Bonnard At Le Cannet:

Bonnard Véronique Serrano, 2020 This project aims with the aid of a wide selection of Bonnard's masterpieces to reveal the artist's unique approach and his deep connection with his surroundings The Musée Bonnard decided to present its collection through the lens of the Mediterranean and especially of Le Cannet where the painter set up home in the early 1920s Bonnard was bowled over by the region's light which tried his heightened sense of observation and his sensitivity to their limits This exhibition which has been deliberately organised by date and theme is enhanced by more than twenty additional loans from private collections stretching from Bonnard's first posters to the final flowering of his Le Cannet paintings 0 This book is based on the catalogue published for the 150th anniversary of Bonnard's birth and expanded to include the new works on show The carefully documented texts and notes were drafted by Véronique Serrano Head Curator of the Musée Bonnard 00 Exhibition Musée Bonnard Le Cannet France 04 07 01 11 2020 Pierre Bonnard Véronique Serrano, 2017-06-09 Exhibition catalog for Pierre Bonnard Landscapes from Le Cannet at the Hilliard University Art Museum in Lafayette May 27 Aug 12 2017 This solo exhibition marks the artist's first in Louisiana and is guest curated by Véronique Serrano director of the Musée Bonnard in France It includes 17 drawings 6 paintings and a lithograph that were created late in the artist's career Primarily focusing on Bonnard's landscapes this exhibition celebrates his vision of Le Cannet which is notable not only as Bonnard's home but is uniquely distinguished as Lafayette's sister city in France Bonnard at Le Cannet Michel Terrasse, 1988 Bonnard and Le Cannet Musée Bonnard (Le Cannet), 2011 Bonnard at Le Bosquet Pierre Bonnard, 1994 Pierre Bonnard Pierre Bonnard, Nicole R. Myers, Allison Stielau, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009 The vibrant late paintings of Pierre Bonnard 1867-1947 are considered by many to be among his finest achievements Working in a small converted bedroom of his villa in the south of France Bonnard suffused his late canvases with radiant Mediterranean light and dazzling color Although his subjects were close at hand usually everyday scenes taken from his immediate surroundings such as the dining room table being set for breakfast or a jug of flowers perched on the mantelpiece Bonnard rarely painted from life Instead he preferred to make pencil sketches in small diaries and then rely on these along with his memory once in the studio This volume which accompanies the first exhibition to focus on the interior and related still life imagery from the last decades of Bonnard's long career presents more than seventy five paintings drawings and works on paper many of them rarely seen in public and in some cases little known Although Bonnard's legacy may be removed from the succession of trends that today we consider the foundation of modernism his contribution to French art in the early decades of the twentieth century is far more profound than history has generally acknowledged In their insightful essays and catalogue entries the authors bring fresh critical perspectives to the ongoing reappraisal of Bonnard's reputation and to his place within the narrative of twentieth century art Jacket Pierre Bonnard 1867-1947 Pierre Bonnard, 1969 Bonnard and the Nabis Albert Kostenevitch, 2012-05-08 Pierre Bonnard was the leader of a group of post impressionist painters who called themselves the Nabis from the Hebrew word meaning prophet Bonnard Vuillard Roussel and Denis the most distinguished of the Nabis revolutionized the spirit of decorative techniques during one of the richest periods in the history of French painting Influenced by Odilon Redon and Puvis de Chavanne by popular imagery and Japanese etchings this post impressionist group was above all a close circle of friends who shared the same cultural background and interests An increasing individualism in their art often threatened the group's unity and although tied together by a common philosophy their work clearly diverged This publication lets us compare and put into perspective the artists within this fascinating group The works presented in this collection offer a palette of extraordinary poetic expressions candid in Bonnard ornamental and mysterious in Vuillard gently dream like in Denis grim and almost bitter in Vallotton the author shares with us the lives of these artists to the very source of their creative gifts

Pierre Bonnard, the Graphic Art Pierre Bonnard, Colta Feller Ives, Helen Emery Giambruni, Sasha M. Newman, Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1989 Tintoonstellingscatalogus Met bibliografie en register A Vision of Cats and Dogs: Bonnard and Animality Véronique Serrano, 2016 Animals were a primary source of inspiration and creative stimulation for the Nabi painter Pierre Bonnard 1867 1947 the theme can be found in about a third of the 2 300 paintings created by the artist over the course of his lengthy career Ubu Ravageau Black and Almond were the names of a few of the canine companions that appear in his work his cats though never thus identified by name also frequently populate his canvases The appearance of other animals such as horses fish chickens and cows further testify to Bonnard's fundamental affection for the creature world but their presence in his paintings has never before been directly addressed This fully illustrated book examines this secret theme running throughout Bonnard's oeuvre and will prove a delightful revelation for fans of the intimiste master

