Of Saladin A Novel:

The Book of Saladin Tariq Ali,1999-11-17 Tariq Ali's second novel in The Islam Quintet is a rich and teeming chronicle set in twelfth century Cairo Damascus and Jerusalem The Book of Saladin Tariq Ali,2015-07-07 The Book of Saladin is the fictional memoir of Saladin the Kurdish liberator of Jerusalem as dictated to a Jewish scribe Ibn Yakub Saladin grants Ibn Yakub permission to talk to his wife and retainers so that he might present a full portrait in the Sultan's memoirs A series of interconnected stories follows tales brimming over with warmth earthy humor and passions in which ideals clash with realities and dreams are confounded by desires At the heart of the novel is an affecting love affair between the Sultan's favored wife Jamila and the beautiful Halina a later addition to the harem The novel charts the rise of Saladin as Sultan of Egypt and Syria and follows him as he prepares in alliance with his Jewish and Christian subjects to take Jerusalem back from the Crusaders This is a medieval story but much of it will be uncannily familiar to those who follow events in contemporary Cairo Damascus and Baghdad Betrayed hopes disillusioned soldiers and unrealistic alliances form the backdrop to The Book of Saladin Geo-Spatiality in Asian and Oceanic Literature and Culture Shiuhhuah Serena Chou,Soyoung Kim,Rob Sean Wilson,2022-08-04 This collection opens the geospatiality of Asia into an environmental framework called Oceania and pushes this complex regional multiplicity towards modes of trans local solidarity planetary consciousness multi sited decentering and world belonging At the transdisciplinary core of this worlding process lies the multiple spatial and temporal dynamics of an environmental eco poetics articulated via thinking and creating both with and beyond the Pacific and Asia imaginary Satire and the Postcolonial Novel John Clement Ball,2003-06-12 Satire plays a prominent and often controversial role in postcolonial fiction Satire and the Postcolonial Novel offers the first study of this topic employing the insights of postcolonial comparative theories to revisit Western formulations of satire and the satiric

The Historical Novel in Nineteenth-Century Europe Brian Hamnett,2011-11-24 Even at the height of its popularity in the early nineteenth century the historical novel faced criticism at many levels After its predominance in the 1810s and 1820s writers and historians shunned it as a travesty of their respective disciplines Even so the historical novel has frequently attracted a wide ranging public right up to the present day Brian Hamnett examines key novels by authors including Scott Balzac Manzoni Dickens Eliot Flaubert Fontane Gald's and Tolstoy revealing the contradictions inherent in this form of fiction and exposing the challenges writers faced in attempting to represent a reality that linked past and present He argues that the historical novel in the nineteenth century was a common European phenomenon with considerable interconnection of themes and periods Accordingly the book ranges from the British Isles and France through the Germanic territories Italy and Spain to the Russian Empire identifying the different objectives and phases of the historical novel Although historical novels did appear in the two previous centuries the form came to maturity in the nineteenth century a consequence of the developing nature of history as a discipline distinct from literature and philosophy and the increasing primacy of the novel for writers and the reading public Yet the frontiers between history and literature remained blurred and the two disciplines continued to influence one another as each sought a faithful representation of human experience British Asian Fiction Neil Murphy, Wai-chew Sim, 2008 In this outstanding collection of essays editors Neil Murphy and Wai chew Sim seek not so much to demarcate the field of British Asian fiction but to offer due acknowledgment of the artistic merit of the works of selected authors and simultaneously register their cultural significance This volume demonstrates in situ the virtues of commentary that engages in a substantial manner with formal and aesthetic considerations even as it implicates the discourses of alterity that dominate contemporary cultural criticism Additionally the essays delineate the complex subject positions explored by authors and texts and focus on the way writers negotiate the exigencies of their location within and between different social formations If it is the case that British literature can no longer be discussed in monocultural terms because of the impact of the writers under consideration it is also the case that the diverse trans cultural positions they explore are often less specified than proclaimed Addressing difference commensurability and form related notions of truth content these essays enlarge our understanding of the range of British and affiliated identities as well as the cultural contexts from which they arose Working as academics and critics from Singapore a useful vantage point Murphy and Sim have extended the parameters of British Asian to include not just writers from South Asia as is traditionally the case but writers whose parents or who themselves have migrated to Britain from other regions of Asia for example Japan Hong Kong and Malaysia This initiative has made it possible for professors Murphy and Sim to bring together first an interestingly varied group of authors among them those who came to prominence in the 1980s Salman Rushdie Timothy Mo Kazuo Ishiguro as well as their younger contemporaries Meera Syal Romesh Gunsekera Monica Ali Hari Kunzru Ooi Yang May and second a broad and diverse range of novels that span Timothy Mo's Sour Sweet 1982 and Tariq Ali's A Sultan in Palermo 2005 the fourth volume in his Islam quintet Migration, Trauma and Identity in Modern Indian Novels Dr. Keshav Nath, Dr. Nidhi Sharma, Drawing on a wealth of research personal stories and clinical insights this book offers a nuanced and compassionate look at the profound impact of trauma on identity It invites readers to explore the complex ways in which trauma can influence our beliefs behaviors relationships and sense of purpose as well as the challenges and opportunities that arise when we seek to reclaim our sense of self after trauma From the lasting impact of childhood abuse to the challenges of navigating cultural and societal expectations the book offers a deep and insightful exploration of the many ways in which trauma can shape identity It also offers practical tools and strategies for those who are grappling with the aftermath of trauma and for those who support them Ultimately this book is a powerful exploration of the ways in which trauma can shape our identities and our lives It is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and a call to action for greater understanding and empathy

