Albania From Isolation Toward Reform:

Albania : from isolation toward reform Mario I. Blejer,1992 East-Central European Economies in Transition John P. Hardt,Richard F. Kaufman,2016-09-16 This volume makes JEC commissioned expert studies of economic developments in East Central Europe available to business people educators and students Coverage includes economic political and social reform issues regional relations and the impact of Western assistance programmes The Rise and Fall of the Pyramid Schemes in Albania Mr.Christopher J. Jarvis,1999-07-01 What lessons can be drawn from the unprecedented growth and spectacular collapse of financial pyramid schemes in Albania This paper discusses the origins of the pyramid schemes and the way the authorities handled them It also analyzes the economic effects of the pyramid schemes concluding that despite the descent into anarchy triggered by the schemes collapse their direct effects on the economy are difficult to specify and appear to have been limited Finally the paper argues that prevention of pyramid schemes is better than cure and that governments and international financial institutions should be vigilant in clamping down on frauds East-Central European Economies in Transition ,1994 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche The Social Safety Net in Albania Natasha Koliadina,1996-08-01 This paper reviews the developments in the social safety net system of Albania since the beginning of its economic adjustment program in mid 1992 through the third quarter of 1995 It shows that the social safety net system was quickly reformed and that this allowed Albanian authorities to support the most needy groups of the population with income transfers Notwithstanding the low administrative costs the social safety net system is not financially sustainable Expenditures are not balanced with revenues and the gap cannot be closed in the short run Poor targeting of the benefits and administrative loopholes spur expenditures Revenue growth is hindered by low compliance with the social security contributions The paper concludes with some suggestions for addressing this issues Decentralization of the Socialist State Richard Miller Bird,Robert D. Ebel,Christine Wallich,1995-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 271 This study incorporates data from comparable surveys across five African countries Ghana Malawi Mali Senegal and Tanzania to analyze how small and micro enterprises have been positively and negatively affected by policy liberalization schemes Some grow rapidly by adapting their products while others stagnate because of import competition and increased self employment Comparisons were made between small firms with 6 to 49 workers and microenterprises with fewer than 6 The study suggests a two pronged strategy 1 to facilitate widespread participation in microenterprises broad measures are needed to lower the costs of entry generate demand for their goods and services raise the educational level and incomes of the poor and encourage informal financial institutions 2 to stimulate growth of potentially dynamic enterprises well targeted measures may be appropriate to lower the costs of entry increase access to credit and provide demand driven business services Also available in French ISBN 0 8213 3907 0 Stock No 13907 Challenges to the Swedish Welfare State Mr.Adam Bennett,Mr.J. H. Green,Mr.Robert P. Hagemann,Mr.Ramana Ramaswamy,Mr.Desmond Lachman,1995-10-06 Sweden s economy in the early 1990s has been characterized by a deep recession high unemployment a ballooning public sector budget deficit and a decline in the value of the currency developments that have raised questions about the country's capacity to sustain its comprehensive welfare state This study provides an analysis of recent economic developments in a longer term context and assesses their implications for future policies Problems of Economic and Political Transformation in the Balkans Ian Jeffries, 1996 Provides an assessment of the problems of transformation in the Balkan countries covering topics on both politics and economics The book gives an overview of the problems of transition and also country specific coverage including Albania Bulgaria Romania and the former Yugoslavia Political and Economic Liberalization Gerd Nonneman, 1996 This volume assesses the surges in the processes of democratisation and economic liberalisation and the forms they have taken Diverse country studies are used to advance the reader's understanding of the complexities of these processes The Adoption of Indirect Instruments of Monetary Policy Mr. William E. Alexander, Mr. Charles Enoch, Mr. Tomás J. T. Baliño, 1995-07-06 This paper examines the experience of implementing indirect instruments of monetary policy The experiences of country studies illustrate the variety of circumstances under which indirect instruments of monetary policy have been introduced Case Studies are presented for Chile Egypt Ghana Indonesia Mexico New Zealand and Poland IMF Staff Papers, Volume 47, No. 1 International Monetary Fund. Research Dept., 2000-01-01 This paper discusses the origins of the pyramid schemes and the way the authorities handled them The paper analyzes the economic effects of the pyramid schemes concluding that despite the descent into anarchy triggered by the schemes collapse their direct effects on the economy are difficult to specify and appear to have been limited The paper also argues that prevention of pyramid schemes is better than cure and that government and international financial institutions should be vigilant in clamping down on frauds IMF Conditionality Mr. James John, Mr. Adam Bennett, Ms. María Vicenta Carkovic S., Mr. Louis Dicks-Mireaux, Mr. Mauro Mecagni, Mr. Miguel A. Savastano, Ms. Susan Schadler, 1995-09-29 This paper is part II of a two volume study conducted as a part of the IMF's ongoing process of evaluating its lending facilities It focuses on IMF supported programs and macroeconomic performance during 1988-92 reflecting information available through the end of 1993 Part I Occasional Paper No 128 provides an overview of the principal issues and findings and distills the main message for future programs Part II presents detailed examinations of selected policy issues in five background papers Aftermath of the CFA Franc Devaluation Mr. Stéphane Cossé, Mr. Johannes Mueller, Mr. Jean Le Dem, Mr. Jean A. P. Clément, 1996-06-18 Developments in the countries of the CFA franc zone in the aftermath of the January 1994 devaluation of the CFA franc are reviewed in this paper Following a summary of the new adjustment strategy the papers describes the progress made and the difficulties encountered during 1994 and early 1995 in implementing the programs supported by use of IMF resources Albania International Monetary Fund, 1994-10-01 This paper examines developments in Albania's income distribution and poverty during the transition to a market oriented economy It pays particular attention to the impact of price liberalization on the agricultural terms of trade and production the decline in state enterprise employment emigrant remittances and social safety nets Income and consumption data produce conflicting results Based on income data including average presumptive agricultural incomes and state sector wages there is a significant rise in real income in rural areas and a decline in real income in urban areas Based on food consumption data however a large decline in urban real incomes is implausible Poverty in both the urban and the rural population was mitigated by the presence of formal social safety nets as well as informal arrangements in the form of emigrant remittances

Alternative Political Economy Models of Transition Marangos,

Dollarization in Transition Economies

Ms.Ratna Sahay,Mr.Carlos A. Végh Gramont,1995-09-01 After most restrictions on foreign currency holdings were relaxed in the early 1990s foreign currency deposits in transition economies have been increasing rapidly This paper takes a first look at the evidence on dollarization for 15 transition economies and then discusses some key conceptual and policy implications Depending on the institutional constraints foreign currency deposits as a proportion of broad money reached a peak of between 30 and 60 percent in 1992 93 Unlike what has been observed in Latin America however dollarization has fallen substantially in the aftermath of successful stabilization plans in Estonia Lithuania Mongolia and Poland Since foreign currency deposits reflect mainly a portfolio choice the fall in dollarization can be primarily attributed to higher real returns on domestic currency assets as a result of lower inflation and more market determined interest rates
