According To Luke Insights For Contemporary Pastoral Practice:

According to Luke Michael Trainor, 1992 Detailed study of the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles seeking to uncover the pastoral practices of the early Christian community that produced these New Testament documents Part two of the study applies these findings to issues of pastoral practice and faith education in the modern world Concludes with questions for reflection and case studies Includes references and person and subject indexes The author is a priest in Adelaide where he co ordinates the Catholic Adult Education Service His other works include TNurturing the Spirit and TVoices from the Edge Luke s Gospel in our world Readings from the Perspective of Earth Norman C. Habel, 2000-08-01

This volume introduces the hermeneutical approach and ecojustice principles developed by the Earth Bible project team Following this approach biblical scholars illustrate how a reading of the biblical text from the perspective of Earth yields fresh insights Though the text may seem anthropocentric these studies are able to retrieve evidence of the living voice and intrinsic value of Earth It is an approach that can be harmonized with other recognized critical approaches to the Bible from historical criticism to ecofeminist criticism The texts chosen are from many parts of the Bible Psalms Prophets Gospels Romans Revelation and the intertestamental literature Tobit and Wisdom of Solomon The Earth Story in the New Testament Norman C. Habel, Vicky Balabanski, 2002-10-01 The Earth Bible is an international project including volumes on ecojustice readings of major sections of the Bible The basic aims of the Earth Bible project are to develop ecojustice principles appropriate to an Earth hermeneutic for interpreting the Bible and for promoting justice and healing for Earth to publish these interpretations as contributions to the current debate on ecology ecoethics and ecotheology to provide a responsible forum within which the suppressed voice of Earth may be heard and impulses for healing Earth may be generated The project explores text and tradition from the perspective of Earth employing a set of ecojustice principles developed in consultation with ecologists suspecting that the text and or its interpreters may be anthropocentric and not geocentric but searching to retrieve alternative traditions that hear the voice of Earth and value Earth as more than a human instrument The lead article in Volume V is a reflection in responses to the ecojustice principles employed in the hermeneutic of the project Several articles offer insights into New Testament texts that seem to devalue Earth in favour of heaven The final article by Barbara Rossing challenges the popular apocalyptic notion that in the new age Earth will be terminated A feature of this volume is a dialogue between Norman Habel who argues that John One seems to devalue Earth and two respondents Elaine Wainwright and Vicky Balabanski who is coeditor of this volume with Norman Habel 1 The God of Old

Greg Forbes, 2000-10-01 This book is a study of the parables unique to the Third Gospel aiming in particular to establish a link between Luke s choice of these parables and his overall purpose in writing In comparison to the synoptic kingdom parables one distinguishing feature of the Lukan parables is their more personal portrait of the character and the nature of God himself Luke s desire is to demonstrate to his readers whoever they are that in Christianity the realization of the Jewish hope has occurred The parables promote this idea by offering both continuity OT and contrast contemporary Judaism in their portrait of God Thus as well as operating in a parenetic sense the parables also help to legitimize Luke s argument regarding fulfilment

Food Justice and Hospitality in Luke-Acts Gideon S. S. Paulraj,2023-05-23 Food security is a multifaceted concept and extends beyond the production of availability of and demand for food This book attempts to explore the meal narrations in Luke Acts as a source for a theology of hospitality to ascertain Luke s concern for the immigrant the poor the homeless the hungry and the outcasts This book focuses on fifteen meal scenes in Luke Acts and contributes to Lukan scholarship on meals particularly in addressing the issue of food insecurity Firstly by incorporating cultural dimensions and anthropology to understand the social context of the first century world this book contributes a new perspective on the Lukan audience which was stratified by socioeconomic and religious disparities in terms of privilege wealth and power Secondly this book analyzes the Lukan concern with the social structure and the social political economic and religious setting behind his emphasis on the pto set macron over o choi and the marginalized concerning livelihood needs such as food and shelter Thirdly this book connects Lukan concern with contemporary theologies that include an emphasis on hunger and hospitality such as liberation theology Dalit theology and practical theology Thus the book challenges readers and offers a few recommendations for implementations to combat hunger and destitution

The Ten Commandments in Medieval and Early Modern Culture Walter Melion, Jürgen Pieters, Youri Desplenter, 2017-09-04 Over the course of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries as more and more vernacular commentaries on the Decalogue were produced throughout Europe the moral system of the Ten Commandments gradually became more prominent The Ten Commandments proved to be a topic from which numerous proponents of pastoral and lay catechesis drew inspiration God's commands were discussed and illustrated in sermons and confessor's manuals and they spawned new theological and pastoral treatises both Catholic and Reformed But the Decalogue also served several authors including Dante Petrarch and Christine de Pizan Unlike the Seven Deadly Sins the Ten Commandments supported a more positive image of mankind one that embraced the human potential for introspection and the conscious choice to follow God's Law
