Albert Namatjira The Life And Work Of An Australian Painter:

Albert Namatjira ,1986 Biographical information about life and works chapters by J Jones D Thomas A Blackwell annotated separately Australian Art Andrew Sayers,2001 This comprehensive survey uniquely covers both Aboriginal art and that of European Australians providing a revealing examination of the interaction between the two Painting bark art photography rock art sculpture and the decorative arts are all fully explored to present the rich texture of Australian art traditions Well known artists such as Margaret Preston Rover Thomas and Sidney Nolan are all discussed as are the natural history illustrators Aboriginal draughtsmen and pastellists whose work is only now being brought to light by new research Taking the European colonization of the continent in 1788 as his starting point Sayers highlights important issues concerning colonial art and women artists in this fascinating new story of Australian art Battarbee and Namatjira Martin Edmond,2014-10-01 Battarbee and Namatjira is the biography of two artists Rex Battarbee and Albert Namatjira one white Australian from Warrnambool in Victoria the other Aboriginal of the Arrernte people from the Hermannsburg Mission south of Alice Springs From their first encounters in the early 1930s when Battarbee introduced Namatjira to the techniques of water colour painting through the period of Namatjira s popularity as a painter to the tragic circumstances leading to his death in 1959 their close relationship was to have a decisive impact on Australian art This biography illustrated with photographs makes extensive use of Battarbee s diaries for the first time to throw new light on Namatjira s life and to bring Battarbee who has been largely ignored by biographers back into focus Some of its findings will be controversial By moving between the artists and their backgrounds and looking closely at the nature of their friendship Edmond is able to portray the personal and social complexities the two men faced while at the same time illuminating larger cultural themes the treatment of the Arrernte and Indigenous people generally the influence of the Lutheran church the development of anthropology and the evolution of Australian art Conceptual Art After Modernism Robert Bailey,2025-05-30 This study provides a new interpretation of art after modernism by foregrounding the importance of conceptual thinking as a pervasive force for change in art and art history since 1950 Robert Bailey shows how distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity including race class gender and sexuality to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants rights to climate change This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope with special attention paid to Indigenous art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art Records of the South Australian Museum ,1987 The Australian People James Jupp,2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation

Gum
Ashley Hay, 2021-11-01 No matter where you look in Australia you are more than likely to see a eucalyptus tree Scrawny or majestic smooth as pearl or rough as guts they have defined a continent for millennia and shaped the possibilities and imaginations of those who live among them Australia's First Nations have long knowledge of the characters and abilities of the eucalypts And as part of the disruption wrought by colonial Australia botanists battled in a race to count classify and characterise these complex species in their own system a battle that has now spanned more than two hundred years Gum The story of eucalypts of music and matter It is a sturdy shapely book of fact animated by wonder Mark Tredinnick The Canberra Times 2002 Hay brings these peculiarly Australian trees to life describing a slice of our colonial history in the process The Sydney Morning Herald 2002 As this beautifully written and evocative book makes clear we are tied to the gum tree in ways we can't even imagine Eureka Street 2002

The Oxford Companion to Australian Literature William Henry Wilde, Joy W. Hooton, B. G. Andrews, 1994 Unique in its field exhaustive in scope the Oxford Companion to Australian Literature offers a comprehensive account of Australian writing from European settlement in 1788 to the 1990s It presents the most important achievements in the fields of fiction poetry and drama and also covers non fictional prose in journals diaries biographies and autobiographies and the impact of key historical events on Australian literature Fully revised and updated the second edition contains 500 new entries bringing the total to 3050 reflects the greater influence and volume of women's and multicultural writing and includes major new articles on crime fiction and the immigrant experience Written in clear and accessible language this major reference belongs on the shelf of every library and every lover of world literature

Australian Painting, 1788-2000 Bernard Smith, Terry E. Smith, Christopher Robin Heathcote, 2001 This is the fourth edition of the classic text first published in 1962 It discusses the achievements of all Australia's leading artists and a great many lesser known ones. It is written for those seeking a comprehensive introduction to the subject and will be valuable to students, teachers and the general reader. All facets of Australian painting are generously illustrated. The New McCulloch's Encyclopedia of Australian Art Alan McCulloch, Susan McCulloch, Emily McCulloch Childs, 2006. Widely regarded as the authoritative reference on Australian art with its extensive colour plates and 4500 entries. Fully illustrated with more than 700 images on 1200 pages. Entries include Aboriginal art, Abstractionism, art links, sculptors, photographers, craft workers and printmakers and much more. Albert Namatjira, 1986. The Oxford Companion to Aboriginal Art and Culture Margo Neale, Sylvia Kleinert, Robyne

Bancroft, 2000. A comprehensive overview covering indigenous Australian art, archaeological traditions, styles of the contact period, nineteenth century art trends and the development of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander practices.

