lublin, 2017-05-15 This literary investigation of identity construction in twentieth century Welsh Patagonia breaks new ground by looking at the Welsh community in Chubut not as a quaint anomaly but in its context as an integral part of Argentina Its focus is on historicising and problematising the adoption of the so-called Welsh feat as foundational narrative for Chubut and its settler colonial implications in the larger settler colonial formation that is Argentina where indigenous re-emergence seems to be leading the way towards real pluralism Exploring the understudied period immediately preceding the celebrated turn of the century revitalisation Memoir and Identity in Welsh Patagonia presents four memoirs written in Welsh and Spanish by Welsh Patagonian descendants read against the grain to foreground the tensions dissonances and ambivalences emerging from the individual narratives The study then probes the romanticised stereotype of the Welsh descendant so prevalent in media representations in order to describe a broader richer panorama of what it means to be a Welsh descendant in Patagonia in a modern Argentine context Aled's Book of Blessings for 2026 Aled Jones, 2025-09-25 Drawing on spiritual wisdom across the ages from ancient times to the modern day as well as across diverse cultures Aled has compiled this Book of Blessings to ground and inspire you each day in 2026 celebrating special events anniversaries and fun facts that this year brings With Aled's friendly stories anecdotes and unique insight into classical music he introduces a composer and classical work to inspire us for each month of the year Charming line drawing illustrations decorate the page and journaling space allows the reader to respond to what they are reading by either making notes or with a drawing of their own A book that is perfect as a gift for mum or dad it is perfect to dip in and out of during the year and will be a favourite treasure trove of wisdom for all who love watching Aled on BBC TV or listen to his inspiring show on Classic FM

For Women, For Wales and For

Liberalism Ursula Masson, 2010-02-01 This book explores the neglected history of women who were active in Liberal politics campaigning for women's rights the vote and a full role for women in Welsh public life at the end of the nineteenth century and before the First World War The overarching argument of the book is that Welsh women's Liberal politics was distinctive in its attempt to integrate an understanding of Liberalism which they shared with their English counterparts and which included the aim of full equality for women with a distinctively Welsh political agenda and constructions of Welsh national identity These constructions sometimes included a positive view of women in the nation but in times of political crisis redefined gender on a more reactionary model

Behind the Scenes Angela John, 2025-06-13 Philip Burton 1904-95 is best remembered as the schoolmaster responsible for training and transforming his pupil Richard Jenkins into Richard Burton world famous star of stage and screen Together they produced a remarkable symbiosis The stage struck Philip Burton was present behind the scenes for the rest of the actor s life intervening at crucial moments to ensure consummate stage performances in for example Coriolanus Hamlet and Camelot This biography drawing upon a number of previously unseen sources provides a fresh angle on this compelling story And by placing Philip Burton s story centre stage a remarkable figure also emerges in his own right In a life that virtually spanned the twentieth century he demonstrated resilience and transatlantic triumph against the odds Like his best known prot g he was born into an impoverished south Wales mining family Alongside teaching he acted wrote and produced plays and in 1945 with wireless at its height he became a BBC radio producer He worked on almost 200 radio programmes encouraging newcomers and producing work by Dylan Thomas He wrote scripts for the fledgling television and penned its first soap Reinventing himself in the mid 1950s Philip Burton moved to the United States where after dabbling in the film industry and working as a theatre director he became the inspirational first director of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York He took American citizenship and travelled across the States delivering sparkling Shakespearean lecture recitals He published five books living in Key West Florida from the 1970s Philip Burton died in 1995 aged ninety his expertise and encouragement having enabled numerous aspiring actors and writers to flourish on both sides of the Atlantic