Contemporary Pakistani Fiction in English Cara N. Cilano, 2013-04-12 Looking at a wide selection of Pakistani novels in English this book explores how literary texts imaginatively probe the past convey the present and project a future in terms that facilitate a sense of collective belonging The novels discussed cover a range of historical movements and developments including pre 20th century Islamic history the 1947 partition the 1971 Pakistani war the Zia years and post 9 11 Pakistan as well as pervasive themes including ethnonationalist tensions the zamindari system and conspiracy thinking The book offers a range of representations of how and whether collective belonging takes shape and illustrates how the Pakistani novel in English often overshadowed by the proliferation of the Indian novel in English complements Pakistani multi lingual literary imaginaries by presenting alternatives to standard versions of history and by highlighting the issues English language literary production bring to the fore in a broader Pakistani context It goes on to look at the literary devices and themes used to portray idea nation and state as a foundation for collective belonging The book illustrates the distinct contributions the Pakistani novel in English makes to the larger fields of postcolonial and South Asian literary and cultural studies

The German Historical Novel since the Eighteenth Century Daniela Richter,2016-12-14 The historical novel is a genre which has enjoyed widespread popularity in Germany from its beginnings in the eighteenth century At that time increased literacy among the middle and lower classes had resulted in a greater demand for reading material aimed at a general audience Because of its educational and entertaining characteristics the historical novel quickly became a dominant genre among other forms of popular literature To this day it constitutes a major sector on the German book market and is together with popular TV series documentaries and museum exhibits an important part of German Geschichtskultur This collection of essays looks at aesthetic and thematic continuities as well as changes in the development of the genre in Germany from the late eighteenth century to the present and gives insights into the novels political and socio cultural implications The articles investigate historical novels from writers such as Benedikte Naubert the mother of German historical fiction nineteenth century popular writers Georg Ebers and Hermann Sudermann modern writers such as Alfred Döblin Hermann Hesse and Hermann Broch post War works such as those by Thomas Brussig Christa Wolf and Ingo Schulze and contemporary historical fiction by Sabine Weigand Eveline Hasler and Petra Durst Benning