Aboriginal Art Donna Leslie, 2008. Donna Leslie, a Post-doctoral Research Fellow at The University of Melbourne, sets out to demonstrate how Aboriginal art has questioned the assimilationist policies which prevailed in Australia from the 1930s to the 1970s. Her rigorous and sustained argument, supported by an impressive array of important visual images, reveals an extensive grasp of issues relating not only to the practice and history of art but also in fields of anthropology, ethnology and sociology. The book is a rare presentation of aspects of the history of Aboriginal art from an Aboriginal perspective and provides fresh ways of understanding Aboriginal experience. While the author acknowledges the problems faced by Aboriginal peoples, particularly those associated with the former policy of assimilation, her message is positive and encourages a deepening understanding of Aboriginal art, culture and peoples in the spirit of reconciliation. Moreover, she addresses the development of Aboriginal art in the modern Australian city as well as in the more traditional environment of the land.

Indigenous Celebrity Jennifer Adese, Robert Alexander Innes, 2021-04-09. Indigenous Celebrity speaks to the possibilities, challenges and consequences of popular forms of recognition, critically recasting the lens through which we understand Indigenous people's entanglements with celebrity. It presents a wide range of essays that explore the theoretical, material, social, cultural and political impacts of celebrity on and for Indigenous people. It questions and critiques the whitestream concept of celebrity and the very juxtaposition of Indigenous and celebrity, and casts a critical lens on celebrity culture's impact on Indigenous people. Indigenous people who willingly engage with celebrity culture or are drawn up into it enter into a complex terrain of social relations informed by layered dimensions of colonialism, racism, sexism, homophobia, transphobia and classism. Yet this reductive framing of celebrity does not account for the ways that Indigenous people's own worldviews inform Indigenous engagement with celebrity culture or rather popular social and cultural forms of recognition. Indigenous Celebrity reorients conversations on Indigenous celebrity towards understanding how Indigenous people draw from nation-specific processes of respect and recognition while at the same time navigating external assumptions and expectations. This collection examines the relationship of Indigenous people to the concept of celebrity in past, present and ongoing contexts identifying commonalities tensions and possibilities Spinning the Dream Anna Haebich,2008-03-01 In Spinning the Dream multi award winning historian Anna Haebich re evaluates the experience of Assimilation in Australia providing a meticulously researched and masterfully written assessment of its implications for Australia s Indigenous and ethnic minorities and for immigration and refugee policy The Cultural Value of Trees Jeffrey Wall,2022-06-01 This volume focuses on the tree as a cultural and biological form and examines the concept of folk value and its implications for biocultural conservation Folk value refers to the value of the more than human living world to cultural cohesion and survival as opposed to individual well being This field of value comprising cosmological aesthetic eco erotic sentimental mnemonic value and much more serves as powerful motivation for the local performance of environmental care The motivation to maintain and conserve ecology for the purpose of cultural survival will be the central focus of this book as the conditions of the Anthropocene urgently require the identification understanding and support of enduring self perpetuating biocultural associations The geographical scope is broad with chapters discussing different tree species from the Americas and the Caribbean East Asia Eurasia and Australia and Africa By focusing on the tree one of the most reliably cross culturally valued and cross culturally recognized biological forms and one which invariably defines expansive landscapes this work illuminates how folk value binds the survival of more than human life forms with the survival of specific peoples in the era of biocultural loss the Anthropocene As such this collection of cross cultural cases of tree folk value represents a low hanging fruit for the larger project of exploring the power of cultural value of the more than human living world This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation biodiversity biocultural studies and environmental anthropology Australian News Summary ,1946
