Accompanied By His Wife:

Accompanied by His Wife Mary Burchell, 1941 Accompanied by His Wife Mary Burchell (pseud. [i.e. Ida Cook.]), 1941 Tammarniit (Mistakes) Frank Tester, Peter Kulchyski, 2011-11-01 Recent media attention on the dire living conditions of the Innu in Davis Inlet Labrador has served as a stark reminder of the tragic outcome of Canadian government policy toward the Inuit in the eastern Arctic between 1939 and 1963 In Tammarniit Frank Tester and Peter Kulchyski focus on the roles of relief and relocation in response to welfare and other perceived problems and the federal government's overall goal of assimilating the Inuit into the dominant Canadian culture As a result the seeming benevolence of the post Second World War Canadian welfare state is seriously questioned The authors have made extensive use of archival documents many of which have not been available to researchers before among them the Alex Stevenson Collection which was stored in the Archives of the Northwest Territories and which proved to be invaluable in determining the course of events and the evolution of northern policies Tammarniit begins with an account of the debate over which branch of government should be responsible for the Inuit and whose budget should cover the costs for providing relief This debate was resolved in 1939 when the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that the federal government was responsible The following chapters cover the first wave of government expansion in the north which coincided with the evolution of the postwar liberal welfare state the policy debate that resulted in the decision to relocate Inuit from relatively southern communities on the east coast of Hudson Bay to the high Arctic and the actual movement of people and materials The second half of the book focuses on conditions following relocation A great deal of attention is paid to the Henik Lake and Garry Lake famines both of which occurred in the Keewatin district in the late 1950s and to the subsequent establishment of the community of Whale Cove The book concludes with an examination of the second wave of state expansion in the late fifties and the emergence of a new dynamic of intervention A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles Sir James Augustus Henry Murray, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Henry Bradley, Charles Talbot Onions, 1888 Celebrated Trials of All Countries, and Remarkable Cases of Criminal Jurisprudence John Jay Smith, 1836 Women and the Crusades Helen J. Nicholson, 2023 Helen Nicholson surveys women's involvement in medieval crusading from the 11th century to the 16th arguing that medieval women were deeply involved in the crusades but that the roles that they could play and how their contemporaries recorded their deeds were dictated by social convention and cultural expectations Traditional Japanese Literature Haruo Shirane, 2007 Traditional Japanese Literature features a rich array of works dating from the very beginnings of the Japanese written language through the evolution of Japan's noted aristocratic court and warrior cultures It contains stunning new translations of such canonical texts as The Tales of the Heike as well as works and genres previously ignored by scholars and unknown to general readers This volume includes generous selections from Manyōshū The Tale of Genji The Pillow Book Kokinshū and other classics of Japanese literature as well as a stunning range of folk literature epic tales of war poetry and no drama The anthology offers an impressive representation of dramatic poetic and fictional works from both high and low culture along with religious and secular anecdotes literary criticism and works written in Chinese by Japanese writers The wealth of classical poetry linked verse and popular poetry is accompanied by extensive commentary Traditional Japanese Literature is a companion volume to Columbia University Press's Early Modern Japanese Literature An Anthology 1600-1900 and part of its four volume history of Japanese literature Arranged by chronology and genre the readings are insightfully introduced and placed into their political cultural and literary context and the extensive bibliographies offer further study for scholars and readers Including a wide range of classic and popular works in poetry prose and drama this anthology presents a definitive overview of traditional Japanese literature and deepens our understanding of classical and medieval Japanese culture

Hollow Man David Mar, 2023-04-28 It seems the afterlife will not relinquish its grip on Mac Closkey even after taking from him his marriage and human love His unusual ministry calls him to investigate Victorian bodies discovered on the local mountain Once hazed by the world of spirits Mac Closkey has solved the legendary Jack the Ripper case Soon his local chapter requires his help to look for the head of the ex commissioner's wife whose disappearance is not as straightforward a murder as it first seems Its repercussions will ripple through the highest realms of British society The Works of William Shakespeare: Poems and sonnets William Shakespeare, 1895 The Sex of Things Victoria de Grazia, Ellen Furlough, 1996-08-02 A rare pleasure Rooting gender and consumption in the actions of people making their own history these brilliant essays move from nineteenth century pinups to the formation of gendered modernity Once you've savored this volume you'll never think of modern life in the same way again Temma Kaplan author of Red City Blue Period The poems of Shakespeare, ed. with an intr. and notes by G. Stephens, 2023-02-10 This book explores the motif of the spiritual journey and its evolution in Western literature A spiritual journey can be broadly defined as a search for the divine Such a search can occur either internally as a psychological process or in some cases may involve an actual geographic journey Spiritual journeys can be conducted by individuals or groups In exploring this topic various kinds of texts will be reviewed including autobiographies novels and short stories as well as myths folktales and mystical writings The book classifies spiritual journey narratives into four categories theological journeys mystical journeys mythopoetic journeys and allegorical journeys Representative texts have been selected in the history of Western religious literature that illustrate the basic features of each of these four categories The Edward Street Baby Farm Stella Budrikis, 2020-10-01 In 1907 Perth woman Alice Mitchell was arrested for the murder of five month old Ethel Booth During the inquest and subsequent trial the state s citizens were horrified to learn that at least 37 infants had died in Mitchell s care in the previous six years It became clear that she had been running a baby farm making a profit out of caring for the children of single mothers and other unfortunate women The Alice Mitchell murder trial gripped the city of Perth and the nation This book retraces this infamous baby farm tragedy which led to legislative changes to protect children s welfare
