Book Collector Volume 29 No3 Autumn 1980:

Serials and Series Buck Rainey, 2015-06-08 While many fans remember The Lone Ranger Ace Drummond and others fewer focus on the facts that serials had their roots in silent film and that many foreign studios also produced serials though few made it to the United States The 471 serials and 100 series continuing productions without the cliffhanger endings from the United States and 136 serials and 37 series from other countries are included in this comprehensive reference work Each entry includes title country of origin year studio number of episodes running time or number of reels episode titles cast production credits and a plot synopsis

Products, Users, and Popular Luxury in Early Modern Greece Artemis Yagou, 2024-08-05 This book analyses aspects of the material culture of early modern Greece from an object based perspective using surviving artefacts from that period as primary sources A printed book a wine jug an ecclesiastical embroidery and a pocket watch are used as entry points to examine the consumer practices of the emerging Greek bourgeoisie under Ottoman rule in the long eighteenth century The acquisition and usage of novel products especially imported ones by Greeks was connected to personal expression identity building and self determination in the context of the Enlightenment The enjoyment of innovative artefacts opened new horizons to them and facilitated their individual and collective empowerment The originality of the book lies in its eclectic and interdisciplinary approach towards early modern Greek material culture an under researched topic The study is embedded within contemporary discourses on transnational trade the materiality of everyday life pleasurable consumption and the negotiation of identities This volume will appeal to students and scholars of early modern and modern Greek history Ottoman history European history material culture history of technology museum studies and cultural heritage studies as well as museum professionals collectors and the wider educated public

Gender, Genre & Narrative Pleasure Derek Longhurst, 2012-08-21 Recent years have witnessed important new initiatives in the study of popular fictional modes of writing At one time the field could have been described with reasonable accuracy by two traditions one that analyzed the production and distribution of popular fiction as commodities and one whose proponents regarded popular fiction as the negative which offered definition to the exposure of the positive the great canonic literary tradition Generally then popular fictions were to be evaluated according to the institutionalized norms which had been established as common sense practice around literary studies The decade of the 1970s however ushered in a bewildering range of theoretical debates a crucial gain was establishment of interdisciplinary courses in communication cultural and media studies providing a network of contexts within which serious analysis could evolve and progress Responding to a fundamental challenge from feminism a primary objective of this book is to propose that all narrative and its reading are intrinsically inflected by sexual politics Various approaches represented here demonstrate problems of confronting the gendered pleasures of reading Questions about self sexuality and identity within specific historical formations are raised The objective is to frame describe and unearth the notion of men as readers as a project rather than as the usual unquestioned normative procedure Drawing eclectically upon Marxist psychoanalytic and discourse theory the essays set out readings of popular texts and genres the Western the sentimental novel detective and crime fiction political thrillers and horror and science fiction in the interest of provoking other readers to see the critical study of popular fiction as unthinkable without gender as a central concern

Nineteenth-century British Book-collectors and Bibliographers William Baker, Kenneth Womack, 1997 An eclectic view of the book and manuscript collecting and bibliographical activity during nineteenth century Britain is presented Subjects range from the wealthy bibliographically knowledgeable members of the aristocrats to others who impoverished themselves and their families in their obsession Discusses how these collections were instrumental in the advocacy of the public library movement Art Libraries Journal, 2003 Furniture History, 1981

The Artistic Revival of the Woodcut in France 1850-1900 Jacquelynn Baas, Richard S. Field, University of Michigan. Museum of Art, Yale University. Art Gallery, Baltimore Museum of Art, 1984

