Twentieth-century Modern Masters Sabine Rewald, 1989 Published in conjunction with the exhibition held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art NYC Dec 1989 Apr 1990 The last great private collection of the art of the School of Paris 81 paintings drawings and bronzes by Bonnard Braque Dali Dubuffet Matisse Miro Picasso and Giacometti among others With accompanying essays and additional illustrations a total of 281 95 in color 10x12 1/4 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Albert Camus's "The New Mediterranean Culture" Neil Foxlee, 2010 This book was shortlisted for the R H Gapper prize 2011 On 8 February 1937 the 23 year old Albert Camus gave an inaugural lecture for a new Maison de la culture or community arts centre in Algiers Entitled La nouvelle culture mediterrannee The New Mediterranean Culture Camus's lecture has been interpreted in radically different ways while some critics have dismissed it as an incoherent piece of juvenilia others see it as key to understanding his future development as a thinker whether as the first expression of his so called Mediterranean humanism or as an early indication of what is seen as his essentially colonial mentality These various interpretations are based on reading the text of The New Mediterranean Culture in a single context whether that of Camus's life and work as a whole of French discourses on the Mediterranean or of colonial Algeria and French discourses on that country By contrast this study argues that Camus's lecture and in principle any historical text needs to be seen in a multiplicity of contexts discursive and otherwise if readers are to understand properly what its author was doing in writing it Using Camus's lecture as a case study the book provides a detailed theoretical and practical justification of this multi contextualist approach      Camus Conor Cruise O'Brien, 1970      The Existentialist Reader Paul S. MacDonald, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      The Atheist's Creed Michael Palmer, 2010-10-29 In The Atheist's Creed a prominent and widely read contemporary philosopher Dr Michael Palmer presents the most comprehensive anthology of the major philosophical arguments for atheism now before the public While the so called new atheism of Richard Dawkins and others has attracted considerable publicity it is these philosophical arguments that have down the ages provided the principal landmarks in the unfolding and increasingly widespread belief that no God exists Using a combination of extracts detailed introductions biographies and extensive bibliographies the author guides the reader through the history of atheism from the time of the early Greeks down to the present day In this analysis particular attention is given to the writings of Hume Nietzsche Marx and Freud The Atheist's Creed requires no specialist knowledge of philosophy Each chapter is structured around a single theme and the various authors coordinated to allow the full force of the particular atheistic argument to emerge The result is a compelling and powerful assessment of the case for atheism which will be essential and fascinating reading for student and non student alike and for all those concerned with the fundamental question whether or not there is a God      Dark Feelings, Grim Thoughts Robert C. Solomon, 2006-07-27 In the same spirit as his most recent book Living With Nietzsche and his earlier study In the Spirit of Hegel Robert Solomon turns to the existential thinkers Albert Camus and Jean Paul Sartre in an attempt to get past the academic and political debates and focus on what is truly interesting and valuable about their philosophies Solomon makes the case that despite their very different responses to the political questions of their day Camus and Sartre were both fundamentally moralists and their philosophies cannot be understood apart from their deep ethical commitments He focuses on Sartre's early pre 1950 work and on Camus's best known novels The Stranger The Plague and The Fall Throughout Solomon makes the important point that their shared interest in phenomenology was much more important than their supposed affiliation with existentialism Solomon's reappraisal will be of interest to anyone who is still or ever has been fascinated by these eccentric but monumental figures

The Enigma of Good and Evil: The Moral Sentiment in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2006-08-27 Striking toward peace and harmony the human being is ceaselessly torn apart in personal social national life by wars feuds inequities and intimate personal conflicts for which there seems to be no respite Does the human condition in interaction with others imply a constant adversity Or is this conflict owing to an interior or external factor of evil governing our attitudes and conduct toward the other person To what criteria should I refer for appreciation judgment direction concerning my attitudes and my actions as they bear on the well being of others At the roots of these questions lies human experience which ought to be appropriately clarified before entering into speculative abstractions of the ethical theories and precepts Literature which in its very gist dwells upon disentangling in multiple perspective the peripeteia of our life experience offers us a unique field of source material for moral and ethical investigations Literature brings preeminently to light the Moral Sentiment which pervades our life with others our existence tout court Being modulated through the course of our experiences the Moral Sentiment sustains the very sense of literature and of personal human life Tymieniecka
