Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 2 Booker T Washington, Louis R Harlan, 1972-10 The University of Illinois Press offers online access to The Booker T Washington Papers a 14 volume set published by the press Users can search the papers view images and purchase the print version of the volumes Booker Taliaferro Washington 1856 1915 was an African American educator who was born a slave in Franklin County Virginia For the Prevention of Cruelty Diane L. Beers, 2006-05-25 Animal rights Those two words conjure diverse but powerful images and reactions Some nod in agreement while others roll their eyes in contempt Most people fall somewhat uncomfortably in the middle between endorsement and rejection as they struggle with the profound moral philosophical and legal questions provoked by the debate Today thousands of organizations lobby agitate and educate the public on issues concerning the rights and treatment of nonhumans For the Prevention of Cruelty is the first history of organized advocacy on behalf of animals in the United States to appear in nearly a half century Diane Beers demonstrates how the cause has shaped and reshaped itself as it has evolved within the broader social context of the shift from an industrial to a postindustrial society Until now the legacy of the movement in the United States has not been examined Few Americans today perceive either the companionship or the consumption of animals in the same manner as did earlier generations Moreover powerful and lingering bonds connect the seemingly disparate American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of the nineteenth century and the People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals of today For the Prevention of Cruelty tells an intriguing and important story that reveals society's often changing relationship with animals through the lens of those who struggled to shepherd the public toward a greater compassion

Baptized in PCBs Ellen Griffith Spears, 2014 Baptized in PCBs Race Pollution and Justice in an All American Town

Though Justice Sleeps Barbara Bair, 1997-04-03 The period of Reconstruction that followed the end of the Civil War was a time of both tremendous promise and the deep conflict of ideas At stake was the question of what the racial future of America would be In the years between 1880 and 1900 the wonderful promise of a future of freedom that was made to black people by emancipation was broken It was a promise that African Americans could conduct their daily lives with the assurance that their rights would be protected the assurance of wide awake and diligent social justice Instead justice slept African Americans did however make their own brand of liberty through their activism and their faith When John Solomon Lewis's family claimed their own land in Kansas or Bishop Henry McNeal Turner encouraged African Americans to take pride in Africa the flame of freedom was maintained When Richard L Davis organized mineworkers or black women in New Orleans marched in the streets in support of striking dockworkers they kindled the light of freedom that illuminated their path When Booker T Washington arrived in Tuskegee Alabama and started a school in Johanna Bowen Rudgrey's church that light was further kindled The message that African American activists of the 1880s and 1890s left for those in the 20th century was a clear one Frances Harper said it at the Chicago Women s Congress in 1893 Demand justice simple justice as the right of every race In Though Justice Sleeps Barbara Bair demonstrates that black people were more than victims of Jim Crow laws and racial violence She shows that they organized fought back moved around thought wrote and created works of art They connected their struggles with the rest of the world turning to Africa Europe and the Caribbean for guidance and inspiration

Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 8 Booker T Washington, Louis R Harlan, Geraldine R McTigue, 1979-07 The memoirs and accounts of the Black educator are presented with letters speeches personal documents and other writings reflecting his life and career Books in Print , 1994 Fit Citizens Ava Purkiss, 2023-03-14 At the turn of the twentieth century as African Americans struggled against white social and political oppression Black women devised novel approaches to the fight for full citizenship In opposition to white led efforts to restrict their freedom of movement Black women used various exercises calisthenics gymnastics athletics and walking to demonstrate their physical and moral fitness for citizenship Black women s participation in the modern exercise movement grew exponentially in the first half of the twentieth century and became entwined with larger campaigns of racial uplift and Black self determination Black newspapers magazines advice literature and public health reports all encouraged this emphasis on exercise as a reflection of civic virtue In the first historical study of Black women s exercise Ava Purkiss reveals that physical activity was not merely a path to self improvement but also a means to expand notions of Black citizenship Through this narrative of national belonging Purkiss explores how exercise enabled Black women to reimagine Black bodies health beauty and recreation in the twentieth century Fit Citizens places Black women squarely within the history of American physical fitness and sheds light on how African Americans gave new meaning to the concept of exercising citizenship Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 4 Booker T Washington, Raymond W Smock, 1972 The University of Illinois Press offers online access to The Booker T Washington Papers a 14 volume set published by the press Users can search the papers view images and purchase the print version of the volumes Booker Taliaferro Washington 1856 1915 was an African American educator who was born a slave in Franklin County Virginia Black Folklorists in Pursuit of Equality Ronald LaMarr Sharps, 2023-06-16 After the Civil War Emancipation purportedly brought physical freedom to African Americans As the nineteenth century drew to a close blacks continued to experience inequality in all phases of American life social cultural political and economic In pursuit of equality African American movements interpreted folklore to reveal in their rhetoric the soul of a race and a path toward civilization This book provides a comprehensive chronicle of these competing initiatives and their reception starting with the folklore society organized by Hampton Institute in 1893 and continuing through the early 1940s with the American Negro Academy Fisk University graduates William Hannibal Thomas the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People the Urban League the Friends of Negro Freedom the Universal Negro Improvement Association and blacks associated with the Communist Party USA Disavowing a culture of fear money guns and death black folklorists in these movements exposed a racial inner life ranging from loving loyal and happy to imitative tragic spiritual emotional and creative Each characterization of the race justified a distinct path and possible contributions to civilization If unable to know their past members of the movements and other folklorists were fearful that African Americans would be an anomaly among humanity Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 7 Booker T. Washington, Louis R. Harlan, 1977 The memoirs and accounts of the Black educator are presented with letters speeches personal documents and other writings reflecting his life and career

Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 5 Booker T Washington, Louis R Harlan, 1977-03 This volume turns from emphasizing Washington's institution building Tuskegee Institute to examine those writings which reveal more about the black leader's growing role as a national public figure Volume 5 covers a period during which Washington's fortunes continued to rise even as those of the black masses for whom he claimed to speak declined Though forced to adhere narrowly to the racial philosophy he had espoused in the Atlanta Compromise address of 1895 Washington nonetheless was able to involve himself covertly in matters of civil rights and politics He used the National Negro Business League as a front for political activity He successfully lobbied against disenfranchisement of black voters in Georgia during November 1899 During these years Washington began behind the scenes civil rights activities that foreshadowed a much more elaborate secret life after the turn of the century He worked with lawyers of the Afro American Council to test in the courts the grandfather clause of the Louisiana constitution of 1898 raising money to pay the legal costs and swearing the other participants to secrecy T Thomas Fortune the leading black journalist of the day was Washington's close personal advisor as he sought to spread his sphere of influence from his southern base to northern cities Also included are writings on the first convention of the National Negro Business League Washington's address before the Southern Industrial Convention in Huntsville Ala and the full text of Washington's first book The Future of the American Negro published in December 1899 A fascinating view of Booker T Washington and the milieu in which he operated Volume 5 provides further reason to call the project as C Vann Woodward has done the single most important research enterprise now under way in the field of American black history The Washington Papers continue to provide a rich load of material for social historians Intelligently and imaginatively edited they illuminate not only the life of Booker T Washington but the several worlds in which he lived Allan H Spear Journal of American History On the subject of Washington There is no better source to consult than Louis R Harlan's biography and the first volumes of the Washington papers New York Review of Books A major enterprise in Black historiography Times Literary Supplement Booker T. Washington Papers Volume 3 Booker T Washington, Louis R. Harlan, 1974-04 Washington's gradual rise to prominence as an educator race leader and shrewd political broker is revealed in this volume which covers his career from May 1889 to September 1895 when he delivered the famous speech often called the Atlanta Compromise address Much of the volume relates to Washington's role as principal of Tuskegee Institute where he built a powerful base of operations for his growing influence with white philanthropists in the North southern white leaders and the black community

The Teacher Wars Dana Goldstein, 2014-09-02 In her groundbreaking history of 175 years of American education Dana Goldstein finds answers in the past to the controversies that plague our public schools today Teaching is a wildly contentious profession in America one attacked and admired in equal measure In The Teacher Wars a rich lively and unprecedented history of public school teaching Dana Goldstein reveals that teachers have been similarly embattled for nearly two centuries From the genteel founding of the common schools movement in the nineteenth century to the violent inner city teacher strikes of the 1960s and 70s from the dispatching of Northeastern women to frontier schoolhouses to the founding of Teach for America on the Princeton University campus in 1989 Goldstein shows that the same issues have continued to bedevil us Who should teach What should be taught Who should be held accountable for how our children learn She uncovers the surprising roots of hot button issues from teacher tenure to charter schools and finds that recent popular ideas to improve schools instituting merit pay evaluating teachers by student test scores ranking and firing veteran teachers and recruiting elite graduates to teach are all approaches that have been tried in the past without producing widespread change And she also discovers an emerging effort that stands a real chance of transforming our schools for the better drawing on the best practices of the three million public school teachers we already have in order to improve learning throughout our nation s classrooms The Teacher Wars upends the conversation about American education by bringing the lessons of history to bear on the dilemmas we confront today By asking How did we get here Dana Goldstein brilliantly illuminates the path forward