Serials in the British Library, 1999 History of Photography in China 1842-1860 Terry Bennett, Lindsey Stewart, 2009 This book is the first extensive survey of early Chinese photographers in any language It is profusely illustrated with more than 400 photographs many of which are published here for the first time including a fine selection of Foochow landscapes from the studios of Lai Fong China's leading photographer during this period and Tung Hing Early chapters introduce the historical milieu from which the earliest Chinese photographers emerged and illuminate the beginnings of photography in China and contemporary Chinese reactions to its introduction Early Chinese commercial photography both portrait and landscape are also discussed with reference to similar genres in a more international context Individual chapters are devoted to Chinese photographers in Peking Hong Kong Canton Shanghai Foochow Amoy Hankow Tientsin and other ports Macau and Formosa These are followed by a series of appendices writings on photography in China by John Thomson and Isaac Taylor Headland and an invaluable guide to the identification of photographs from the Afong Studio It concludes with an extensive bibliography general and regional chronologies and a biographical index Publisher's note Walford's Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, Anthony P. Harvey, Laurence John Taylor, H. Drubba, 1980 Picturescope, 1980 French Books in Eighteenth-century Ireland Máire Kennedy, 2001 Ireland's situation on the periphery of western Europe is sometimes seen as isolating it from literary and intellectual developments during the eighteenth century An examination of Irish private libraries and the book trade which supplied them shows instead an Irish readership au fait with Continental trends in literature the sciences politics and the arts This study concentrates on French language works circulating in the country through the use of booksellers and auction catalogues book reviews and advertising An exploration of the ownership of French language works points to an interested audience at different social levels and across the religious divides Dublin dominated the Irish trade in French language books its major booksellers importing stock from London and European publishing centres and distributing books and periodicals wholesale and by catalogue to the larger Irish cities and towns Domestic publication in French also occurred in Dublin Cork and Belfast The provincial cities too had a role to play in the distribution of French language material opening up new markets in the smaller towns using regional newspaper advertising and selling by catalogue Questions of literacy and readership are explored with particular emphasis on the teaching of French indentifying teachers and schools throughout the country The huguenot contribution is outlined especially their role in the publication of French language books in the first half of the century Many Catholics received their education in Francophone countries returning to Ireland with advanced French language skills In elite circles the French language was a fashionable accomplishment This work draws on comparable studies in Britain France and Germany to place Irish readership of French language materials in the broader context The picture that emerges shows Irish readers as active participants in the cosmopolitan culture which flourished in eighteenth century Europe The Early Poetry of Charles Wright Robert D. Denham, 2009-01-27 This companion covers Charles Wright's first two trilogies Country Music 1982 and The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 providing biographical details information on Wright's sources and influences and historical notes It pays special attention to the way that Wright's poems work together and the links that are formed between them While each poem is given its own commentary the author argues that they work together in a concentrated whole to document a man's spiritual journey Jade Roger Keverne, 2012-12-06 FOREWORD RECUMBENT HORSE Chinese Ming Dynasty 1 Length 3 2 in 9 em The formation of the head with its marked convexity of outline resembles that of one depicted on a mural painting in a Northern Song tomb discovered at Pai Sha in Honan Despite its size this horse has a strong sculptural quality Worked from pale green jade with light brown markings it has been said that a single daily issue of a newspaper effort to survey the jade scene worldwide These volumes such as The New York Times Neue Zürcher Zeitung or Le Monde were bigger than was necessary considering the amount of information they contain more information than someone text included measuring 24 x 18 inches 61 x 46 cm and living in the 17th century would have faced in a lifetime weighing 110 lb 50 kg together and Bishop was not Jade scholarship cannot escape the information explosion interested in wide dissemination of the subject He printed of our century Our knowledge on the subject of jade has only 106 copies none of which was for sale and then has been radically expanded in two directions from the past troyed the plates The copies were sent to important libraries and in the present and a definitive survey bringing together ries museums and crowned heads around the world As the latest research from around the world is long overdue A Blues Bibliography Robert Ford, 2008-03-31 A Blues Bibliography Second Edition is a revised and enlarged version of the definitive blues bibliography first published in 1999 Material previously omitted from the first edition has now been included and the bibliography has been expanded to include works published since then In addition to biographical references this work includes entries on the history and background of the blues instruments record labels reference sources regional variations and lyric transcriptions and musical analysis The Blues Bibliography is an invaluable guide to the enthusiastic market among libraries specializing in music and African American culture and among individual blues scholars Anzac, The Unauthorised Biography Carolyn Holbrook, 2014-09-01 Raise a glass for an Anzac Run for an Anzac Camp under the stars for an Anzac Is there anything Australians won't do to keep the Anzac legend at the centre of our national story But standing firm on the other side of the Anzac enthusiasts is a chorus of critics claiming that the appetite for Anzac is militarising our history and indoctrinating our children So how are we to make sense of this struggle over how we remember the Great War Anzac the Unauthorised Biography cuts through the clamour to provide a much needed historical perspective on the battle over Anzac It traces how since 1915 Australia's memory of the Great War has declined and surged reflecting the varied and complex history of the Australian nation itself Most importantly it asks why so many Australians persist with the fiction that the nation was born on 25 April 1915 Ludwig's Applied Process Design for Chemical and Petrochemical Plants A. Kayode Coker, 2011-08-30 This complete revision of Applied Process Design for Chemical and Petrochemical Plants Volume 1 builds upon Ernest E Ludwig's classic text to further enhance its use as a chemical engineering process design manual of methods and proven fundamentals This new edition includes important supplemental mechanical and related data nomographs and charts Also included within are improved techniques and fundamental methodologies to guide the engineer in designing process equipment and applying chemical processes to properly detailed equipment All three volumes of Applied Process Design for Chemical and Petrochemical Plants serve the practicing engineer by providing organized design procedures details on the equipment suitable for application selection and charts in readily usable form Process engineers designers and operators will find more chemical petrochemical plant design data in Volume 2 Third Edition which covers distillation and packed towers as well as material on azeotropes and ideal non ideal systems Volume 3 Third Edition which covers heat transfer refrigeration systems compression surge drums and mechanical drivers A Kayode Coker is Chairman of Chemical Process Engineering Technology department at Jubail Industrial College in Saudi Arabia He's both a chartered scientist and a chartered chemical engineer for more than 15 years and an author of Fortran Programs for Chemical Process Design Analysis and Simulation Gulf Publishing Co and Modeling of Chemical Kinetics and Reactor Design Butterworth Heinemann Provides improved design manuals for methods and proven fundamentals of process design with related data and charts Covers a complete range of basic day to day petrochemical operation topics with new material on significant industry changes since 1995 Performance Hanna B Hölling, Jules Pelta Feldman, Emilie Magnin, 2023-11-01 This book focuses on performance and performance based artworks as seen through the lens of conservation which has long been overlooked in the larger theoretical debates about whether and how performance remains Unraveling the complexities involved in the conservation of performance Performance The Ethics and the Politics of Conservation and Care vol 1 brings this new understanding to bear in examining performance as an object of study experience acquisition and care In so doing it presents both theoretical frameworks and functional paradigms for thinking about and enacting the conservation of performance Further while the conservation of performance is undertheorized performance is nevertheless increasingly entering the art market and the museum meaning that there is an urgent need for discourse on how to care for these works long term In recent years a few pioneering conservators curators and scholars have begun to create frameworks for the longterm care of performance This volume presents explicates and contextualizes their work so that a larger discourse can commence It will thus serve the needs of conservation students and professors for whom literature on this subject is sorely needed This interdisciplinary book thus implements a novel rethinking of performance that will challenge and revitalize its conception in many fields such as art history theater performance studies heritage studies and anthropology
