Albert Tales The:

Cousin Albert's Tales & Stories for His Young Friends. [With Illustrations.] Cousin Albert, 1860 The Seduction of the Occult and the Rise of the Fantastic Tale Dorothea E. von Mücke, 2003 This book examines the early development of the fantastic tale through the works of the German romantics Ludwig Tieck Achim von Arnim and E T A Hoffmann the subsequent French rediscovery of the genre in works by Thophile Gautier and Prosper Merimee and Edgar Allan Poe's contributions to the literary form Illustrations of a Poetical Character: in Six Tales. With Other Poems Illustrations, 1816 The Prioress's Tale Geoffrey Chaucer, 1987 Part Twenty Of all Chaucer's tales in the Canterbury Group The Prioress's Tale of the Virgin Mary and the murdered child ranks among the most popular and surely the most admired for its artistry Nonetheless it has encountered its fair share of somewhat hostile criticism on purely social and cultural grounds owing in part to a negative evaluation of the Prioress herself she is seen by some as a shallow person who does not recognize the harmful implications of her utterances in part to the anti Semitic cast of the tale Beverly Boyd's tough minded crisp approach to the tale enables her to present an overview of the great diversity of scholarship in both the sympathetic and hostile approaches to the work to examine its strongest ingredients the liturgical borrowings that form a kind of subtext and thus to offer a balanced view of one of Chaucer's most carefully crafted poems Her examination of the sources and analogues of Miracles of the Virgin of considerations of style and structure along with a full treatment of the textual tradition of the Prioress's Sequence and an unusually full corpus of explanatory notes taken together provide a rich and complete edition of the tale one that will prove to be of exceptional value for the teacher and the scholar Dusty and Albert's Beaver Tales G Daniell, 2009-07-25 This tale of Dusty and Albert follow the two beavers in their efforts to overcome the economic recession and find acceptance in the world Through it all persistence and friendship guide them in the adventure called life A Horse's Tale Nancy Luenn, 1989 A wooden toy horse passed from child to child introduces us to ten children who lived in ten different decades and different parts of Washington state Starting with an 11 year old on an 1890s wheat farm this book describes the everyday life of a Native American girl sent away to boarding school a logger's son who conquers his fear of heights a polio victim who meets President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and a Laotian immigrant settling into an American school Includes a glossary of ethnic and historical terms A useful supplement to standard Washington state history texts A Bishop's Tale Craig Harline, Eddy Put, 2008-10-01 This absorbing book takes us back to the busy colorful world of a Netherlandish Catholic bishop and his flock during the age of Reformation It is drawn from a rare journal one of many kept by Mathias Hovius from 1596 to 1620 while he was Archbishop of Mechelen part of modern Belgium Elegantly written the book focuses not only on the life of Mathias Hovius but also on key events and characters of his time it portrays lived religion so that we see people from all sides getting involved in the constant negotiation of what it meant to be a good Catholic Craig Harline and Eddy Put recreate the eventful life and times of Mathias Hovius a world in which other believers were outright heretics the nagging fevers of old age were the result of unbalanced bodily humors and a corruptible earth rested motionless at the center of the universe while God sat exalted on a throne just beyond the fixed stars The authors also tell the stories of monks nuns priests millers pilgrims peasant women saints town and village councils and ordinary parishioners each story fascinating in its own right illustrates a major theme in the history of the Catholic Reformation In the end Harline and Put have painted a picture teeming with life and energy Barnadiston. El-Shamy,1995 Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan,2002 In Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Ren e Hulan disputes the notion that the north is a source of distinct collective identity for Canadians Through a synthesis of critical historical and theoretical approaches to northern subjects in literary studies she challenges the epistemology used to support this idea By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state