School and Society Steven Tozer, Paul C. Violas, Guy B. Senese, 1993 Part One of this text examines educational themes in the historical context in which they first appeared Corresponding Part Two chapters return to these themes and examine them in their contemporary contexts Throughout the relationship between social conditions prevailing ideologies and educational practice is stressed

Paul Laurence Dunbar Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2023-10-17 This biography explores the life of Paul Laurence Dunbar 1872 1906 a major nineteenth century American poet and one of the first African American writers to garner international attention and praise in the wake of emancipation While Dunbar is perhaps best known for poems such as Sympathy a poem that ends I know why the caged bird sings and We Wear the Mask he wrote prolifically in many genres including a newspaper he produced with his friends Orville and Wilbur Wright in their hometown of Dayton Ohio Before his early death he published fourteen books of poetry four collections of short stories and four novels and also collaborated on theatrical productions including the first musical with a full African American cast to appear on Broadway In this book Gene Jarrett traces Dunbar s personal and professional life in the context of the historical currents that shaped the author s development to tell in Jarrett s words the full story of an African American who privately wrestled with the constraints of America in the Gilded Age but who also sought to express or mitigate this strife through the written and spoken word Jarrett sketches the life and times of Paul Laurence Dunbar in three main parts

Against the backdrop of the Civil War Reconstruction and the rise of Jim Crow segregation the first section Broken Home begins with the lives of Joshua and Matilda Paul's parents who were born enslaved and ends with the years leading up to 1893 when Dunbar published his first book Oak and Ivy and befriended Frederick Douglass The second section A True Singer bookends the era when Paul entered his literary prime and became one of the first professional African American writers The final section The Downward Way details his troubled marriage to Alice Dunbar Nelson his illnesses including tuberculosis and alcoholism and his death An epilogue comments on Dunbar's enduring legacy The book includes more than 40 black and white photographs of Dunbar's family friends colleagues and published works

Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence

Deaf History Unveiled John V. Van Cleve, 1993 Since the early 1970s when Deaf history as a formal discipline did not exist the study of Deaf people their culture and language and how hearing societies treated them has exploded Deaf History Unveiled Interpretations from the New Scholarship presents the latest findings from the new scholars mining this previously neglected rich field of inquiry The sixteen essays featured in Deaf History Unveiled include the work of Harlan Lane Renate Fischer Margret A Winzer William McCagg and twelve other noted historians who presented their research at the First International Conference on Deaf History in 1991

Black Women in America Darlene Clark Hine, Elsa Barkley Brown, Rosalyn Terborg-Penn, 1993 This is a comprehensive guide to the lives of 641 individual black women most of whom are significant on a national level There are also entries to more than 150 general topics and organizations involving Black women Listed alphabetically the signed entries have bibliographies and many have photographs The length of the articles vary from one or two columns to multiple pages especially for the topical entries Entries are balanced and easily comprehensible The appendices include a chronology a classified bibliography including a directory of research centers and the biographies classified by occupations There is an extensive index Recommended as a first purchase among the new biographical sources about Black women for high school libraries

The Battle for the Souls of Black Folk Thomas Aiello, 2016-05-23 In the 20 years between 1895 and 1915 two key leaders Booker T Washington and W E B Du Bois shaped the struggle for African American rights This book examines the impact of their fierce debate on America's response to Jim Crow and positions on civil rights throughout the 20th century and evaluates the legacies of these two individuals even today The debate between W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington on how to further social and economic progress for African Americans lasted 20 years from 1895 to Washington's death in 1915 Their ongoing conversation evolved over time becoming fiercer and more personal as the years progressed But despite its complexities and steadily accumulating bitterness it was still at its heart a conversation an impassioned contest at the turn of the century to capture the souls of black folk This book focuses on the conversation between Washington and Du Bois in order to fully examine its contours It serves as both a document reader and an authored text that enables readers to perceive

how the back and forth between these two individuals produced a cacophony of ideas that made it anything but a bipolar debate even though their expressed differences would ultimately shape the two dominant strains of activist strategy The numerous chapters on specific topics and historical events follow a preface that presents an overview of both the conflict and its historiographical treatment evaluates the legacies of both Washington and Du Bois emphasizing the trajectories of their theories beyond 1915 and provides an explanation of the unique structure of the work
