Book Of Nadath:

The Book of Nadath Robin Hyde, 1999 The publication of this poem with the assistance of Michele Leggott's introduction and textual notes will significantly shift our assessment of Hyde's achievement BOOK JACKET The Book of Iris Derek Challis, Gloria Rawlinson, 2002 Brilliant beautiful difficult and doomed Iris Wilkinson known as the writer Robin Hyde led a short tumultuous and incredibly productive life Here her story is told for the first time in a dramatic and deeply moving narrative Researched by both authors from 1965 to 1971 it was written in a first draft by Iris Wilkinson's friend Gloria Rawlinson since Rawlinson s death in 1995 it has been revised and completed by Derek Challis Wilkinson s son It includes appalling accounts of hidden pregnancies harsh experience as a solo mother dependence on drugs intimate acquaintance with sexism and poverty mental breakdown and a perilous trip to China in wartime There are deep friendships and hurtful betrayals Always there is a dedicated and determined commitment to writing Jacket Better Britons Nadine Attewell, 2014-02-05 In 1932 Aldous Huxley published Brave New World his famous novel about a future in which humans are produced to spec in laboratories Around the same time Australian legislators announced an ambitious experiment to breed the colour out of Australia by procuring white husbands for women of white and indigenous descent In this study Nadine Attewell reflects on an assumption central to these and other policy initiatives and cultural texts from twentieth century Britain Australia and New Zealand that the fortunes of the nation depend on controlling the reproductive choices of citizen subjects Better Britons charts an innovative approach to the politics of reproduction by reading an array of works and discourses from canonical modernist novels and speculative fictions to government memoranda and public debates that reflect on the significance of reproductive behaviours for civic national and racial identities Bringing insights from feminist and gueer theory into dialogue with work in indigenous studies Attewell sheds new light on changing conceptions of British and settler identity during the era of decolonization Young Knowledge: the Poems of Robin Hyde Michele Leggott, 2013-10-01 Young Knowledge presents for the first time a full chronological record of the poems of Robin Hyde a New Zealand writer active in the 1930s whose full achievement is only now being recognised Drawing on the 500 poems extant Michele Leggott has chosen 300 divided into five sections Her aim is to arrive at a better understanding of the 15 years of massive production which shaped the poet and which may be her major literary work Young Knowledge shows Robin Hyde s growth as a poet her response to the painful events of her life and to the political and social world around her The poems are remarkable both for their acute observation of the physical and emotional world and for their powerful prophetic and visionary elements The introduction and notes to Young Knowledge available here www nzepc auckland ac nz authors hyde make this an authoritative and comprehensive text and a brilliant presentation of a great poet An extra pleasure is the inclusion of five stunning photographs of Robin Hyde used on the cover and to head each section which have not previously been known Maoriland Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2006 This critical examination of Maoriland literature argues against the former glib dismissals of the period and focuses instead on the era's importance in the birth of a distinct New Zealand style of writing By connecting the literature and other cultural forms of Maoriland to the larger realms of empire and contemporary criticism this study explores the roots of the country's modern feminism progressive social legislation and Picking Up the Traces Lawrence Jones, 2003 The story of the generation of New Zealand writers who came of age in the 1930s and who deliberately and decisively changed the course of literature is told in this book shedding important new light on the key participants including Allen Curnow Denis Glover and Robin Hyde The movement is traced through small circulation magazines and small press publications from 1932 to 1941 The repudiations and loyalties by which the movement defined itself are explored including its opposition to the literary establishment and to late Georgian verse its naming of its precursors and allies from the 1920s and its choice of overseas models such as the British Moderns and the new American short story writers for the creation of a new literature oppose the cultural myths supported by the literary establishment and the writers responses to the world wide social upheavals of the period the Depression the international crises of 1935 to 1939 and World War II Landfall ,2002 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide British Review of New Zealand Studies ,1999 The Penguin Book of New Zealand Letters Louise Lawrence, 2003 The first historical anthology Studies Journal, 2005 of New Zealand letters is made up of more than 150 letters that span three centuries The voices of both famous and ordinary New Zealanders as well as famous visitors capture the richness of human life both mundane and noteworthy Chronologically selected from Cook s voyages to the present day this book contains much previously unpublished material Each letter is preceded by a short explanatory piece from the editor Publisher's description Journal of New Zealand Literature Foreigners and Foreign Institutions in Republican China Anne-Marie Brady, Douglas Brown, 2012-09-10 Republican ,1997 China attracted an uncommon diversity of foreign interests groups and individuals which included missionaries adventurers diplomats academics humanitarians and refugees as well as hedonists and tourists By exploring the diverse nature of foreign activities in Republican China this book complicates the dominant narratives of the imperialistic foreigner and Chinese victim and moves beyond the depiction of foreigners as privileged and the Chinese as simply weak The spaces and relationships examined in the essays in this volume reveal a complex series of interactions between foreigners and the people of China which go far beyond one way transmission or exploitation Indeed this book examines how diverse and sometimes seemingly peripheral foreign individuals and communities influenced literature education trade sexual morality warfare and architecture in China and in the process were themselves profoundly changed in ways that are as remarkable as those experienced by the Chinese they had come to observe meet exploit conquer assist or change Bringing together the work of a diverse group of scholars on Republican China this edited volume adopts a uniquely multi disciplinary approach to the study of foreigners in China and utilises the perspectives of historiography literary studies cultural studies sociology anthropology and political science As such this interesting and innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars from diverse fields including Chinese and global history politics and international relations Chinese studies literary studies and New Zealand Books in Print ,1999 Cumulated Index to the Books .1999 New Zealand Books in Print 2004 Thorpe-Bowker Staff, 2004-06 Directory containing updated bibliographic information on all in print New Zealand books 33nd edition of an annual publication The 12 500 book entries are listed by title and there is an index to authors Also provided are details of 975 publishers and distributors and local agents of overseas publishers The book trade directory includes contacts for trade organisations booksellers public libraries and specialised suppliers NZ literary awards and past winners and sources of financial assistance for writers and publishers Travelling in the Dark Emma Timpany, 2018-07-11 A tour de force of imagery and emotion Clio Gray author of The Anatomist's Dream In the aftermath of a devastating earthquake Sarah travels back to her home town with her young son Delays and diversions take Sarah on an emotional journey as she's forced to return to well known places echoing with painful memories from her youth Set in the wild beautiful and unreliable landscape of southern New Zealand Emma Timpany's novella is an evocative story of a woman coming to terms with her past and forging a brighter future Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson, 2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature film theatre and fine art Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature film theatre and fine art this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight Following a contextual introduction to the field the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists A Press Achieved: the Emergence of Auckland University Press, 1927-1972 Dennis McEldowney, 2013-10-01 Written with humour and acerbic observation by a former managing editor of Auckland University Press Dennis McEldowney A Press Achieved charts the origins of the press up to its formal recognition in 1972 Drawing on both documents and memory this two part volume is a valuable contribution to the history of the book in New Zealand and offers an intriguing view of university politics as well as glimpses into New Zealand culture Lighted Windows Mary Paul, 2008 As a journalist poet novelist and war correspondent from China in 1938 Robin Hyde wrote about the movements and debates of a volatile period Hyde dared to
