Book Collector Volume 49 No2 Summer 2000:

The Book Collector, 2001 Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W.

Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance

The Poetry of Saying Robert Sheppard, 2005-09-01 In The Poetry of Saying Robert Sheppard explores an array of experimental writers and styles of writing many of which have never secured a large audience in Britain but which are often fascinatingly innovative As a published poet in this tradition Sheppard provides a detailed and thought provoking account of the development of the British poetry movement from the 1950s As well as analysing the work of individual poets such as Roy Fisher Lee Harwood and Tom Raworth The Poetry of Saying also examines the influence of the Poetry Society and poetry magazines on the evolution of British poetry throughout this period The overriding virtue of the poetry of this period is its diversity a fact that Sheppard has not ignored As well as providing a fascinating insight into the work of these poets The Poetry of Saying offers an insider's commentary on the social political and historical background during this exciting period in British poetry

The Future of Educational Change Ciaran Sugrue, 2008-02-19 This timely book provides a systematic overview and critique of contemporary approaches to educational change from some of the best known writers and scholars in the field including Andy Hargreaves Larry Cuban Ivor Goodson Jeannie Oakes Milbrey McLaughlin Judyth Sachs and Ann Lieberman Divided into four sections the book addresses the key themes What has been the impact of educational change How has the impact differed in different circumstances What are the new directions for research on policy and practice How can we link research policy and practice By highlighting critical lessons from the past the book aims to set an agenda for policy related research and the future trajectories of educational reforms while also taking into account the dominant rhetorics of international social movements and the refracted nature of policy agenda at national and local levels This book addresses issues which with many educators around the world are currently grappling It will appeal to academics and researchers in the field as well as providing an introduction to key issues and themes in Educational Change for graduates and practitioners David King Rick Poynor, 2020-01-01 Exploring an unjustly overlooked figure in 20th century British visual culture This book offers a comprehensive overview to the work and legacy of David King 1943 2016 whose fascinating career bridged journalism graphic design photography and collecting King launched his career at Britain's Sunday Times Magazine in the 1960s starting as a designer and later branching out into image led journalism He developed a particular interest in revolutionary Russia and began amassing a collection of graphic art and photographs ultimately accumulating around 250 000 images that he shared with news outlets Throughout his life King blended political activism with his graphic design work creating anti Apartheid and anti Nazi posters covers for books on Communist history album artwork for The Who and Jimi Hendrix catalogues on Russian art and society for the Museum of Modern Art in Oxford and typographic covers for the left wing magazine City Limits This well researched and finely illustrated publication ties together King's accomplishments as a visual historian artist journalist and activist Design & Applied Arts Index, 2000 Henry

James and the Media Arts of Modernity June Hee Chung, 2019-03-20 Henry James and the Media Arts of Modernity Commercial Cosmopolitanism turns to the author's late fiction letters and essays to investigate his contribution to the development of an American cosmopolitan culture both in popular and high art The book contextualizes James's writing within a broader cultural and social history to uncover relationships among increasingly sensory focused media technologies mass consumer practices and developments in literary style when they spread to Europe at the inception of the era of big business Combining cultural studies with neoclassical Marxism and postcolonial theory the study addresses a gap in scholarship concerning the rise of literary modernism as a cosmopolitan phenomenon Although scholars have traditionally acknowledged the international character of artists' participation in this movement when analyzing the contributions of American expatriate writers in Europe they generally assume an unequal degree of reciprocity in transatlantic cultural exchange with European artists being more influential than American ones This book argues that James identifies a cultural form of American imperialism that emerged out of a commercialized version of cosmopolitanism Yet the author appropriates the arts of modernity when he realizes that art generated with the mechanized principles of mass production spurred a diverse range of aesthetic responses to other early twentieth century technological and organizational innovations

