Of Art:

The Vulgarization of Art Linda C. Dowling, 1996      Essays on the Nature of Art Eliot Deutsch, 1996-11-01 In this newest book the author presents a theory of art which is at once universal in its general conception and historically grounded in its attention to aesthetic practices in diverse cultures The author argues that especially today art not only enjoys a special kind of autonomy but also has important social and political responsibilities Deutsch posits that an art work has as its intentionality the striving to be aesthetically forceful meaningful and beautiful with each of these dimensions culturally situated Working from traditional imitation and expression theories he argues that the manner of an artwork s coming into being and one s experience of it constitutes an integral whole Selected aspects of painting poetry dance architecture films and music are offered to deepen an understanding of the concepts presented Also included are several inter connected themes focusing on the difficult and controversial issues of interpreting art truth in art and the relations between art and morality and art and religion      Contemporary Perspectives on the Detection, Investigation and Prosecution of Art Crime Dr Saskia Hufnagel, Professor Duncan Chappell, 2014-10-28 In the world of law enforcement art and antiquity crime has in the past usually assumed a place of low interest and priority That situation has now slowly begun to change on both the local and international level as criminals encouraged in part by the record sums now being paid for art treasures are now seeking to exploit the art market more systematically by means of theft fraud and looting In this collection academics and practitioners from Australasia Europe and North America combine to examine the challenges presented to the criminal justice system by these developments Best practice methods of detecting investigating prosecuting and preventing such crimes are explored This book will be of interest and use to academics and practitioners alike in the areas of law crime and justice      Islamic Arms and Armor in The Metropolitan Museum of Art David G. Alexander, 2015-12-31 Armor and weaponry were central to Islamic culture not only as a means of conquest and the spread of the faith but also as symbols of status wealth and power The finest arms were made by master craftsmen working with the leading designers goldsmiths and jewelers whose work transformed utilitarian military equipment into courtly works of art This book reveals the diversity and artistic quality of one of the most important and encyclopedic collections of its kind in the West The Metropolitan Museum s holdings span ten centuries and include representative pieces from almost every Islamic culture from Spain to the Caucasus The collection includes rare early works among them the oldest documented Islamic sword and is rich in helmets and body armor decorated with calligraphy and arabesques that were worn in Iran and Anatolia in the late fifteenth century Other masterpieces include a jeweled short sword yatagan with a blade of watered steel that comes from the court of S leyman the Magnificent a seventeenth century gold inlaid armor associated with Shah Jahan and two gold inlaid flintlock firearms belonging to the guard of Tipu Sultan of Mysore Presenting 126 objects each handsomely photographed and richly documented with a detailed description and discussion of its technical historical and artistic importance this overview of the Met s holdings is supplemented by an introductory essay on the formation of the collection and appendixes on iconography and on Turkman style armor

End-of-Art Philosophy in Hegel, Nietzsche and Danto Stephen Snyder, 2018-11-04 This book examines the little understood end of art theses of Hegel Nietzsche and Danto The end of art claim is often associated with the end of a certain standard of taste or skill However at a deeper level it relates to a transformation in how we philosophically understand our relation to the world Hegel Nietzsche and Danto each strive philosophically to overcome Cartesian dualism redrawing the traditional lines between mind and matter Hegel sees the overcoming of the material in the ideal Nietzsche levels the two worlds into one and Danto divides the world into representing and non representing material These attempts to overcome dualism necessitate notions of the self that differ significantly from traditional accounts the redrawn boundaries show that art and philosophy grasp essential but different aspects of human existence Neither perspective however fully grasps the duality The appearance of art s end occurs when one aspect is given priority for Hegel and Danto it is the essentialist lens of philosophy and in Nietzsche s case the transformative power of artistic creativity Thus the book makes the case that the end of art claim is avoided if a theory of art links the internal practice of artistic creation to all of art s historical forms

The Cult of Art in Nazi Germany Eric Michaud, Janet Lloyd, 2004 The Cult of Art in Nazi Germany presents a new interpretation of National Socialism arguing that art in the Third Reich was not simply an instrument of the regime but actually became a source of the racist politics upon which its ideology was founded Through the myth of the Aryan race a race pronounced superior because it alone creates culture Nazism asserted art as the sole raison d tre of a regime defined by Hitler as the dictatorship of genius Michaud shows the important link between the religious nature of Nazi art and the political movement revealing that in Nazi Germany art was considered to be less a witness of history than a force capable of producing future the actor capable of accelerating the coming of a reality immanent to art itself

Hegel's Grand Synthesis

Daniel Berthold-Bond,1989-01-01 This book offers the first genuinely systematic treatment of Hegel's eschatology in the literature. It is an investigation into Hegel's project to demonstrate the ultimate unity of thought and being, consciousness and reality, self and world. The author traces the project through Hegel's epistemology, metaphysics, and philosophy of history. The grand synthesis creates a basic tension, an ambivalence that reaches its most acute formulation in Hegel's eschatological language of a final completion or fulfillment of history. This conflicts with his dialectic and Heraclitean metaphysics of becoming. Berthold Bond concludes that a substantially new approach to Hegel's eschatology is needed. Impact of the