The Annenberg Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Colin B. Bailey, 2009 The Walter and Leonore Annenberg Collection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist paintings watercolors and drawings constitutes one of the most remarkable groupings of avant garde works of art from the mid 19th to the early 20th century ever given to The Metropolitan Museum of Art A revised and expanded edition of the 1989 publication Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post Impressionism The Annenberg Collection this volume presents more than fifty masterworks by such luminaries as Manet Degas Morisot Renoir Monet Cezanne Gauguin Van Gogh Picasso and Matisse accompanied by elucidating texts and a wealth of comparative illustrations From publisher

Bonnard Nicholas Watkins, 1994 In fact Bonnard began his career as a graphic artist producing posters and illustrations for such magazines as La Revue Blanche Associated with Maurice Denis Edouard Vuillard and other members of the Nabis group from 1890 his early work is characterized by a tendency towards broad flat colour and asymmetrical composition derived from Gauguin and from Japanese prints From 1900 his palette became richer and his subject matter settled into a range of obsessive themes principally landscapes nudes and interiors in which he explored ever more complex formal problems and developed an unparalleled mastery of colour and light His mature work achieves a level of dazzling intensity which has ensured his enduring reputation as one of the twentieth century's great colourists

The Seeming and the Seen Beverly Maeder, 2006 Taking their cue from the polymorphous relationship between word and image the essays of this book explore how different media translate the world of phenomena into aesthetic intellectual or sensual experience They embrace the media of poetry fiction drama engraving painting photography film and advertising posters ranging from the early modern to the postmodern periods At the heart of the volume lie essays on works that characteristically perform intriguing interactions between the verbal and visual modes They discuss the manifold ways in which artists as different as William Blake or Gertrude Stein Diane Arbus or Stanley Kubrick heighten the tension between the linguistic and the seen Taken both individually and collectively this volume's contributions illuminate the problematics of how readers and spectators lookers transform verbal and visual representation into worlds of seeming

Beyond the Easel Gloria Lynn Groom, Nicholas Watkins, Jennifer Paoletti, Thérèse Barruel, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001-01-01 The Contributions of Artists Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Maurice Denis and Ker Xavier Roussel to the French avant garde of the 1890s as members of the Nabis are widely recognized What is less known about these artists careers is their extraordinary work in decorative painting work on a large or unusual scale for private interiors This illustrated book focuses on the many decorative works carried out by the four artists between 1890 and 1930 During these years they moved beyond the narrow parameters of easel painting and applied their wholly untraditional aesthetic of decoration to a wide range of works for domestic interiors from wall size ensembles to folding screens The cosmopolitan group of patrons who made this work possible ranged from the avant garde circle of La Revue Blanche to prominent members of the French establishment An examination of their role and tastes is another fascinating feature of this publication The book and accompanying exhibition reunite paintings that have long been dispersed introducing contemporary viewers to a group of bold and evocative works which had a wide ranging though little recognized influence on modern art As the book's authors argue the aesthetic embodied by these works indeed helped set the stage for the large non narrative paintings by artists as diverse as Rothko and Lichtenstein that came to dominate the avant garde after World War II

More than One Picture Felix Thürlemann, 2019-11-26
This thought provoking and original book argues that hyperimages calculated displays of images on walls or pages have played a major role in the history of art In exhibitions illustrated art books and classrooms artworks or their photographic reproductions are arranged as calculated ensembles that have their own importance In this volume Felix Thürlemann develops a theory of this type of image use arguing that with each new gathering of images an art object is reinterpreted These hyperimages have played a major role in the history of art since the seventeenth century and the main actors of the art world are all hyperimage creators In part because the hyperimage is not permanently available this interplay of images has been largely unexplored Through case studies organized within three groups of producers collectors and curators art historians and artists Thürlemann proposes a theory of the hyperimage explores the semiotic nature of this plural image use and discusses the arrangement and interpretation of such pictures in order to illuminate the phenomenon of Western image culture from the beginning of the seventeenth century until today His analysis of the ways in which images are assembled and associated provides a crucial context for the explosive present day deployment of images on digital devices
