Bonington Circle:

The Bonington Circle Marcia Pointon, 1985 The Bonington Circle Marcia R. Pointon, 1985 Richard Parkes Bonington Stephen Duffy, 2003 All of Bonington's paintings owned by the Wallace Collection are illustrated in this book

Journey to the Maghreb and Andalusia, 1832 Eugène Delacroix, 2019-03-27 In 1832 Eugène Delacroix accompanied a French diplomatic mission to Morocco the first leg of a journey through the Maghreb and Andalusia that left an indelible impression on the painter This comprehensive annotated English language translation of his notes and essays about this formative trip makes available a classic example of travel writing about the Orient from the era and provides a unique picture of the region against the backdrop of the French conquest of Algeria Delacroix's travels in Morocco Algeria and southern Spain led him to discover a culture about which he had held only imperfect and stereotypical ideas and provided a rich store of images that fed his imagination forever after He wrote extensively about these experiences in several stunningly beautiful notebooks noting the places he visited routes he followed scenes he observed and people he encountered Later Delacroix wrote two articles about the trip A Jewish Wedding in Morocco and the recently discovered Memories of a Visit to Morocco in which he shared these extraordinary experiences revealing how deeply influential the trip was to his art and career Never before translated into English Journey to the Maghreb and Andalusia 1832 includes Delacroix's two articles four previously known travel notebooks fragments of two additional recently discovered notebooks and numerous notes and drafts Michèle Hannoosh supplements these with an insightful introduction full critical notes appendices and biographies creating an essential volume for scholars and readers interested in Delacroix French art history Northern Africa and nineteenth century travel and culture

Bonington Malcolm Cormack, Richard Parkes Bonington, 1989 Richard Parkes Bonington 1802-28 stands as one of England's most important and prolific landscape artists ranking alongside Turner and Constable as a prime exponent of the English Romantic Movement His watercolour paintings are considered to be exemplary of the English tradition Bonington's reputation for poetic and topographical landscapes as well as for dash and brilliance earned him a renown that spanned Europe but which has mysteriously dimmed with the years This timely and unique assessment of Bonington will once again establish an appreciation of his work as a peerless artist Publisher's description Benezit Dictionary of British Graphic Artists and Illustrators Stephen Bury, 2012-06-21 This dictionary consists of over 3000 entries on a range of British artists from medieval manuscript illuminators to contemporary cartoonists Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on British graphic artists and illustrators from the 2006 Benezit Dictionary of Artists with an additional 90 revised and 60 new articles

Richard Parkes Bonington Richard Parkes Bonington, Matt Cambridge, 2002 Reading Landscape Simon Pugh, 1990 Bonington, Francia & Wyld Marcia R. Pointon, 1985 Catalogue raisonné of the works in the Victoria and Albert Museum The British Contribution to the Europe of the Twenty-First Century B. S. Rethinking British Romantic History, 1770-1845 Porscha Fermanis, John Regan, 2014-11-27 Historians and literary scholars tend to agree that British intellectual culture underwent a fundamental transformation between 1770 and 1845 Yet they are unusually divided about the nature of that transformation and whether it is best understood as an epistemic rupture from or a continuous dialogue with the long eighteenth century Rethinking British Romantic History 1770 1845 rethinks the ways in which we understand the historical writing and the historical consciousness of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain by arguing that British historicism developed largely in quasi and para historical genres such as memoir biography verse fiction and painting rather than in works of real history In a number of inter related essays on changing generic forms styles methods and standards the collection demonstrates that the aesthetic developments associated with British literary Romanticism not only intersected in mutually dependent ways with concurrent experiments and innovations in historical writing but that these intersections forced an epistemological crisis a deeply felt tension about the role of feeling and imagination in historical writing that is still resonating in historiographical debates today In exploring this theme the volume also seeks to consider wider questions about the philosophy of history and literature including questions of truth evidence professionalization disciplinary strategies and methodology At its heart is the idea that literary texts and other artistic representations of history can have historical value and should therefore be taken seriously by practitioners of history in all its forms

Hogarth and his Place in European Art Frederick Antal, 2022-11-30 First published in 1962 Hogarth and his Place in European Art attempts to convey the historical relevance both in its native and European context of perhaps the most outstanding English painter of the eighteenth century Dr Antal applies his method of establishing the close relationship between the political and social history and the arts and letters of the period Thus the book goes far beyond the limits of art historical appreciation It gives a panoramic picture of the first half of the eighteenth century in England with all its social literary and artistic connotations He shows how England which during those years became both politically and economically the most advanced country in Europe could provide in Hogarth in spite of the slender native tradition the most progressive artistic personality of his time whose work revealed the views and tastes of a broad cross section of society He traces Hogarth's stylistic origins back to their European sources and analyses his impact on contemporary European and English art as well as the influence he exerted on generations to come This book will be of interest to students of art art history literature and European history

Multiple Wives, Multiple Pleasures Joan DelPlato, 2002 This is a critical study of French and British art and written texts poetry literature travel accounts art criticism orientalist works about the harem produced in the period from 1800 1875 Original readings are provided for over 150 harem pictures from well known salon paintings to rarely published erotic popular prints and book illustrations Multiple Wives Multiple Pleasures examines these works closely often establishing fresh contexts for many of the more well known nineteenth century harem pictures and often providing a consideration of lesser known harem pictures that have been rarely published until now Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism Paul Mellon's Legacy John Baskett, Jules David Prown, Duncan Robinson, Brian Allen, William S. Reese, William J. Reese, Yale Center for British Art, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907 1999 was an unparalleled collector of British art His collection now at Yale in the museum and study center he founded to house it rivals those in Britain's national museums and is unquestionably the most comprehensive representation of British art held outside of the United Kingdom This book and the exhibition that it accompanies celebrate the centenary of his birth Five introductory essays examine Mellon's extraordinary collecting activity as well as his role in creating both the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art in London as gifts to his alma mater Yale 1929 A lavishly illustrated catalogue section showcases 148 of the most exquisite and important paintings watercolors drawings prints sculpture rare books and manuscript material in the Yale Center's collection including major works by Thomas Gainsborough Joshua Reynolds George Stubbs John Constable and J M W Turner Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1891 Mutual (In)Comprehensions Rosemary Mitchell, 2013-07-26 This collection of essays by French and British humanities scholars explores the complex relationship between the two nations in the long nineteenth century Both countries contemplated the other with admiration and anxiety using their best enemy to shape their own national identities Mutual In Comprehensions is unique in the range of its coverage which includes artistic literary economic educational social and historical interpretations interactions and appropriations British railway engineers consider the character of the French railway worker a French illustrator portrays with disturbing insight the social divisions of Victorian London British agricultural writers find cause for reflection in the condition of the French peasantry and an English Anglo Catholic considers the lessons for her church in the history of post Reformation French Catholicism French architects discover something to admire in the British Gothic Revival while geographical societies on both sides of the Channel exhibit a spirit of international co operation Including the work of both established academics and young scholars the collection demonstrates the significance of Franco British interactions over the long nineteenth century and shows that as ever British culture can only be fully understood within a Continental framework and vice versa This volume will appeal to scholars of

Victorian culture in particular French and British nineteenth century literature and art as well as to academics interested in the development of national identities and international cultural relations The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1889 Prism(s) ,1993 The East, Imagined, Experienced, Remembered James Thompson,David Scott,1988