Publications of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1964-2005 Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2012-10-09 The present volume Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1964 2005 is a successor to a volume published by the Museum in 1965 entitled Publications of The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1870 1964 These two bibliographic volumes endeavor to list all the known books pamphlets and serial publications bearing the Museum's imprint and issued by the institution during the first 135 years of its existence through June 2005 The first volume was compiled by Albert TenEyck Gardner at the time an Associate Curator of American Paintings and Sculpture and the present volume has been compiled from the Annual Reports issued by the Museum during the relevant years Together the two volumes testify to the tremendous contributions made to knowledge by the curators and conservators of the Metropolitan and by the many other experts who have contributed to the Museum's exhibition catalogues. Various issues of the Bulletin emphasize the great sweep of the Museum's acquisitions during these years and the exhibition catalogues a number of them Alfred H. Barr Jr. Award or the George Wittenborn Award testify to the continuity of the institution's dedicated program to enrich people's lives through knowledge of art. This title was originally published in 2006. Matisse and Decoration John Klein, 2018-01-01. A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century. Between 1935 and his death at midcentury, Henri Matisse (1869-1954) undertook many decorative projects and commissions. These include mural paintings, stained glass, ceramic tiles, lead crystal pieces, carpets, tapestries, fashion fabrics, and accessories, work that has received no significant treatment until now. By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material, including from the artist's own correspondence, John Klein, an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse, offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse's ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career. Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut-out, whose function and significance Klein reevaluates. Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France's renewed sense of cultural preeminence. For the first time, the idea of the decorative in Matisse's work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account, amounting to an understanding of this modern master's work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive.

General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1969. The Fifth Massachusetts Colored Cavalry in the Civil War Steven M. LaBarre, 2016-07-19. In January 1863, a long anticipated military order arrived on the desk of Massachusetts Governor John Andrew. President Lincoln's secretary of war Edwin Stanton had granted the governor authority to raise regiments of black soldiers. Two units, the 54th and 55th Massachusetts Infantry, were soon mustered, and in December Andrew issued General Order No. 44, announcing a Regiment of Cavalry Volunteers to be composed of men of color. It is now in the process of recruitment in the Commonwealth. Drawing on letters, diaries, memoirs, and official reports, this book provides the first full-length regimental history of the Fifth Massachusetts Cavalry: its organization, participation in the Petersburg campaign, and the guarding of prisoners at Point Lookout, Maryland, and its triumphant ride into Richmond. Accounts of the postwar lives of many of the men are included. Forbidden Knowledge Hannah Marcus, 2020-09-25. Wonderful offers and provokes meditation on the timeless nature of censorship, its practices, its intentions, and its unintended outcomes. Times Higher Education. Forbidden Knowledge explores the censorship of medical books from their proliferation in print through the prohibitions placed on them during the Counter Reformation. How and why did books banned in Italy in the sixteenth century end up back on library shelves in the seventeenth? Historian Hannah Marcus uncovers how early modern physicians evaluated the utility of banned books and facilitated their continued circulation in conversation.

with Catholic authorities Through extensive archival research Marcus highlights how talk of scientific utility once thought to have begun during the Scientific Revolution in fact began earlier emerging from ecclesiastical censorship and the desire to continue to use banned medical books What s more this censorship in medicine which preceded the Copernican debate in astronomy by sixty years has had a lasting impact on how we talk about new and controversial developments in scientific knowledge Beautiful illustrations accompany this masterful timely book about the interplay between efforts at intellectual control and the utility of knowledge Marcus deftly explains the various contradictions that shaped the interactions between Catholic authorities and the medical and scientific communities of early modern Italy showing how these dynamics defined the role of outside expertise in creating Catholic Knowledge for centuries to come Annals of Science An important study that all scholars and advanced students of early modern Europe will want to read especially those interested in early modern medicine religion and the history of the book Highly recommended Choice Netsuke Joe Earle,2001 Essay by Joe Earle

Architectural Publications Index ,2003 Humanities Index ,2002 Bound to Appear Huey Copeland,2013-10-28 A smart account of a defining moment in African American contemporary art The early 1990s were a game changer for black artists Many rose prominently to lead the field of advanced art more generally artists like Glenn Ligon Renee Green Fred Wilson Lorna Simpson and others It was in the early 1990s when African American artists began to produce installation and conceptual work where previously as an identity group they had focused on figurative painting and craft work Now suddenly artists were producing site specific installations sound art performance and readymades that sought to immerse the viewer in environments that provoked the experience of slavery and raised awareness of the constructedness of blackness in this country Philatelic Literature Review ,1999 Textiles Bibliography ,2002
