Development in Prosodic Systems Paula Fikkert, Haike Jacobs, 2011-09-27 This book brings together papers on various aspects of prosodic development from a generative linguistic perspective It addresses issues such as the relationship between tone stress and quantity the evidence for prosodic change from metrics and discusses the role of analogy language contact and language acquisition in change The unique combination of different methodologies and perspectives investigating development in prosodic systems provides a new and broader scope on historical linguistics Islamic Finance in the Financial Markets of Europe, Asia and America Faiza Ismail, 2022-08-30 Among international financial centres IFCs London is known as the Western hub of Islamic Finance on account of its well developed legal infrastructure However Brexit has threatened London s status and consequently the financial services industry is moving to Dublin to continue operating in the Euro region Similarly Islamic finance IF service providers in the UK are also looking to Dublin for expansion of this niche area in euro member states This is the first book to be written about Islamic finance operations in the Eurozone The book offers an in depth description of International Financial Centres and the growth of Islamic Finance compares the growth of Islamic finance in London Dubai and Kuala Lumpur outlines the implications of Brexit for financial service providers in London in general and Islamic investors in particular and also presents a case study of Ireland to establish the latter as the most appropriate country to promote IF in the Eurozone The time is particularly right for a book exploring the potential of Ireland to emerge as a Eurozone hub of Islamic finance as a result of Britain s exit from Europe The book will cater to the needs of readers studying IF in the disciplines of economics business law and religion A secondary market includes practitioners such as policymakers lawyers fund managers accountants regulators and international investors who will be interested in exploring the benefits that the UK and Ireland have to offer the Islamic finance industry

Alternative Dispute Resolution in the Western Balkans Marc Bungenberg, Goran Koevski, Bianca Böhme, Ljuben Kocov, Mareike Fröhlich, Neda Zdraveva, 2025-01-30 Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR is increasingly recognized as an attractive alternative to national court proceedings especially in international business relations This open access book focuses on ADR mechanisms in one specific geographical region the Western Balkans This region comprises Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Croatia North Macedonia Montenegro Kosovo and Serbia Although these countries generally have legal frameworks for ADR mechanisms in place they remain largely underutilised in practice Promoting ADR mechanisms in the countries of the Western Balkans could make them more attractive to foreign investors thereby fostering economic growth Additionally the effective implementation of ADR mechanisms could have spill over effects on national judiciaries thereby increasing domestic rule of law standards This would be highly beneficial for the Western Balkan countries most of which are still aspiring to become Member States of the European Union EU To achieve this they are required to promote the use of ADR mechanisms and align their legal frameworks with EU standards Against this background this book aims to explore the trends and challenges of ADR in the Western Balkans The different chapters primarily focus on international commercial arbitration investment treaty arbitration and mediation Some chapters address systemic challenges such as capacity building and dispute prevention which extend to the entire region Others offer country specific analyses of particular national framework While some chapters adopt the perspective of international or EU law others remain at the national level Collectively the wide diversity in topics and perspectives provides a comprehensive overview of the trends and challenges of ADR mechanisms in the Western Balkan

Voices of Modernity Richard Bauman, Charles L. Briggs, 2003-07-03 Language and tradition have long been relegated to the sidelines as scholars have considered the role of politics science technology and economics in the making of the modern world This reading of over two centuries of philosophy political theory anthropology folklore and history argues that new ways of imagining language and representing supposedly premodern people the poor labourers country folk non europeans and women made political and scientific revolutions possible The connections between language ideologies privileged linguistic codes and political concepts and practices shape the diverse ways we perceive ourselves and others This 2003 book demonstrates that contemporary efforts to make schemes of social inequality based on race gender class and nationality seem compelling and legitimate rely on deeply rooted ideas about language and tradition Showing how critics of modernity unwittingly reproduce these foundational fictions it suggests strategies for challenging the undemocratic influence of these voices of modernity

Comparative Analysis of Interim Measures - Interim Remedies (England & Wales) v

Preservation Measures (China) Vivek Jain, Thomas Macey-Dare, Shengnan Jia, 2022-05-30 Interim remedies and provisional measures are a critical component of civil commercial litigation and arbitration The objective of this book is to set out not just the law and practice in relation to the primary interim remedies and preservation measures available in England Wales and China but also to provide the comparative analysis between the two jurisdictions concerning these interim measures The system for interim remedies in England Wales is well established but preservation measures in China are a work in progress and many differences exist between the two legal systems both in terms of theory and practice For example China does not recognise the general concept of interim measures if looked at from the English law point of view though it does have similar concepts of Property preservation evidence preservation and behaviour preservation China has recently adopted Chinese Civil Code 2020 and in writing this book the authors have incorporated all the relevant elements from the new Code There is no equivalent of Practice Directions in China and this book provides provide much needed clarity on this area drawing together the law and guidance which is presently scattered across numerous local courts in the different provinces This is an important book that is likely to have a significant impact on existing scholarship regarding interim remedies in England Wales and China and be of interest of all parties involved in cross border litigation Its readership will include industry professionals academics policy makers and government officials

The Modern Civil Process Neil Andrews, 2008 Examines court proceedings as well as settlement mediation and arbitraton

The Resolution of International Investment Disputes Mariel Dimsey, 2008 This work deals with the current state of investment dispute resolution and analyzes the problems associated with investor state arbitration The author examines developments in the existing legal framework and looks at the mechanisms under existing domestic and international systems such as judicial review and class actions to see if these can be applied to investment dispute resolution The author concludes that the features of traditional arbitration are not flexible enough to meet the needs of this modern form of international dispute resolution Investment arbitration is now entering a new phase of its development The traditional typically arbitration related issues of consent privity and confidentiality are making room for the now more important questions of disclosure transparency legal certainty and consistency The author calls for setting up a model procedure specifically created for international investment disputes as this would enable the establishment of a tailor made process for this ever growing area of law