Offspring Fictions Matt Kimmich,2008-01-01 Offspring Fictions Salman Rushdie's Family Novels is the first book length study that examines families and especially the parent child relationship in Rushdie's core works It argues that Sigmund Freud's concept of the family and the author's variations thereon are central to a full understanding of the four novels Midnight's Children Shame the controversial The Satanic Verses and The Moor's Last Sigh a quasi sequel to Rushdie's first success Through close readings that make use of a variety of critical approaches Offspring Fictions provides a sustained examination of how the parents and children that people Rushdie's fictions reflect the larger issues his work is concerned with nationalism religion history and authorship Aimed primarily at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader Offspring Fictions provides a clear and insightful analysis of Rushdie's family tetralogy You Can't Please All Tariq Ali, 2024-11-05 A new memoir from renowned political activist and author of Street Fighting Years An Autobiography of the Sixties The revolutionary upsurge of 1968 1975 jump hopped continents with ease but finally petered out What happened after is the subject of You Can't Please All Tariq Ali recounts a life committed to writing and cultural interventions An eyewitness in Moscow to the fall of the Soviet Union he was caught up in the intellectual excitement that had gripped the country In Porto Alegre Hugo Chavez invited him to visit Caracas and the two men developed a striking friendship Post 2001 as a founding member of the Stop the War Coalition he became a fierce critic of the War on Terror visiting many US cities with surprising regularity to engage in debate and discussion inaugurating a new phase of political activism Evident in his work is the integral part politics plays in his life He is one of the most sought after socialist and anti imperialist public intellectuals on most continents Underlying the narrative is a chain of anecdotes reflections jottings and storytelling The book explores his work for the theatre and film as well as his fiction including the acclaimed Islam Quintet There are pen portraits of friends and comrades such as Edward Said Derek Jarman Richard Ingrams Benazir Bhutto Mary Kay Wilmers and the intellectuals who founded and relaunched New Left Review E P Thompson Perry Anderson and Robin Blackburn The book also contains a moving family portrait describing how his parents met and lived during the early years of Pakistan

Walter Scott's Books J.H. Alexander, 2017-03-16 Scott's Books is an approachable introduction to the Waverley Novels Drawing on substantial research in Scott's intertextual sources it offers a fresh approach to the existing readings where the thematic and theoretical are the norm Avoiding jargon and moving briskly it tackles the vexed question of Scott's circumbendibus style head on suggesting that it is actually one of the most exciting aspects of his fiction indeed what Ian Duncan has called the elaborately literary narrative at first sight a barrier is in a sense what the novels are primarily about The book aims to show how inventive witty and entertaining Scott's richly allusive style is how he keeps his varied readership on board with his own inexhaustible variety and how he allows proponents of a wide range of positions to have their say using a detached ironic but never cynical narrative voice to undermine the more rigid and inhumane rhetoric The Introduction outlines this approach and sets the book in the context of earlier and current Scott criticism It also deals with some practical issues including forms of reference and the distinctive use of the term Authorial The four chapters are designed to zoom in progressively from the general to the particular Resources explores the printed material available to Scott in his library and gives an overview of the way he uses it in his fiction Style confronts objections to the circumbendibus Scott and shows how his Ciceronian style with its penchant for polysyllables enables him to embrace a wide range of rhetoric relayed in a detached but not cynical Authorial voice Strategies explores how he keeps his very wide audience on board by a complex bonding between characters readers and Author and stresses the extraordinary variety of exuberant inventiveness with which he handles intertextual allusions Mottoes examines the most remarkable of Scott s intertextual devices the chapter epigraphs bringing into play the approaches developed in the previous chapters The brief concluding Envoi moves out again to the widest possible perspective suggesting how readers should now be able to move on to or return to the novels and the critical conversation with an appreciation of the central importance of the ludic for an appreciation of Scott in a world once again threatened by inhumane and humorless rigidities

The Fiction of Rushdie, Barnes, Winterson and Carter Gregory J. Robinson, 2005-08-24 Literature often reflects societal change but it can also effect change by inspiring people to think in new ways Four authors who encourage readers to question traditional boundaries are Salman Rushdie Julian Barnes Jeanette Winterson and Angela Carter This book takes an in depth look at the works of these authors with specific emphasis on how they challenge religion especially in its fundamentalist forms and its intersections with history politics gender and sexuality The study notes both differences and similarities among the four authors whose writings broadly represent the major themes in contemporary British literature Divided into two primary sections the volume first takes a look at Rushdie and Barnes and their stance regarding historical and political issues The second section concentrates on gender and sexuality in the writings of Winterson and Carter Among the works examined are Rushdie s The Satanic Verses and Midnight s Children Barnes Flaubert s Parrot and A History of the World in 10 1 2 Chapters Winterson s Boating for Beginners and Written on the Body and Carter s The Passion of New Eve and Heroes and Villains The final chapter includes a brief survey of other significant figures in postmodern British literature including Martin Amis Ian McEwan D M Thomas Fay Weldon and Emma Tennant
