Centennial Sourcebook on Selected Juvenile Justice Literature, 1900-1999 John C. Watkins, 2001 This is a research reference work in juvenile justice literature spanning the twentieth century It is intentionally selective given the massive volume of printed matter that has accumulated in this field since 1900 The main indexes include Part One Book Index Part Two General Periodical Index Part Three Legal Periodical Index Part Four Secondary Source Index and Part Five Government Publications and Miscellaneous Index While not fully exhaustive Watkins provides the scholar jurist practitioner student or general investigator a broad entree into the literature of juvenile justice from the early years of the juvenile court up to and including the significant changes in juvenile law and practice during the last tumultuous decade of the twentieth century It is transdisciplinary in content focusing attention on the numerous fields that have contributed to the literary tapestry in juvenile law over ten decades

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000

Social Problems James M. Henslin, 2000 This theoretically balanced text provides the latest research findings and a consistent structure to help students analyze major social problems facing the United States Henslin presents both sides of an argument with a neutral voice and has a down to earth writing style When students complete this text not only do they gain a sociological understanding of social problems but also they are able to explore and evaluate their own opinions about specific social problems They will gain a greater awareness of the social forces that shape their orientations to social problems and their perspectives on social life The ideas in this book then can penetrate students thinking and give shape to their views of the world
