Dematerialization and the Social Materiality of Art Elize Mazadiego,2021-03-22 Award winner Best Book in Latin American Visual Culture Studies from the Latin American Studies Association Dematerialization and the Social Materiality of Art reconceptualizes mid twentieth century avant garde practices in Argentina with a focus on the changing material status of the art object in relation to the country s intense period of modernization Elize Mazadiego presents Oscar Masotta s notion of dematerialization as a concept for interpreting experimental art practices that negated the object s primacy while identifying their promise within the sociopolitical transformations of the 1950s and 1960s She argues that in abandoning the traditional art object the avant garde developed new materialities rooted in Buenos Aires changing social life A critical examination of art s materiality and its social role within Argentina this important study paves the way for broader investigations of postwar Latin American art

Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington,Kees de Hoog,2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield s death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia

Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield's agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield's The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield's place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia

The Will of the Tribe Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 It is in a harsh and eerie landscape the crater formed by the meteor they called The Stranger that another stranger is found dead In an area where the presence of every outsider is announced by the bush telegraph how had this man passed unreported Who was he How had he died No tracks around the crater and no stranger in town It soon becomes obvious to Bony that both the locals and the Aborigines are guarding a secret until the will of the Tribe breaks their silence This is undoubtedly Upfield's strongest book for a number of reasons 1 Bony is at his best in his detective work 2 Upfield is at his best in studying the social and cultural situations of the white and the Aborigines 3 though the physical setting is less intense than in some other works it is strong here 4 Upfield's symbolism especially in the use of the metaphor of clothes vs nakedness is extraordinarily complex There is no doubt that this particular book is a masterpiece in every way from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne

Venom House Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 The Answerth family's mansion seems to deserve its nickname of Venom House perhaps because of its forbidding setting an island in the centre of a man made lake its treacherous waters studded by the skeletons of long dead trees Perhaps it's because of the unquiet ghosts of the Aborigines slaughtered by the Answerth ancestors Whatever the reason most people are content to give Venom House and its occupants a wide berth until a couple of corpses turn up in the lake The strength of Upfield's accomplishment in this book is so overwhelming it makes the reader cower The characters are well developed the conversation vernacular for the Australian outback and the development compelling The story is the nearest Upfield comes to a story that would have made Edgar Allen Poe envious Upfield maintains a kind of corpse like humour which is very amusing The whole book is first class Upfield and first class crime fiction from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne
