Living Age John Holmes Agnew, Walter Hilliard Bidwell, 1854 The Oxford Companion to Fairy Tales Jack Zipes, 2015 This Oxford companion provides an authoritative reference source for fairy tales exploring the tales themselves both ancient and modern the writers who wrote and reworked them and related topics such as film art opera and even advertising In the Beginning Were Stories, Not Texts C S Song, 2012-08-30 According to Song the Christian faith is deeply rooted in storytelling stories are the most basic mode of human communication and in the same idea the Christian Bible is fundamentally a story Though Song regrets the fact that Christians and above all Christian theologians so often fail to express their faith in term of stories Christian theology is most often expressed in terms of concepts ideas and systems Following the conviction that this is the most appropriate way to express our faith the proposal of this book is to speak of Christian faith and theology through stories rather than systems and texts Negotiating Borderlines in Four Contemporary Migrant Writers from the Middle East Petya Tsoneva Ivanova, 2018-10-23 The book considers the persistent tendency to represent the Middle East as a region enclosed in less permeable boundaries This perspective of enclosure haunts Middle Eastern Studies and is part of ongoing cultural debates on cross border circulation currently challenged by spectacular outbursts of violence along resurfacing lines of division This critical study analyses selected works of four contemporary Anglophone migrant writers from the Middle East namely Rabih Alameddine Diana Abu Jaber Laila Halaby and Elif Shafak to demonstrate that in spite of the forceful lines that remain after religious ethnic and political disputes this region does not exist as a rigidly delimited place in the writing of migrants who reclaim it back from beyond its boundaries Rather than being a permanent location it is constructed as a place that flows into other places and is constantly reshaped by a variety of personal stories migrant trajectories departures and returns
