We Need to Talk

Michael Theune,Bob Broad,2017-10-24 We evaluate poems constantly as workshop leaders competition judges and journal editors But how do we judge the success of verse in these contexts The authors propose an innovative method by which anyone involved in the assessment of poetry can be more transparent about how they value verse This book foregrounds the ethical and professional obligations of poets teachers and critics to conduct axiological inquiry so they can discover and publish what they value We Need to Talk suggests why and how people who care about poetry should communally explore and document their shared and conflicting values This is the first book to provide the background and theory as well as a practical working model for the communal empirical evaluation of creative writing Women on Poetry Carol

Smallwood,,Colleen S. Harris,Cynthia Brackett-Vincent,2012-01-23 In these 59 essays published female poets share a wealth of practical advice and inspiration Aimed at students and aspiring and experienced poets alike the essays address such topics as the women s collective writing experience tips on teaching in numerous contexts the publishing process and essential wisdom to aid the poet in her chosen vocation Pioneer Collections ,1884 Criticism and Literary Theory 1890 to the Present Chris Baldick,2014-06-11 Presents a coherent and accessible historical account of the major phases of British and American Twentieth century criticism from decadent aestheticism to feminist deconstructionist and post colonial theories Special attention is given to new perspectives on Shakesperean criticism theories of the novel and models of the literary canon The book will help to define and account for the major developments in literary criticism during this century exploring the full diversity of critical work from major critics such as T S Eliot and F R Leavis to minor but fascinating figures and critical schools Unlike most guides to modern literary theory its focus is firmly on developments within the English speaking world
